Black October Shakes World Economy

Like a rubber band that had been stretched out of shape, the stock market snapped back into reality on October 19, 1987. The Dow Jones Industrial average dropped an incredible 508 points in one day as traders panicked on the New York exchange, and the shockwaves reverberated around the world as the Tokyo and London exchanges followed with record breaking losses. The panic on Wall Street had been preceded by a week in which the Dow Jones had lost 235 points. In fact, between August 1st and October 19th the market lost close to 1000 points or 35% of its value.

What caused the bursting of the bubble of illusion that had borne the stock market ever upward over the last five years? No one knows. But eventually the psychology of the market had to come into line with economic reality. The economic facts to which we have pointed over the past two years indicate that the U.S. economy was and is fundamentally unsound and unjust.

In The Nationalist we pointed to the major weaknesses in the economic structure which seemed not to concern the stock market:

Dec85 We explained that massive subsidies to huge agribusiness corporations were killing the small farmer; that small banks, particularly S&Ls and farm banks, were collapsing at unprecedented rates while big banks were so flush with foreign money that they sent loan salesmen all over the ineptly managed Third World to find countries willing to borrow at high interest rates.

Jan86 That according to the Census Bureau the standard of living of the ordinary middle-class family has dropped dramatically since 1970, despite the fact that both spouses now work.

Mar86 That, according to a Harvard study, hunger is increasing in America despite vast welfare expenditures.

Apr86 That in order to keep foreign capital flowing into their coffers, the big U.S. banks were keeping interest rates high even though this hurts American industry which needs cheap credit to succeed.

Dec86 That the Boesky scandal revealed Wall Street corruption to be massive and systemic, and that acquisitions wasted money that could be channeled into productive investment in new companies.

Apr87 That "our GNP is faltering, new orders for durable goods are falling, we now have a huge trade deficit, the national debt is stupendous, unemployment shows no signs of abating, capital equipment purchases are falling, the international debt crisis is looming again, the government is paralyzed by Iranscam, and Wall Street itself is in the midst of its worst corruption scandal, yet the stock market breaks new records every week"; that white male workers are being forced out of middle-income jobs into low-income jobs.

Jul87 That worker-management conflict and managerial incompetence are the main causes of our inability to compete with Germany and Japan.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF?

After the collapse of the stock market, President Reagan told us not to worry because "all the economic indices are up." This was only "a long overdue correction." "...for the first time in history, the crisis has been isolated to the stock market itself. It has not extended into either the production activities of the country or the financial fabric of the nation..." said the President, except that the last quote was from President Hoover one week after the crash of 1929. In fact, our political and business leaders are no more willing to face reality now than they were then.

The stock market crash of October 1987 not only foretells of a coming recession, it will help cause that downturn. The real question is whether the recession will become another Great Depression. Supposedly we have all sorts of financial institutions in place to prevent a collapse of faith in the system, but then again the panic which led to a 508 point drop was also supposed to be impossible. Only competent political leadership and business management can maintain the faith of the people in the financial system, and we have neither because our politicians and our businessmen are not primarily concerned with the fate of the nation but with their power, prestige and profit. They do not study how to lead, but only how to acquire power and how to exploit it for personal advantage once they have it. At this they are expert and should we ever need advice on such matters we should certainly turn to them, but otherwise they are devoid of wisdom. They will bumble their way into depression just as surely as they did in the 1930s.

CAPITALISTS WILL TURN TO GOVERNMENT

The "free market" capitalists are already demanding government action and intervention. The plutocrats will try to buy their way out of depression, but the country is already in $2.3 trillion of debt and foreign money will dry up. Then they will turn to the populace and ask for extraordinary sacrifices to save the system that they used to plunder the nation for their own profit. They will call for new taxes on the middle and lower classes, but will not touch the estates of the 1% who own 36% of the country's wealth, or the 10% who own 63% of the country's wealth.

This scam has already begun with an article in the Washington Post written by H. Ross Perot, the third wealthiest man in America. In it Perot says, "This is our country. We, the people, own it.... Don't blame our elected officials for failing to address these problems.... Let's face it: We, not our elected officials, are the dwarfs and wimps.... We must cut spending and raise taxes.... Even if wealth and corporate profits were taxed at 100 percent, we could not begin to raise the money needed to operate our country.... The problem is a failure of leadership. Our business leaders have failed to provide strong, effective leadership. They - not the workers - are the problem.... let's all work and sacrifice to solve [our problems]."

