Black Coaches Protest Elevation of Standards

The corruption in college sports has become so thoroughgoing that coaches and schools are now shameless in flaunting it. It used to be that college athletics was for college students who could also play sport. But big money changed all that, and now varsity sports in college is for the best athlete regardless of whether or not he deserves to be in college on the basis of his academic performance, and regardless of whether or not he can handle college-level work.

Six years ago the NCAA made a cosmetic move against the ever deteriorating academic standards in college sports programs by passing Proposition 48. It required that a student have at least a 2.0 grade average (out of 4.0) in high school and score at least 700 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (out of 1600), otherwise that student would not be eligible to play freshman ball and would not be eligible for a school scholarship. Black colleges, the NAACP, and Jesse Jackson's PUSH protested this decision even though the standards set were ridiculously low. The Blacks claimed that the SAT was racially biased. In response to this Black protest, Proposition 49B was passed the next year which allowed partial qualifiers - those with either 2.0 average or 700 SAT - to receive a scholarship.

NCAA EMBARRASSMENT

Why does the NCAA even bother with this exercise? Because college sports has become a laughing stock and an embarrassment to institutions that care for their academic reputations. One can imagine how a college president feels when one of his star players who cannot speak English in coherent sentences is being interviewed on TV, or the chagrin when college athletes are caught selling dope, raping and robbing as has become all the rage on college campuses - campuses that used to be safe before the arrival of large numbers of Blacks. The recruiting scandals no doubt also encouraged the NCAA to take some action in regard to academic standards, as absurd as that action was.

The Blacks probably figured that they could deal with the 2.0 grade average requirement because they could get the high schools through pressure or bribery to come up with the minimum necessary grade average. But the SAT was a trickier problem because it meant corrupting the national ETS organization that administers the test. That is why they were satisfied with the concession made in Prop 49B. Once they get an athlete in college, the institutional corruption is usually enough to carry him along to graduation. (50% of all college students fail to graduate but only 43% of those on athletic scholarship fail to graduate) The schools provide sports stars with easy or remedial courses, with special tutoring, and even with "model" tests when necessary. These model tests have all the same questions as the real tests, just the specifics have been changed. Some are so stupid that even that doesn't help. At that point, professors of failing athletes find that they get visits from concerned assistant coaches who wonder what "the student" has to do to get his grade changed.

Coach John Thompson walks off court to protest Proposition 42.

Boosters help by providing for the athlete's psychological well-being, particular care being provided for his material and sexual needs.

THOMPSON LEADS CHARGE

In mid-January, the NCAA tried to tighten-up Proposition 48 by passing Proposition 42 which would essentially eliminate 49B and return to the original 48 formula. In other words, beginning in 1990, athletes would have to have both a 2.0 grade average and a 700 SAT in order to qualify for a school scholarship.

The Blacks went nuts. Black coaches, led by Olympic-losing coach John Thompson of Georgetown, walked off the courts prior to their basketball games in order to protest Proposition 42. Backed by a sympathetic media (the real power in modern society), they forced the NCAA to agree to reconsider Proposition 42.

Nearly 90% of the approximately 600 athletes who would be affected by 42 are Black. Most of the athletes who are allowed into college on athletic scholarships are taking slots that should rightfully go to students of higher academic performance. The Blacks claim that the SAT is culturally biased, and indeed it is. It is biased toward maintaining college academic standards which are themselves biased toward maintaining a modern, civilized society. The Orientals have no problem with this cultural bias as they are quite well disposed toward civilized life. But the Blacks do have a problem because they are not so disposed, never have been, and never will be.

And that really is why the Black coaches and civil rights organizations protest so vociferously. If they really cared to improve the performance of Blacks in society they would demand higher standards from their own people and institutions, but they do not do so because they recognize the limits of their race. In the process, they succeed in bringing down standards for the entire society which may make life more comfortable for them in the short term, but which will cost the United States dearly in the long run. And that is good, because the NDF will be around to pick up the pieces when the house of marked cards finally collapses and conditions become ripe for national revolution. GG

Students Mock College Sports

A satirical piece that is made to look like an article from a college newspaper is doing the rounds in North Carolina. It lambasts N.C. State's basketball program and illustrates why the NCAA has become so concerned with the mercenary image of big-time college sports. The article is entitled Washburn Opens Institute for No-good Worthless State Graduates. We quote:

Noted Wolfpack alumnus Chris Washburn today announced the formation of the N.C. State Institute for Overrated Athletes Who Need Something To Do After Wasting a Year or Two at State.

