FBI Says Israel Protects JDL

In the first issue of The Nationalist (Dec85) we had an article entitled FBI Tips Off JDL, the thesis of which was that the FBI, before making any arrests, told the New York Times that the JDL was responsible for the murders by bombing of the Arab activist Alex Odeh and two men with alleged Nazi ties in order to give the JDL bombers the chance to safely escouce themselves in Israel. It turns out that the Jewish Defense League terrorists did avail themselves of the opportunity that the FBI gave them and fled to Israel. Now the FBI is complaining that Israel is impeding prosecution of these Jewish terrorists. Big surprise!

A top level FBI memo, leaked to the Village Voice in late November, says that several key suspects have fled to Israel and that the Israeli government is not cooperating with the FBI agents who are investigating "the 25 terrorist incidents and other criminal activity perpetrated by the JDL." Shades of the Pollard case.

In fact, it is ludicrous for the FBI to ask the Israeli Secret Intelligence Service in Washington for assistance because it is well known that the JDL and the MOSSAD are bedmates and certainly the FBI is well aware of this. So what is going on? There are two primary possibilities: 1) that there are people in the FBI and Justice Department that actually want to prosecute the JDL and they leaked the memo in order to embarass and pressure Israel, or 2) that the FBI does not want to tangle with the JDL, Israel, and the Jewish lobby and so leaked the memo to lay out a full-proof excuse for its inability to act against the largest terror network operating in America.

Only time will tell which analysis is correct, but the fact that the creator of the Jewish Defense League, Meir Kahane, is allowed to travel freely between the U.S. and Israel (where he is a member of Parliament) indicates that the government is not too keen on cracking down on the JDL. Kahane ran the JDL until 1984 when he won a seat in the Israeli Knesset. Kahane comes to the U.S. to raise money for his Kach Party and to powwow with JDL leaders such as his friend Murray Young, a member of the JDL governing board. Young was just convicted along with Victor Vancier, the former national chairman, in a string of bombings that took place between 1984 and 1986.

Actually, the event that undid them was the tear gas bombing of a Soviet dance performance at the Lincoln Center. The audience was filled with Jews who don't seem to mind too much when the bombs are directed against Arabs and Nazis, but who get very upset when Jews get hurt. Twenty people were injured and the police raided Young's house where they found records of his other bombings. Young was sentenced to only five years for his terrorism by a Jewish New York District Court Judge named Leo Glasser. No doubt Glasser would have treated an Arab terrorist just as leniently. GG

Play with Their Legal Definition

The Jewish media in America (ABC, NBC, CBS, Time, Newsweek, U.S. News & World Report, New York Times, Washington Post, etc., etc.) have long sought to portray the Jews as people not of a different race and not of a different nationality, but only of a different religion because religious freedom has been respected since the founding of the country and so assimilation can be resisted behind the facade of religion. But of course, Jews do consider themselves a separate race and a separate nationality and refer to themselves as such in their internal publications, that is the Jewish press that is not meant for Gentile consumption.

The Jews established the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People not because of any love for Blacks, but because they have always considered themselves a racial minority and have always been considered a racial minority in the countries of Europe where they resided. They used the Blacks as a point man in their struggle to establish a body of laws that would protect racial minorities because no one can feel sorry for rich Jewish doctors, lawyers and stock manipulators, but sympathy for the poverty-ridden is only natural.

But now that the Jews do have such a body of laws they just cannot resist the temptation to use them to their own advantage, even though they risk dropping the mask that they are but Whites of a different religion. This latest development is a measure of their arrogance which results from a false sense of security that since they now dominate America, they will always be able to do so. They once had the same feeling about Austria.

RACE OR NATIONALITY - OR BOTH

In a synagogue vandalism case in Silver Spring, Maryland, the Jews claimed that they are a racial minority, and in May of 1987 the Supreme Court agreed to define them as such. But in the Alan Berg trial in November of 1987, they decided to claim that they are a separate nationality. That's right, now they are saying that they are not Americans but something else - a nationality, "a linkage of a people, by virtue of a common history, a common culture, and a common destiny," according to Rabbi Stanley Wagner who testified for the prosecution in the Berg trial. Wagner went on to say that "A person could be born anywhere in the world and be a Jew by virtue of association with the people of Israel."

Four members of The Order were tried for violating the civil rights of the Jewish radio talk show host Alan Berg by killing him. The State's Attorney refused to try the case as a murder because there was little evidence against the defendants, so the Justice Department stepped in and tried it under the 1968 Voting Rights Act. Berg was a stereotypically obnoxious Jew who used the power of his radio show to constantly attack and abuse racists. In order to establish jurisdiction the prosecutor had to show that Berg was killed because of his race, religion, sex or nationality. Unfortunately, Berg was an atheist which eliminated the easy category - religion. Now the Jews had to prove that they are either a race or a nationality. They chose the latter and the judge accepted the definition.

ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN

So are the Jews a race, a nationality, or a religion? The answer is that in America they are a very special people who can choose to be a separate race when it suits them, or they can pretend to be White when that suits them. They can pretend to be Americans when it is convenient, or they can be a separate nationality when it is politically advantageous to be such. And they can still be considered a religion even when many of them embrace atheism. Only in America could such mammoth hypocrisies not only be tolerated but be praised as liberality. Yes, it is wonderful to be a Jew in America - for now. 66

Is Vice President Bush paying homage to a religion, or to a race, or to a nationality? Or is he just kissing butt to get elected?

Multiracial Genocide in the United States

An Essay by John Cuza

For too long Americans have been ruled by wealthy Plutocrats who are sacrificing the White people of the U.S. on the altar of multiracial genocide. Foreigners are flooding into the United States by the thousands, while our corrupt politicians tax White working men and women to support these various groups of culture distorters.

How long will it take us to realize that we have been betrayed? The children of our wealthy politicians go to all White schools. Their families live in all White neighborhoods. But what about the average White working American? Our children are forced to suffer the horrors of attending integrated schools and neighborhoods which are nothing more than battlegrounds.

Having suffered under integration, whereby my family and I were often assaulted by savage Blacks, I know first hand what the results of race-mixing are - millions of other White families have also suffered under forced integration, but our Jewish controlled media choses to ignore these facts.

AMERICA AWAKE!

We White Americans must wake up! It is not a crime to want to live with our own race; to want to enjoy the culture which was handed down to us by our gifted White ancestors. We must not allow ourselves to suffer the guilt foisted upon us by the corrupt politicians and the media masters. Surely it is idiotic to say that "all men are created equal". The truth is self-evident. Thomas Jefferson meant only that all White citizens were equal under the law.

It is time for the White race to regain power in America. For too long we have been smothered by profit-seeking, multiracialists who are as corrupt as their impotent notions of democracy.

MELTING POT BOILS OVER

From crowded highways and the resulting violence, to street muggings and gang violence, it can be seen that the melting pot is about to boil over. When racial immigration restrictions were removed the White people of the United States were sentenced to racial and cultural death. The plutocrats who run our government are determined to mulattoize this great country, and as a result White Americans are prisoners in their own land.

Under a Nationalist government the real problems of America, crime, multiracialism, moral degeneracy, economic exploitation by the wealthy, and the destruction of our environment would be dealt with by a President who could operate unhindered by the outmoded system of checks and balances which allows special-interest controlled politicians to defeat the will of the President and the people.

POWER TO PROTECT THE PEOPLE

A Nationalist President elected to a ten year term could carry out a program which would stop the wealthy politicians from committing racial genocide against White work-

SHORT BURSTS

Justice American Style

On July 13, 1966 Richard Speck stabbed and strangled eight student nurses in a townhouse near South Chicago Community Hospital. He was sentenced to eight consecutive 50-150 year terms which in the bizarre world of American criminal justice means that he has already been up for parole five times. On September 2nd the families of the victims had to relive for the fifth time the horror of the brutal murders of their children in order to prevent the parole board from letting Speck out of prison. The great tragedy is that this circus of agony will be repeated many times before the NDF takes power and executes Speck, and deals with those who have shielded him from justice since 1966.

Bernhard Goetz, who defended himself in a shakedown attempt on a New York subway by shooting four Black thugs, has been sentenced to six months in prison for carrying the illegal weapon that saved his life. He had previously been acquitted of attempted murder charges because the jury believed that he was acting in self-defense. In fact, Goetz had applied for a pistol license after one of his earlier victimizations by Black muggers, but the New York government decided that he did not need a weapon to defend himself in that fine city.

The Hypocrisy Called Freedom

Riggs Bank of Washington D.C. has just closed David Duke's presidential campaign checking account because of his political views. Last year Barclays Bank in London closed down the National Front's account after 20 years. Barclays was pressured by its "Jewish customers" to do this and was so embarrassed that it forgave a 5000 Pound debt that the NF owed it. Nevertheless, the NF had difficulty reestablishing a bank account because there are so few banks in Britain and apparently many had already been contacted by their "Jewish customers". This is the latest tactic of the Jews and the Capitalists in their war against their enemies. It is all part of the hypocrisy we call freedom.

AMA Cops Out

The head of the American Medical Association recently told the President's AIDS commission that it opposes widespread mandatory testing for the AIDS virus because it would yield too many false positives and would not be a good allocation of medical resources.