We are all happy to hear that Ross is ready to sacrifice for America, now let's see how much he and the other business leaders whom he blames are ready to pay for the mistakes they made. Let's see if Ross is willing to throw his $2.9 billion into the pot, and why not? He can earn hundreds of thousands a year in speaking fees to support himself. Only the complete commitment of his fortune would be a sacrifice equivalent to the sacrifice made due to increased taxes by the ordinary working family of four which earns $25,000 a year with both husband and wife working and has nothing in the bank. Let's see Ross put his money where his mouth is.

Black Celebrating

The Notting Hill Carnival which takes place in West London is Europe's largest street festival. The "carnival", which is supposed to be a celebration of West Indian music and culture, usually attracts over 300,000 people, the vast majority of whom are Black. The Carnival is in fact a two day orgy of violence which this year saw more than 800 felonies (mostly rapes and muggings) committed. One White youth who was selling Coca-Cola was stabbed to death by a gang of Blacks and riot police moved in for running battles with hundreds of Blacks. Such revelry at the Carnival is not unusual. In years past the event developed into full-scale riots. The Carnival is just one more of the many blessings that multiracialism has brought to White society.

Words of Truth

Listen to the words of Wilbur Colom, a wealthy Black attorney from Mississippi, who intends to run as the unopposed Republican nominee for state treasurer: "I've built a thriving law practice, a new car dealership, a successful radio station. And I've done well in large part because White conservatives, if you give them a chance, will let you in on what they are doing.... I honestly don't believe conservatives are the nemesis of Black people.... I have also found to my surprise that they relate very well to Black people who share their economic values."

Colom is right in all that he says. The only thing conservatives understand is the dollar bill. As a group, White conservatives do have more in common with a wealthy Black man who who shares their life-style and corrupt values than with working-class Whites, whom they see mainly as a group to be economically exploited and politically manipulated. The only reason conservatives develop anti-Black attitudes is because most Blacks are poor and are politically organized by the liberals. We Nationalists are different. Our first loyalty is to our racial kinsmen - regardless of class. We would never betray poor Whites in favor of rich Blacks and Jews.

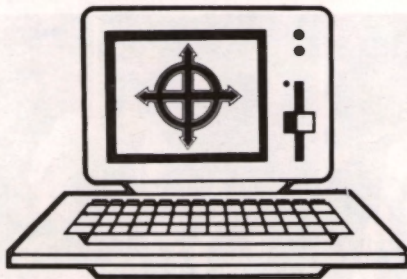

PLO Out - JDL Okay

On September 15th, 1987 the Reagan administration ordered the Palestine Liberation Organization to close its Washington information office. The PLO is recognized worldwide as the only legitimate voice of the Palestinian people, but it is hated by the Jews who have put pressure on Reagan to take action against it as a terrorist organization. Naturally, the Jews are not so upset by Jewish terrorist networks such as the Jewish Defense League and the Jewish Defense Organization whose offices remain open despite the fact that both are described as terrorist organizations by the FBI.

More Princes of the City

In the early 1970's New York City was rocked by scandal in its police department. The Serpico affair revealed widespread corruption at the beat cop level, and the Leuci affair exposed the complete corruption of the Special Investigation Unit (SIU) which was responsible for the war against drugs. The SIU was made up of elite detectives who were given the run of the city, until a team captain named Bob Leuci felt the pangs of conscience. The SIU teams would keep half the money and half the drugs from a bust and turn in the other half as evidence. The take was split evenly amongst all the partners on a team. A very powerful film entitled Prince of the City starring Treat Williams was made a few years ago based on this story.

Last year the same sort of corruption was found in the narcotics division of the Miami Police Department and this year it is the turn of Washington D.C. The U.S. District Attorney for D.C., Joseph DiGenova, has announced that he will drop 300 to 400 pending drug cases because they have been compromised by the latest scandal. As in New York and Miami, the corruption was discovered only when a cop on the inside came forward with evidence. How many police departments are just as crooked, but have yet to be blessed with a cop with a conscience?