Washburn, speaking through an interpreter, said he was really upset that everybody was so mad at him for not doing shit in the NBA after being so full of potential.

"I really don't think it is fair," Washburn said. "Just 'cause, y'know, people give you a million dollars and s---t, they think you gotta come to practice y'know, and play ball and score points and make the team win. I just wanna have some fun."

Washburn said he was establishing the institute to help other athletes that have played at State and gone on to do absolutely nothing in later life.

"Y'know, David Thompson, he was my inspiration. He was like,

Chinese Riot Against Black Students

In the summer of 1986, Chinese students rioted against Black students at Tianjin University in Beijing because two Black males tried to escort two Chinese females into a dance. This time the trouble began in Nanjing on December 24, 1989 for basically the same reason. The Chinese despise race-mixing, especially with Blacks who are considered an inferior race, "a people without a history" as the Chinese put it.

The rioting of hundreds in Nanjing soon turned into demonstrations by thousands and spread to universities in Hangzhou, Wuhan, and Beijing. The Chinese students claimed that the Blacks harassed Chinese women and had money and special privileges as foreign students that were denied to Chinese. The Chinese also have a disdain for the personal habits of the Blacks, particularly their predilection for playing loud, raucous music (especially late at night) and their aggressive pursuit of Chinese women. The Africans in turn charged that the Chinese were prejudiced and discriminated against them. It seems they are just not welcome anywhere.

The Nanjing Branch of the General Union of African Students in China urged the immediate removal from China of all 1500 African students now studying there. The African students said they feared for their lives and wanted to be sent to finish their studies in countries with "social decency." But diplomats from the 12 African countries affected flew to China to try to calm the waters.

The Chinese government officially espouses multiracialism in line with Communist doctrine, and has sought allies and trading partners in Black Africa. Under Mao this policy was designed to counter both American and Soviet strength in the Third World. But the Chinese have never been too keen in sending aid to starving Blacks or in accepting Black refugees into China. The Chinese people are just as racialist as the Vietnamese who are trying to send all their Amer-Asian mongrels to the U.S., and as the Japanese who forbid immigration into their country, despite constant labor shortages. Though the government finds the anti-Black y'know, the greatest player I ever did see when he played ball here. But then he was just gone, poof, we didn't see him or nothin'....

Through the institute, Washburn said he hoped to give washed-up athletes another chance at sponging more money from State and its boosters.

"S--t, after them payments get cut off, y'know, I know it's hard on those guys who can't go to million-dollar guaranteed contracts in the pros. And even then, y'know, it's hard, 'cause it's like you gotta work for the money and s--t...."

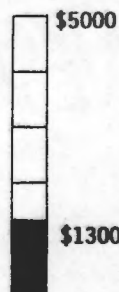

Washburn said he was anxiously awaiting the return of Charles Shackleford from the pros, so they could be like the co-directors of the institute and s--t.

"Yeah, me and Shack, we used to hang out and s--t and talk to the girls as they walked around campus, y'know. I don't know where they were going. I think it mighta been some kinda class type thing.... In the pros they want you to play like every night almost and from like November to sometime in the summer, y'know. And they don't pay as good as Coach V did...."

You get the point. Some of it consists of inside jokes about State, but it is good parody. It is interesting that it precedes the latest book on sports scandal at N.C. State. If anyone wants a copy of the entire original just write and we will send it to you.

Press Reveals Its Anti-German Bias

As the years pass and the Nazi era recedes into the past, it becomes increasingly apparent that the American establishment, and especially the press, hates Germans. They used to disguise this hatred by denouncing Nazis and Nazism, relying on the stigma to smear all Germans. But now they are dispensing with the veil and are attacking Germans as Germans, implying that beneath the skin all Germans are Hollywood Nazis.

The German-baiter Elie Wiesel long ago wrote in Legends of Our Time:

Every Jew, somewhere in his being, should set apart a zone of hate - healthy, virile hate - for what the German personifies and for what persists in the German.

But now even the conventional press is openly spewing hatred of Germans. This became evident in the Jenniger/Kristallnacht affair and is being driven home in the Libyan poison gas plant controversy. A recent commentary entitled "Libya: The Germans' Credibility Problem" by Jim Hoagland of the Washington Post epitomizes the attitude of the anti-German bigots. Let's analyze some excerpts from Hoagland:

It goes too far to say, as some have, that this "Auschwitz in the sands" shows that the German nation must bear the mark of Cain forever because of the Holocaust and World War II. But the near total disregard Kohl has for the credibility of his government does have deep roots in the abnormal situation in which Germans have been forced to live for nearly half a century.