The fact is, however, that the Defense Department's AIDS testing program yields very few false positives because it is now very tightly administered (after a rocky start). AIDS is the only politically protected disease in America. The AMA and public health officials around the country (with a few exceptions) have been intimidated from doing their duty by the homosexual and civil rights lobbies. One day, when the corpses overflow the cemeteries, they will be made to account for their cowardice and dereliction of duty.

Legal Corruption

The Nevada Supreme Court has ruled that impeached federal judge Harry Claiborne can practice law in that state, even though he served 17 months in prison for income tax evasion. Apparently, income tax evasion and imprisonment are not grounds for disbarment in Nevada. The state Bar Association did not oppose Claiborne's being allowed to practice. Isn't it nice to have powerful friends? And where will Claiborne practice law? In Las Vegas, of course, where he'll be among his own kind.

More Legal Corruption

The Harvard student newspaper exposed a scheme in which the university's John F. Kennedy School of Government agreed to exchange prestigious university appointments for a $500,000 contribution from an oil-rich Texas couple. Dean Graham Allison reneged on the agreement that he had approved once the story broke. Allison is considered an expert political scientist, and obviously he understands how our plutocracy works. This sort of corruption is, of course, legal and typical of the favors bestowed on the "generous", but it is also embarrassing for Harvard which pretends that it has higher standards.

Anti-Semitism in Austria

A 1987 Gallup survey has found that 48% of Austrians think that "Jews possess too much economic and political influence", and 38% believe that Jews were responsible for their own frequent persecutions in the past. There are few Jews in Austria now, but for the first part of the 20th Century they constituted about 10% of Austria's population and were concentrated around Vienna, the center of power in the country.

SHORT BURSTS

The multiracial nature of the Austro-Hungarian Empire and their Jewish sense of racial unity allowed the Jews to completely dominate the social, legal, and political life of the capital, just as they now dominate affairs in New York City and Washington D.C. The Jews of Vienna felt so powerful and secure that they dispensed with the mask of apparent assimilation and this led to the rise of a strident anti-Semitism which still exists today and is being flamed by the Waldheim controversy. The Jews are trying to crush anti-Semitism in Austria with the weight of their world political force just as they did in Germany. But the Jews no longer have their Capitalist and Communist allies in occupation of the country, and they cannot have their enemies arrested, tortured, imprisoned and killed as they did at Nuremberg, so their strategy has backfired.

Even in Italy

The chaotic alienation of modern life has raised its ugly head in Italy in a way that Italians once thought impossible. Love and affection for children is part of the Italian character, so three brutal nationally-reported child abuse cases in one week hit Italy like a sledge-hammer. The Italian Association for the Prevention of the Abuse of children estimates that each year 20,000 are abused. Half of these cases are neglect, a quarter are physical abuse and a quarter sexual abuse. By European standards Italy's problem is small, and by American standards where an estimated 1,000,000 children are abused each year, Italy's problem is miniscule, but the Italians are in an uproar and governmental action is being demanded to protect children. We hope that they will come up with something that will help us with our national tragedy in this area, but we are convinced that only the establishment of a loving nationalistic social order and the restoration of supportive family life can end the torture of the helpless.

Down on the Farm

In 1984 only 11% of an American's total personal consumption costs went for food. The figure in Canada was 13.4%, in Japan 19.9%, and 21% in Western Europe. The reason for this is the massive agricultural subsidies that are passed each year by Congress amounting to approximately $65 billion per annum according to Senator Jesse Helms. The problem is that close to 80% of this money goes not to the family farmer, but to the large agribusiness corporations, so over 100,000 farmers are forced out of business every year. To complicate things the European Economic Community now also subsidizes agriculture in a big way in order to compete with the U.S., so stepping back from this policy becomes increasingly difficult. The Japanese as yet do little subsidizing, but do protect their farmers from foreign competition and may turn to subsidy if they are forced to open their markets.

The U.S. farmer gets only 25% of the food dollar. The rest goes to costs and middlemen. If farmers owned cooperative distribution companies then they could cut out middleman profit altogether and keep more of the food dollar for themselves, and fewer would be forced off the farms. Organizing such cooperatives for millions of farmers would be very difficult, particularly as the rich distributors would try to force them out of business by temporarily cutting prices. Only the government could organize such cooperatives successfully and on a nationwide basis, and that is just what the government will do when the NDF takes power.

Nothing For Acid Rain

In order to avoid open confrontation with Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney, President Reagan pledged a new $5 billion technology program to save Canadian and American rivers, lakes and forests from the blight of acid rain. That was in March of 1986. Twenty months later not one cent has been appropriated or spent, partly because the President failed to ask Congress for the funds and partly because Congress does not really care about the environment.

