The Melting Pot Seethes and Boils Over

In the Bensonhurst neighborhood of New York City, young Whites were outraged when they learned that a White girl was dating Blacks and Hispanics and had invited them to her birthday party in the White community. They organized to protect the purity of their neighborhood, one of the few White enclaves left in that multiracial cesspool. Unbeknownst to the boys, the girl race traitor had cancelled the party when she heard of trouble brewing. An innocent group of four Blacks showed up to purchase a used car, and in this case of mistaken identity, they were attacked by at least 10 and perhaps as many as 30 White youths. In the melee that followed one of the Blacks was tragically murdered with a pistol by one of the Whites.

This sort of interracial violence goes on daily in New York City (and in all our other major cities), but usually it is gangs of Blacks or Hispanics attacking, raping, mugging, and murdering Whites, and so nothing is said. But when Whites fight back and try to keep Blacks out their shrinking neighborhoods as in Howard Beach or Bensonhurst, all hell breaks loose in the media and the politicians get on their pedestals of hypocrisy.

A Black demonstration into Bensonhurst, led as usual by White clergy and Jews, was greeted by racial epithets from the hundreds of Whites on the sidewalks who must live under the daily threat of colored violence which lays like a pall over the city. Another demonstration of thousands in Brooklyn turned into a Black riot.

GREEKFEST ERUPTS

A week later on Labor Day weekend, tens of thousands of Blacks rioted against the "White power structure" in Virginia Beach. Blacks, most from college fraternities -thus the name Greekfest, have been gathering in ever greater numbers on Labor Days in Virginia Beach since 1980. With increasing numbers came greater violence, and after the 1988 Greekfest local Whites, shop-owners and businessmen demanded protection from the city as they felt they were being "terrorized." The Blacks were just being Black - they are the most violent people on earth whether they live here or in Africa as is borne out by international crime rates -and they could not understand why Whitey was getting so upset. Nor could the Blacks understand why Whites found the proliferation of Black Power and anti-White T-shirts in the crowd offensive, or so they said.

Nearly 100,000 Blacks showed up for Greekfest'89, and this time the city was ready to enforce the law. It even called out the National Guard as potential reinforcement because the city surmised, correctly as it turns out, that the Blacks would react very violently when the police did enforce the law. About 1200 police and soldiers were available to the city. Hotels removed pictures and expensive furnishings from their lobbies. The Hotel/Motel Association passed out pamphlets informing Blacks of the city's ordinances. One Black girl said, "It's like, 'We know you niggers are going to act up.' And they did."

When police officers pulled out their citation pads they were surrounded by Blacks chanting slogans from anti-White rap songs: "Fight the power!", "Drop a cop!" Whites complained of the surly attitudes of Blacks. The White owner of a beachfront hotel said "There was always something wrong ... Their attitude was like I owed them something." Most Whites still do not understand the depth of mistrust and hatred that the average Black feels for Whites, and what this means for Whites when Blacks get power. The Black feels that all of his problems are caused by the White man, rather than by his own limitations. The book Drylongso by the Black sociologist John Gwaltney is a real eye-opener in this regard (it is reviewed in the latest issue of our theoretical journal New America.)

THE RIOT BEGINS

The rioting began when a White tow-truck driver tried to move a Black-owned car from a no-parking zone. "It was a White man trying to tow a Black man's car," said a Black girl. And that was enough to set the Blacks off. They surrounded the driver and beat him. An ambulance was sent to rescue the injured driver but the Blacks blocked it from proceeding. "F--k the police, Black power," they yelled. Suddenly, the crowd rushed into the street, all traffic stopped, the police split, and the looting of stores began. All this was captured on videotape from the cameras on top of the city's streets.

The police returned in riot gear and in force, determined to clear the streets. Loudspeakers ordered the Blacks off the streets. They refused to go and the police moved in. The National Guard was brought up in the rear to hold the lines of streets that had already been cleared by the police wedges. The Blacks fought back on the streets and rained things down on the police from their hotel rooms. Approximately thirty police and forty civilians were injured. More than a hundred businesses were looted that night.

THE AFTERMATH

The next morning the Blacks and shop-owners surveyed the damage. One jewelry store owner suffered $100,000 in damages. She said, "I think some soft expressions would have been in order to ease the pain of the victims. You know, instead of the giggles, a head could have been stuck in the door and said, 'You know, not all of us did this. We're sorry.'" Not likely. One Black said to a reporter, "It was wrong, in some ways, to vandalize the stores but they could not take out their frustration on the police.... White people owned them and they were giving Blacks a hard time anyway." Another Black told a White shop-owner, "Whitey won't be making any money today." The Blacks rioted and looted again that night.