The West German state is founded on the fiction that the occupying Western powers of France, Britain and the United States share the goal of the reunification of Germany in a foreseeable future. This pretense is embodied in the statement in the basic Law of 1949 that West Germany was being created for "a transitional period."

In their hearts, Germans know that the Western nations join the Soviet Union in designing policies to ensure that Germany will never unite and rise to dominate Europe as it did in the past. But they must pretend that they think otherwise, to keep in step with the Western pretense of reunification.

Speaking blatant untruths that everyone pretends to believe has become an acceptable pattern of political behavior in West Germany. My point is not that German politicians are less truthful than those of other nations; that would take more hours than the day holds. But there does seem to have been a far greater tolerance by the press and public for obvious political dissembling in Western Germany than in most other Western nations. This apparently contributed to Kohl's mistaken confidence that he could blink away the Libya scandal."

OUTRAGEOUS HYPOCRISY AND CYNICISM

If it goes too far to call Libya's German built poison gas plant an "Auschwitz in the sands", then why mention it? This is hate - raw and vile. Would this sort of baiting be tolerated if it were directed at Jews or Blacks? What mammoth hypocrisy!

Chinese Riots

rioting embarrassing, it is unlikely that it will seriously undertake a program of multiracial indoctrination such as those mounted by Jewish Bolsheviks in the Soviet Union and by Jewish capitalists in the U.S.

Significantly, the American and European foreign students in Nanjing sided with the Blacks - a reflection of our own moral degeneration. It is sad to say that we have reached the point where we must take lessons from the Yellow race on racial pride and consciousness.

Unless we can soon rediscover the racial pride and deep emotional commitment to our own people that once gave us the drive and confidence to dominate, then it will be we who are conquered. But we of the NDF swear that we will not be brought down. No Jew or capitalist race traitor will lay us low. Unconditional surrender is the only plea that we will accept from such scum. GG

Students at Beijing Language Institute demonstrate against alleged harassment of Chinese woman by African students.

In regard to reunification, Hoagland does identify one fiction of the founding of the German government, but not its central fiction which Americans and Jews still refuse to discuss honestly, and that is that the present German government was established as a puppet regime by the Western victors in World War II, and that it still operates very much like a puppet government. The victorious Allies refused to allow any national socialist or similar party to arise after the war, and it is still illegal to promote national socialism or the like in West Germany. Why? Because the puppeteers and the puppets are both afraid that the Germans will once again vote Nazi. So the Germans are denied the opportunity to do so in the "free" country of West Germany.

Hoagland's piece reeks with cynicism. America set up a puppet regime and called it free, and now the American press is criticising that government for its hypocritical nature. That's rich isn't it. And it gets better when Hoagland arrogantly, and falsely, implies that the German system is more dishonest than our own when both are wedded to the same sham.

THE THING THAT FRIGHTENS

So what is it about the Germans that really gets to the likes of Hoagland, his Jewish bosses and the capitalist establishment in America? Simply stated, it is that the Germans are still a great people after being twice conquered and twice saddled with corrupt, plutocratic, puppet governments. Despite the imposed pluralistic political regime and capitalistic economic regime, the German social order has remained surprisingly nationalistic (at least for the time being), and it is that nationalism that has driven Germany to its latest economic miracle. West Germany with only 60 million people is the fourth industrial power in the world, and East Germany with only 17 million people is the seventh industrial power in the world. Together they rival Japan in terms of per capita output. The living standard of West Germany is now higher than that of the U.S. The Germans are still united, industrious, self-sacrificing, highly educated, and well-organized.

National Socialist Germany led Europe out of the Great Depression with the world's most efficient and productive economy, and after the war, the German generation brought up under National Socialism made capitalism work in West Germany and made communism work in East Germany (though neither worked as well as their own system had.) That is frightening for the American capitalist establishment, and even more so for the Jews who run America's media.

The Jews still see the Germans as an enemy. They know that National Socialism dovetailed with the character of the German people, and that the vast majority of Germans enthusiastically supported Hitler and the Nazi movement. The recent response of the Austrians to the Waldheim controversy confirmed them in their view of latent German anti-Semitism. Hoagland reveals his own fear by talking about a united Germany once again rising to dominate Europe.