The Canadians have complained bitterly and Reagan at first tried to claim that the three-year, $400 million Clean Coal Technology Program that was passed in 1985 was actually part of his promised "new" effort of 1986. This only served to upset the Canadians even more and finally Reagan agreed to ask Congress for $2.5 billion and did so in April. No action yet. It is disgusting that that our politicians have to come under foreign pressure before they will act to clean up our own air and water.

Superfund a Superdud So Far

The Superfund joke rolls on a year after Congress appropriated billions to this Environmental Protection Agency program designed to cleanup the thousands of toxic waste dumps around the country that are seeping poisons into our ground water supply. In its first five years the EPA cleaned up only a handful of dumps because it was in the hands of Reagan's pro-business administrators, so last year Congress increased its funding five-fold to $9 billion.

The Superfund has so far used two primary methods in its "cleanup": 1) it has transferred the toxic chemicals to new sites in less populated areas, and 2) it has contained sites with underground barriers which, unfortunately, have often eroded. Only a third of the 74 sites cleaned up thus far include permanent treatment of the waste to detoxify it. Congress waited far too long to face the problem and is now trying to solve it by throwing money at it. But the EPA does not yet have the brains, talent or organization to use the money effectively, so it will be long time before any meaningful result will be achieved and enormous amounts of money will be wasted in the process, and thousands more every year will die from cancer causing agents in their drinking water and in the soil that their children play in. All for the convenience of the Capitalists.

Garbage Into Power

The good news on the environmental front is a new power plant technology from West Germany which is being tried out by General Electric in Modesto, California. The just completed $41 million plant uses only old tires as its source of fuel and will generate enough electricity for 15,000 homes for at least 15 years. The tires are dropped two at a time into two boilers burning at more than 2000 degrees Fahrenheit. The high temperature and the sophisticated pollution control equipment allow little smoke or odor to escape. Moreover, the plant produces three marketable by-products from the tires: steel, gypsum, and zinc. We need more of this kind of radical approach to recycling. GG

Critics Sidestep Black General

On November 5th, President Reagan appointed a Black, Lt. General Colin Powell, to be his national security advisor. That same day the Iran-Contra Committees recommended that the national security advisor never be a military man, but they immediately ate their words and no one has criticized the appointment, despite Powell's involvement in the Iran-Contra affair.

Powell acted as the coordinator of the November 1985 sale of Hawk missiles through Israel to Iran - the sale that Reagan has so much difficulty remembering. Powell passed information back and forth between the main characters and the White House, but in his closed-door testimony before Congress he could recall very little of what he did. A general with a weak memory is worth his weight in gold in the Reagan Administration.

What follows are quotes from House and Senate sources recited by the Washington Post on why Powell is not coming under criticism:

because "there was united agreement he was a superb officer...."

because he "stood a chance of becoming the first Black Army chief of staff."

because the committees "didn't want to be seen as beating up on a general."

The second quote touches on the truth. The fact is that Powell is not being criticized for his role in the Iran-Contra scandal because he is Black. All see the blatant hypocrisy, but they choke on the words and will not speak the truth because they do not want to offend the powerful Black and Jewish civil rights lobbies that dominate this center of world corruption on the Potomac. Reagan is attempting to ingratiate himself with these self-interest groups by selecting a Jewish nominee for the Supreme Court and a Black for the NSC. Ginsburg, the liberal dope-smoker posing as a conservative, has already backfired and we will see what is in Powell's closet because not all in the military are happy with his appointment.

The press and politicians cannot keep the lid on Powell forever. Moreover, Reagan will get nothing from the Jews and Blacks by cowering; they will only turn up the heat to get even more "minority" concessions. Reagan's sell out is now complete and his political influence is at an end. 66

ing men and women across America. Under a Nationalist government our social, economic, and political base would not be controlled by alien nationalities. As it stands now the Jews dominate our media and our government.

We Nationalists of the National Democratic Front would prevent foreign nationalities from distorting and subverting our culture by setting the standard that White America will be controlled only by White Americans. Is this asking too much?

A HOME FOR EACH RACE

We offer each race a separate nation on the soil of America in order to eradicate the friction between the races, and to stop the mongrelization of the races. The multiracial politicians must be exposed as hypocrites who have inflicted great suffering on the White people of the United States. This fact is established by the testimonies of millions of White families who have suffered through the horrors of integration, and are still suffering in multiracial schools and neighborhoods.

As Corneliu Codreanu, the great Romanian Nationalist said, "Nationalism is not dictatorship," because a true Nationalist government establishes a harmonious relationship with the people. It knows their real desires and satisfies their psychological needs.

This is the sort of government we can have in America if we will only fight for it. First we need to give up our complacent attitudes and be willing to fight the wealthy ruling class that is leading us through the gates of Hell. When we destroy the corrupt plutocratic regime which oppresses us, only then can we enjoy true freedom and brotherhood. JC