Technology Fund Appeal

The National Democratic Front is expanding rapidly and desperately needs more computer equipment and software for both administrative purposes and desktop publishing. Our goal is to raise $5000 and this appeal will continue to run until we receive the necessary contributions. This is an opportunity for those of you who cannot be active to sacrifice for the Movement. We know you will not let us down.

Please give as much as you can each month.

Enclosed is my check for the Technology Fund in the amount of:

New Left Jews Take Over New Right

About three years ago a friend of mine who was then on the Capitol Hill staff of the late Senator East of North Carolina mentioned to me that formerly New Left Jews had taken control of the Heritage Forum, the leading conservative think tank. I passed the remark off to paranoia. In 1986, a member of the NDF, who was formerly active in the New Left, told me that he was confused by the fact that Linda Chavez and other devout marxist leaders that he had worked and socialized with fifteen to twenty years ago were now conservative Republican leaders. He also mentioned that Chavez and most of the others that had switched were Jewish. He was also nonplussed that the media seemed not to notice or at least were not giving it much attention. Can you imagine the press reaction if a former Nazi had risen to the top ranks of the Republican or Democratic parties?

My curiosity was now aroused, however, I simply did not pursue the research for lack of time. But on October 19th, the Washington Post ran a story on the "Second Thoughts Convention" which laid out the essentials of what had happened. The convention was sponsored by a New Right lobby called the National Forum Foundation and its purpose was "to mobilize a movement of ex-radicals which sort of exerts its influence, as we say, in the national debate." To be more precise it was to get former marxist leaders who had moved from the New Left to the New Right to denounce Communism, the Soviet Union, and Soviet client states such as Nicaragua.

ROOTED IN THE ESTABLISHMENT

From the list of names of the speakers one would have thought the convention was being held in Tel Aviv instead of Washington: Norman Podhoretz, Irving Kristol, Nathan Glazer, David Ifshin, Jeff Herf, Hilton Kramer, and William Phillips. There were a couple of token gentiles including Peter Collier, the former editor of the New Left magazine Ramparts, but he was with his permanent writing partner David Horowitz.

All of these Jews are now firmly implanted in the Establishment. And they all have supposedly abandoned communism to embrace the wonders of capitalism. Since these two doctrines of materialism are so similar, the apparent ease of the conversion is not surprising, but what is striking is the timing, and the fact that these New Left Jews now dominate the New Right.

Some of these Jews began to abandon the New Left ship in the early '70s when the direction of the political wind was not really clear, but most waited until Ronald Reagan destroyed Jimmy Carter before they saw the light. Then they moved with the help of Jewish money and connections into the top posts of neoconservative intellectual leadership. They sought to dominate the new politics by controlling the think tanks and the publications of the New Right, and this they have succeeded in doing.

THE AGE-OLD GAME

To understand this political phenomena, we must recognize that Jews have no loyalty to ideas above their primary concern which is the fate of Jewry. Indeed, the shift from left to right required no change in position on this most important issue. The Jews have such a lock on both the Republicans and the Democrats that both parties always support Israel and contend with one another to see which can promise the Jews the more. This is due not just to Jewish control of the media, but to the fact that one-quarter of all Republican contributions come from Jews, and one-half of all Democratic contributions come from Jews. No politician can survive long without Jewish support and all know it.

POLITICAL ANIMALS

The Jews are political animals who innately seek out positions of power as this is how they have learned to survive and prosper in alien lands without assimilating. They have long sought to take control of academic societies because they can then define which theories and research are acceptable and which are not, just as control of the media allows them to decide which issues will be discussed and which are beyond the pale.

An example, is the determination of the Jew Arthur Boas to take control of anthropology by ousting people like John Baker from the ranks of its political leadership. Baker was an Oxford dean and was long considered the best anthropologist in the world. Baker was also a racist who wrote the definitive technical work entitled Race.

Boas understood that Baker and his kind had to be removed from academic leadership before racialism could be made anathema, so he conspired and maneuvered until he and other Jews were able to take over the top posts in the academic societies. Then they launched their political campaign in conjunction with their Jewish friends in the media against academic racialism.