INEVITABLE REUNIFICATION MANUEVER

Their fear is further heightened when the West Germans fail to act like dutiful servants and exercise some will of their own as in Libya. The combination of Arab and German is a Jew's worst nightmare. And it will not be long before Germany begins to operate an independent

LETTERS

Dear Gary,

Reviews of worthwhile films are frequently featured in The Nationalist. "Wall Street" should be near the top of the list. The Academy Award winning film is a fictionalized story inspired by the Ivan Boesky/insider trading scandal of a couple of years ago on Wall Street.

In it Jewish actor Michael Douglas, Jr. plays a Jewish capitalist named Gecko, who is obviously patterned after the Jew Boesky. Some of Gecko's statements are stunning in their frankness. He boasts to his protege how he bought his way on to the board of directors of the New York City Zoo, despite the efforts of old-money WASPs to keep him off. "That's the thing about these WASPs," he says, "they love animals but hate people." Later Gecko gives a speech about the sham that is called "Democracy." The people have no power and make no decisions of consequence, Gecko again explains to his protege. "We do!" declares Gecko. "We decide everything! What the people think, who our friends are, who our enemies are, who we fight wars with. We run this country." I'm not certain whether Gecko means the Jews when he says "we" or if he means the club of rich capitalists. But then, it hardly matters.

The film is basically a denunciation of the rapacious entity that now passes for American capitalism. It is not an anti-Jewish film, of course, but we get the measure of the honesty with which the film deals with its subject by noting how there is little effort to cover up the Jewish role in the corruption that dominates Wall Street.

I am surprised that a film like "Wall Street" was made at all, but even more surprised that it was made with the blessings and full backing of the System. "Wall Street" is out on video and worth seeing.

Editor - The System is not monolithic. It is comprised of many contending forces whose interests constantly clash in confused battles. Eventually, we will be able to take advantage of these cracks in the System.

Dear Mr. Gallo,

We were very happy to receive the package and letter you sent us....

With the wonderful nationalistic revival which our Great Trek celebration is bringing, a number of my closest political and religious comrades are going to establish a new and dynamic youth movement for young Afrikaners (Boers).

It is discomfoting for us to see how many of our young people have fallen into the deadly pit of self-interest, and have lost their emotions as Afrikaners, racialists, and nationalists. We cannot afford to lose this generation of young people to liberalism. Already it has gone too far!

There is still not a strong, united, radical youth movement for our young. At the Great Festival at Donkerhoek in December we will begin to call our youth together, and hopefully in January 1989 the new movement will be formed and will shake the tyrannical establishment to its foundations!

The possibility of a separate English movement is also being discussed, which will help to unite the many good English speakers.

Here in South Africa we often feel that all Americans are evil liberals who pressure us into being exterminated. We often feel sorry for Americans because they seem so blinded. But we are overjoyed to know that many Americans are true White, patriotic, pure Americans, who we welcome as our equals and comrades in struggle. Strength for the future!

I would like to compliment you on The Nationalist which is truly a great and inspiring paper. We also realise that you in America are being "blacked-out" and oppressed by your government, just as we are.

On behalf of our council in Pietersburg, I ask if you would do us the honour of accepting a special title which we give to you: from now on we will address you as OOM GARY. This is the traditional Afrikaner way of showing respect and acceptance for someone; it means "UNCLE."

foreign policy. In the near future a West German government will snip its strings and will abandon NATO. Only the Soviet Union can reunite Germany and all true Germans want this more than anything else. Eventually, a real German leader will arise in response to the will of his people, and he will trade reunification for neutrality (or some sort of nonaggression pact), and the Soviets will go for the deal in order to weaken NATO and neutralize Germany. Once the Germans begin to act again in their own national interest, things get very uncertain and scary for the Western capitalist establishment and the Jews. GG

SHORT BURSTS

Genetic Defect Causes Schizophrenia

Two researchers at the University of London have established that a flawed gene causes schizophrenia. Robin Sherrington and Hugh Gurling were able to isolate the defective gene with new techniques that allow DNA to be extracted from chromosomes and analyzed. Research with twins in the 1930s indicated that schizophrenia probably had a genetic cause, but such research was halted and psychiatrists foisted upon us the notion that bad parents and other environmental factors caused the problem. Such breakthroughs in genetic research will soon cause a revolutionary resurgence of scientific study of race - study which has been suppressed for political reasons in the communist and capitalist nations of the world ever since the 1920s.