The Black students have vowed to return to Virginia Beach. The White businessmen there have said that they do not want them back. When the head of the chamber of commerce was asked on radio if he thought the riot was racial, he cited the anti-White T-shirts and said it was, and then he remarked that if things between Blacks and Whites do not change soon, he fears to think what will happen in this country. It is not often that you hear the head of the chamber of commerce talking about revolution. But it is becoming obvious to more and more Whites that only a radical solution will resolve our racial problems. Only separation of the races into completely independent nations will end the racial hatred, cultural antagonism and bloody struggle.

To demonstrate just how much in the thrall of the multiracialists is the federal government, the FBI announced that it is investigating the city of Virginia Beach for possible civil rights violations. The multiracialists will not give up their power easily. We will have to take it from them. But then, that is the essence of real freedom.

'FIGHT THE POWER'

The following is an excerpt of lyrics from "Fight the Power." The song, played frequently by visitors during the Greedfest weekend at Virginia Beach, is performed by Public Enemy and was popularized by Spike Lee's movie "Do the Right Thing."

"... Fight the power. We got to fight the powers that be.
 Elvis was a hero to most, but he never meant [expletive] to me, you see.
 Straight-out racist, the sucker was simple and plain.
 [Expletive] him and John Wayne.
 'Cause I'm black and I'm proud,
 I'm ready, I'm hyped 'cause I'm amped
 Most of my heroes don't appear on no stamp...
 Look back, you look and find nothing but rednecks for 400 years if you check.
 'Don't worry, be happy' was a number one jam.
 Damn if I say it, you can slap me right here.
 Hit it! Let's get this party started right.
 Right on! Come on!
 What we got to say.
 Power to the people. No delay.
 Make everybody see, in order to fight the powers that be...
 Fight the power. We got to fight the powers that be."

that the melting pot does not melt when different races are involved. Assimilation works only where there is one race. The exception to this rule is where miscegenation occurs generation after generation for thousands of years such as in India. If that happens in America, then in two thousand years our descendants will all be coffee-colored, kinky-haired, flat-nosed mulattos and we will have a culture based on viscious individualism like that of India. Even the Blacks do not want that, and so now the multiracialists push two inherently contradictory lines.

The Jews, the capitalists, and the communists who preach multiracialism now say to the Whites that it is evil for Whites to want to maintain their own racial purity and cultural integrity, that they should mix with and inter-marry with coloreds (except for Jews, of course.) But they say to the Blacks (and the Jews, of course) that it is healthy for them to have racial pride and for them to desire to preserve their own kind and to develop their own culture. It is good, healthy racial pride for Blacks to wear T-shirts that say "Black Power", "Black Pride", "It's a Black Thing, You Wouldn't Understand." But it is evil racism for Whites to wear T-shirts that say "White Power", "White and Proud", "Civilization - It's a White Thing, You Wouldn't Understand." Only the Jews, with their complete domination of the media, could be so arrogant as to believe that they can get away with such brazen hypocrisy for long. The only question now is how long it will take the Whites to lose their fear of revolution. GG

Technology Fund Appeal

Due to the generosity and ingenuity of some NDF members, we have been able to acquire all that we need for desk-top publishing (as you can see in this issue) at a cost far below that which we expected. We especially want to thank those of you who gave month after month. In the next issue of The Nationalist we will begin our Campaign Fund, which funds will be used to further our coming electoral campaigns, so keep those checks coming in.

Jewish Terrorists Assault Revisionist

Saturday morning, September 16th, Professor Robert Faurisson was walking in a park near his home in Vichy, France when he was assaulted by three young thugs. They sprayed mace in his eyes to blind him and then beat him to the ground. This tiny old man was punched and kicked until his face was smashed in and his jaw was broken. He also suffered a broken rib. The doctors in a Clermont-Verrant hospital operated for 4.5 hours and at this writing Professor Faurisson is in serious but stable condition. During the operation, the hospital received a call from a group identifying itself as the Sons of Memory of the Jews which took credit for the attack and which threatened the doctors treating Faurisson. The same group made calls to the media bragging of the deed.