They developed such power in the politics of the scientific community that today it is all but impossible to get money to do research on racial differences. In fact, the National Academy of Science has rejected each request by Dr. William Shockley to support studies on IQ differences amongst the races, fearing where the truth might lead.

The Jews have a natural advantage when it comes to scheming to take control of academic and intellectual organizations and that is the lack of political interest and ulterior motive on the part of White scientists and academics. The best White experts are in love with their craft and see the time-consuming responsibilities of running the academic societies as a burden which takes them away from their research. The Jews, on the other hand, are devoted first to amalgamating the power they need to protect their people and only secondarily to their field of expertise; and they will never let truth interfere with their top priority.

This is one of the reasons the Jews have historically produced so few technical geniuses despite their level of education. This would seem to have changed in this century, but that is only because Jewish control of the press allows them to tout second-class Jewish minds as first-rate, while the true experts and geniuses have trouble getting their works published let alone recognized. And this is good for revolutionary nationalism because it means that the System is dominated by two-bit political, economic, military, and scientific "thinkers". GG

Reagan Flirts with War in Gulf

On October 17, 1987 an Iranian Silkworm missile slammed into the tanker Sea Isle City near Kuwait's main oil terminal. The tanker belongs to Kuwait but now flies an American flag because President Reagan decided to consent to the reflagging of Kuwait's tanker fleet for reasons that are difficult to fathom. Secretary of Defense Weinberger claims that we are in the Gulf to prevent the flow of oil from being stopped, but that is absurd on its face because we have done nothing to stop Iraq from proceeding with its attacks on tankers in the Gulf, rather all our efforts are directed against Iran.

In response to the attack on the Sea Isle City, the U.S. Navy sent four warships to destroy Iran's Rostam oil platform. Iranian mine-layers and speedboats have also been attacked. Why?

Do we really want war with Iran? What do we have to gain by war with Iran? The world is now awash with oil - the oil fields of the Persian Gulf are no longer of any consequence to the U.S. or even its allies. And if our allies think the area so important why must we twist their arms in order to get them to commit naval forces to the region? The situation is truly baffling. It appears that we are once again heading for involvement in what will be a costly war with no clear strategic purpose.

SILKWORM MISSILE

SERVING THE JEWS

Perhaps we are there to prevent the defeat of Iraq which according to a report just released by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is on the ropes and is ready to crack. But the capitulation of Iraq would end the war which is supposedly the goal of the Reagan Administration. Even if all of Iraq were occupied by Iran this would have no effect on the strategic position of the U.S. which has never been close to Iraq in any case. It would of course affect the strategic position of Israel because no longer would two of its greatest enemies be fighting one another, and perhaps that explains why we are risking and spending American lives in the Persian Gulf. As the leader of Syria Hafez Assad once said, America has no foreign policy in the Middle East - Israel has a policy which America executes.

It seems that U.S. policy is exactly the opposite of what the Reagan Administration claims. Instead of wanting an end to the Iran-Iraq War, the U.S. is doing all in its power to extend it - a policy that can only serve the interests of the Jews. This would also explain why Congress is not adamant in its demand for invocation of the War Powers Act even though we are obviously engaged in hostile military action in the Gulf. Congressmen are never too keen to stick their necks out where they may offend the Jews. GG

AFL-CIO Readmits Teamsters

In 1957 the AFL-CIO under George Meany threw out the Teamsters for corruption and labor racketeering in collusion with the Mafia. The Teamsters went on to a sterling record of having four consecutive presidents convicted of various forms of corruption, and its latest president, Jackie Presser, is under indictment for embezzlement of union funds. The Justice Department says that the union is still controlled by the Mafia.

Nevertheless, Lane Kirkland was delighted to get the Teamsters back in the AFL-CIO as the power of organized labor in America is fading. The Teamsters have 1.7 million members which makes it the largest labor union in the country. The union is normally very successful in both recruiting members and in negotiating contracts which should not surprise anyone familiar with the power and tactics of the Mafia.