Drexel Sacrifices Milken

The other shoe from the Ivan Boesky scandal has begun to drop. Drexel Burnham Lambert, Inc. has agreed to plead guilty in court to various fraud charges and will pay a $650 million dollar fine. The company will admit that Michael Milken, the Jewish head of its junk bond department, traded inside information with Boesky in return for millions of dollars paid by Boesky to Drexel. Milken ran the flim-flam side of Drexel with such flair that the company became one of the most profitable on Wall Street, earning nearly $500 million per year in profits. The fine is a pittance compared to the business Milken brought into the firm. But the prosecutors apparently are more interested in making an example of Milken than in breaking Drexel. And that suits Drexel just fine. The company has gladly agreed to stab Milken in the back, a Machiavellian move that he richly (so to speak) deserved. Unfortunately, this still leaves Drexel operating and that sends the wrong message to Wall Street.

Justice At Last

For 11 years Ted Bundy, one of the most successful of modern America's many serial killers, played with the intricacies of this country's corrupt and bankrupt legal system. He staved off execution time and again making a mockery of justice and causing his surviving victims endless anguish. But on January 24, 1989, Bundy was fried in a Florida electric chair while 2000 demonstrators stood outside the prison walls cheering his demise. Apparently those opposed to the death penalty chose not to show up to demonstrate against this execution. Can't imagine why.

Syria Charges Mossad in Pan Am Bomb

According to the London Sunday Express of January 15th, U.S. investigators are looking into the theory that a U.S. soldier unknowingly carried a bomb on board the Pan Am plane that crashed in Lockerbie, Scotland in December. Israel immediately accused Palestinian terrorists of the bombing. But now things have gotten more interesting. Syrian Defense Minister Gen. Mustafa Tlas now says, in a Kuwaiti newspaper, that western investigators have established that the Mossad handed the U.S. soldier the bomb-laden bag telling him that it was diamonds to be smuggled into America. At first we dismissed this idea as it seemed absurd that Israel would take such a risk. But considering the success of the Intifada in turning around opinion in the U.S., and considering the outrages that the Israelis have gotten away with in the past (such as the attack on the Liberty, stealing U.S. plutonium, and running spy rings in the U.S.), it may not be so far-fetched after all. It will be interesting to see what the masters of the big lie do with this one.

In the Land of the Free

On Jan. 5th, 1989 the president of the Hyattstown Volunteer Fire Department, Kevin Dobson, got into a heated argument with Lt. Mark Bird, a Black professional fire fighter for Montgomery County, Maryland. The argument was apparently over who was to clean a fire truck, and Dodson yelled that he was not going to order his men to do "nigger work." Last year the Hyattstown Volunteer Fire Chief, Michael May, was forced to resign for calling a Black fire fighter a "nigger." May was just recently reelected by his department which has infuriated Blacks and Jews in Montgomery County. Now Dodson has been forced to take administrative leave and the county government, (which is dominated by Jews) has cut off $70,000 in funds to the department. The NAACP is demanding Dodson's dismissal. Isn't it wonderful to live in a country that respects freedom of speech?

THE IRON TRIANGLE OF WHITE NATIONALISM

The three principles of racial freedom, social justice and noble leadership are the foundation of the White Nationalist Movement. Every people should have the power to determine their own fate. Our race is our nation, and the NDF is determined that the White Race in America be free to develop its culture and civilization according to its own standards. The forced integration of races against their will is genocide. The multiracialist capitalists, communists and Jews must be crushed before we become some mongrel race of coffee-colored, kinky-haired, flat-nosed mulattos. The separation of the races into their own independent nations on the soil of America is the only solution.

Once the White Race is free, it can maintain its unity and power only if our nation is founded upon social justice. The NDF will destroy class consciousness and will reduce the material differences between the classes by sharing the wealth and the control of the wealth in this richest of all nations. Achievement rather than money will be the measure of a man.

The people will enthusiastically commit to and sacrifice for the nation because under the National Democratic Front they will be led by brilliant leaders who understand that service and sacrifice start at the top. Unlike capitalist leaders who are determined above all to live better than their people, nationalist leaders will live amongst their people and in the style of their people. When sacrifice becomes necessary, nationalist leaders will take the greatest burden of it upon their own shoulders. Our Vanguard System will find the best minds in all classes and will train them and promote them to positions commensurate with their ability, regardless of wealth and social or political connections.

The three principles of the Iron Triangle will make our White Nation everlasting and invincible.