The proportion of the work force in labor unions has dropped from a post-war peak of 36% to its present 18%. The cause of the drop is corrupt, inept and self-seeking management. For example, the head of the United Auto Workers now makes over $100,000 a year. The president of the Teamsters makes $500,000 annually plus all he can steal. These are the type of men who are struggling against capitalism to protect the interests of the worker. Five major labor unions are controlled by the Mafia and others are controlled by the Communists. All want to use the worker to acquire political power or to steal pension funds or both. None care for the worker and this truth has gradually seeped into the consciousness of the working masses who have rejected unionization.

Unfortunately, workers who are not unionized are even more vulnerable to the predatory practices of the capitalists than those who are in the corrupt unions. The situation will only be resolved for the benefit of the nation and the workers when the National Democratic Front takes power and sets up Cooperatives in which the workers own their industries. Only then will the professional managers learn to treat their employees with respect and courtesy. GG diminish and they will pull the strings of their Congressional puppets to make certain that the burden of sacrifice falls elsewhere just as in the Great Depression. In the Jan86 issue of The Nationalist we said the following which bears repeating considering the events of Black October:

"In good times [in a capitalist society] everyone gets richer but the wealthy get richer at a far greater rate than the middle and lower classes, and in bad times the middle and lower classes fall rapidly while the rich normally hold their own. This is because they have the money to buy the legislation that they need to protect and subsidize their interests, and because they they have the family, social, business and political contacts they need to find profitable deals and lucrative jobs. It is through this process of nepotism and legal corruption that the ruling class is able to maintain its dominant position in society and feed off the industry of the rest of us. And when hard times come they are the first to talk about sacrifice for the greater good, but the statistics tell us on whom the burden of that sacrifice falls. They do not understand, or do not want to understand that good leaders not only share the hardships of their people but, in fact, shoulder the greatest part of the burden. Only such leaders command respect and deserve to be followed. A capitalist leader is too selfish to live simply so that others need not live in poverty."

Nationalism is built on social justice and good leadership, and these demand that the rich sacrifice as much as the poor. In America this will only happen when the present order is destroyed, but the faith of the people in the financial system has already been shaken and their faith in the political system will fall next. You can smell the first whiffs of smoldering revolution in the air. GG

Dear Gary,

We appreciate The Nationalist very much and wish you the very best. Especially liked "Individuality Over Individualism" in the Sept. issue.

Keltie Zubko
Sooke, British Columbia

Keltie Zubko is the editor of The Western Separatist Papers which is the publication of the Western Canada Concept Party led by Douglas Christie. She is also the editor of the Friends of Freedom newsletter. The MCCP seeks independence for the western part of Canada (the White part). Christie is also an attorney who represents revisionist publishers who deny the story of the "Holocaust" that is propounded by the Jews. In the "free" country of Canada, Holocaust revisionism is considered by the government (under pressure from the Jews) to be a crime. At present Christie is defending John Ross Taylor, James Keegstra, and Ernst Zuendel who has just won a retrial which will begin in January. For more information write WSP, P.O. Box 1133, Sooke, B.C., Western Canada V0S 1N0.

And speaking of Ernst Zuendel:

Dear Gary:

some literature from the couragous Ernst Zuendel. After reading the Hoax of the Twentieth Century by Arthur Butz, I was very sceptical about the premise of the book, that there was no systematic genocide by the Nazis of the Jews during World War II. After about Zuendel's "Great Holocaust Trial", I began leaning toward the view of the historical revisionists. In any case, why use underhanded means to suppress people who question the Jewish holocaust? Wouldn't discrediting such people as Ernst Zuendel with the truth be easier and more effective? Unless, of course, he is right and the upholders of the Holocaust legend are wrong.

While Ernst Zuendel probably does not fit your or my political views, he certainly should get attention from us racialisists because his ordeal is a classic example of the suppression by the Establishment of people who hold unpopular views. This suppression also includes a media blackout of the affair. I hope that you will do an article on him and ask the readers of The Nationalist to support him.

Sincerely,
George Streicher
Seattle, Washington

Editor - In fact the American media did intentionally and almost completely ignore Zuendel's seven week trial, but the Canadian media were riveted by the event because so many shocking admissions by Jewish witnesses and historians came out of the thing. For example, Raoul Hilberg, the chief Jewish Holocaust historian, admitted that there were no death camps and gas in Germany proper. He said that no extermination took place at Dachau, Buchenwald, Bergen-Belsen, etc. and this stunned the reporters covering the trial because they were unfamiliar with how much ground the revisionist historians have already forced Jewish historians to give on the Holocaust. Now the Jews claim that the extermination camps were all in Poland, but during the war, and for twenty years thereafter, they claimed that there were gas chambers in Germany itself, and these lies resulted in the execution of the German commandants of those camps. Yet these Jewish liars have never been brought to trial for their perjury. Another important Jewish witness, Rudolph Werbe, who had escaped from Auschwitz in 1944 and brought tales of mass extermination to the Allies in Switzerland admitted that his book detailing his life in the Auschwitz concentration camp was largely a fiction. These revelations rocked Canada, yet in his instructions to the jury the judge said that there was overwhelming evidence that the Holocaust had occurred. So the jury had no choice but to convict. It is not surprising that this kangaroo court conviction was overturned on appeal. Ernst Zuendel can be contacted directly at 206 Carlton Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

My own conversion on the Holocaust question took place after spending an extended period of time with the leading Holocaust revisionist Dr. Robert Faurisson who is a professor at the University of Lyon in France. What impressed me most about Faurisson's claims that there were no gas chambers and that the program of extermination was an historical lie was that his arguments were entirely technical in nature rather than political. He demonstrated to me that these stories of gas chambers were physically impossible as they were described. Faurisson is a liberal and was a bit shocked when one day I explained my racialist views to him. He said to me, "Gary, if you are right it will shake the world." "Robert, what you do not understand is that if you are right, it will shake the world," I replied.

Forbes Says Rich Got 41% Richer

Forbes business magazine released its list of the wealthiest men and women in America and says that the holdings of the top 400 increased from $160 billion last year to $220 billion this year (this was before the stock market crash of October 19th). This amounts to a whopping 41% increase in wealth in one year, while the earnings of the average worker has been declining in America. It is enough to wipe out all of the U.S. budget deficit from last year and then some.

There are now 49 billionaires in the U.S. whereas last year there were only 26. Of the 23 newcomers 9 are corporate raiders. Greenmail must have been especially good last year.

ARMED WITH LOVE AND HATE

The purveyors of conventional wisdom now tell us that hate is an evil, ugly thing - that it is wrong to hate and that we should love everyone, except racists, of course. We have a different view. Love and hate are just different facets of the same force - the power we call passion. Love and hate are inseparable and in a healthy person they complement one another. Only those who hate can love and only those who love can hate. Like any power these emotions are neither inherently good nor evil, but can be used for either purpose. We are passionate people who love our own kind and who hate the enemies of our race. We are not cold fish who carefully calculate which way to step and what to say from moment to moment in pursuit of personal gain. We are driven by our passion to be forthright and honest - to say what we mean and mean what we say.

As usual, the conventional wisdom is at war with the nature of man. A human being can only identify with those of his own kind. He feels closest to those of his blood - his family, then his clan, then his tribe, and then his nation. He cannot feel an emotional bond to those beyond his Race, and those who claim to be dishonest individualists using a smokescreen to cover their real motives or are misguided idealists whose "love" is completely in the abstract and bears more relation to guilt than passion.

It is emotion and not reason that rules man. Genetic nature establishes the basic emotional predispositions of both the race and the individual, and reason can only operate within those bounds to achieve the objectives that are dictated by the emotions. Any attempt to establish an artificial agenda according to some sort of detached logic or contrived "reason" is doomed to failure. Nature will not be denied. Man cannot be molded into something he is not, and as White Nationalists we are quite pleased to play the hand we were dealt when the our Race was born. We suggest to the other races that they do the same and eschew the wisdom of the passionless hypocrites to "love everyone" as this leads only to the cutthroat individualism that we see in all multiracial societies - countries such as India, Mexico, and Egypt.

We are armed with the double-edged sword of passion, and its cutting blades of love and hate will allow us to destroy the coldly calculating Machiavellians who now rule in a decadent world under the names of Capitalist and Communist. In the end, we will see who is willing to sacrifice themselves for what they believe.