This is the fourth time that Jewish thugs have assaulted Robert Faurisson. Why? Because he is the leading revisionist historian in the world, and because he has done more than any other person to expose the Jewish Holocaust as a "great historical lie," to use Professor Faurisson's phrase. As a child in France during World War II, Faurisson was bitterly anti-Nazi. And after the war he attended the trials in France against some of the Nazi collaborators. The obvious injustice of these kangaroo courts turned the young Faurisson's stomach, but it was not until the early 1960's that he became interested in World War II, and particularly the Holocaust, as a subject of research. At the time he was a liberal professor of literature, specializing in the analysis of historical texts, at the University of Lyon. He was inspired by the writing of Paul Rassinier to investigate Holocaust documents and claims.

THE FIRST REVISIONIST

Paul Rassinier was a Socialist underground leader in France during the Nazi occupation. The Germans captured him, tortured him for information and then threw him into the Dora and Buchenwald concentration camps. After the war, the Jews claimed that Buchenwald and a whole host of other camps were death camps in which Jews were killed by gas chamber in an industry of extermination. The commandants of these camps and other high Nazis were executed for their roles in the Holocaust. But Rassinier knew the Buchenwald camp like the back of his hand, knew there was no gas chamber there, and knew that it was not a death camp. Rassinier suspected that the Nazis were being tortured into confessions and that the Jews were lying about the other camps as well. But it was not until this decade that the truth of Rassinier's suspicions of torture became widely accepted. The primary confession relied upon is that of Rudolph Hoess the commandant of the Auschwitz concentration camp, yet Bernard Clarke, a British Jew, boasted in a recently published book written by Rupert Butler of how he and a group of other Jews in the British Army tracked down and captured Hoess by threatening his wife and children, and then brutally beat him for the pleasure of it before torturing a confession out of him that Auschwitz was a center of extermination.

Rassinier published book after book on the subject of Jewish lies and the Holocaust, but his work was ignored by the powers that be. Capitalism, Communism and the Jews all needed the Holocaust, but for different reasons, and so the lie grew and grew like Pinocchio's nose until now the Jewish-dominated media can get away with saying that 4 million died in Auschwitz when for forty years the figure (based on Hoess's confession) was 2 million.

Though ignored by the court historians who get their books published by the System's big publishing houses, Rassinier's work made a mighty impact on Professor Faurisson, who picked up where Rassinier left off upon his death. Most people do not understand how much the revisionist historians have forced the exterminationist historians to give up. This is because the Jewish-controlled media (such as ABC, NBC, CBS, Time, Newsweek, U.S. News and World Report, The Washington Post, The New York Times, etc., etc.) refuses to inform the public on what Jewish historians have already conceded, and continues to pretend that the story of the Holocaust has been unchanged since the end of World War II. In fact, Jewish historians, including Raoul Hilberg (considered the best exterminationist Holocaust historian by the Jews and the System) have admitted in their books and in court that Dachau, Buchenwald, Bergen-Belsen, Mathausen, and all the other concentration camps in Germany proper were not death camps. The Jewish historians now claim that all the extermination camps (only six in number) were in Poland, but have nevertheless not revised the holy figure of six million downward.

THE TRIALS

When Robert Faurisson's work began to have an impact on intellectual and public opinion in France, the Jews could no longer afford to ignore him (always their strategy of first choice), and they struck back. They tried to have him stripped of his tenure at the University of Lyon which move was ultimately unsuccessful, though he is no longer allowed to teach classes there. They attacked him and beat him up. They prevented his son from getting a job as a gymnastics instructor, and his wife was driven to a nervous breakdown. The Chosen launched attacks against him in the media, which the Jews in every country seek to dominate as it is the most powerful of all political institutions. They launched civil suits against him - which failed. And they used their enormous political power in France to force the government to prosecute him for "racial defamation." This criminal action was brought by a coalition of Jewish organizations and it backfired badly. The court found in its opinion that Faurisson's work was well researched and methodical, and admitted that it could not say that it was untrue, yet it found him guilty of racial defamation as he had impaired the reputation of the Jews, and it fined him one franc. (Truth is not a defense under France's Racial Defamation Act or under Britain's Race Relations Act.) The Jews were furious

Under pressure from the Canadian Jewish Remembrance Society, Canada (another "free country") brought charges against publisher Ernst Zuendel for reprinting a British pamphlet doubting the Holocaust entitled Did Six Million Really Die. Faurisson went to Toronto to help in the Zuendel defense and it was his preparation that allowed defense counsel Doug Christie to so effectively destroy the Crown's witnesses on cross-examination. In the retrial of Zuendel in 1988, the Crown did not put on any "eye-witness" testimony to the Holocaust because all of its "eye-witnesses" (all Jews) were exposed as liars on cross-examination in the first trial. Moreover, the chief Holocaust historian, Raoul Hilberg refused to testify at the retrial, admitting that he did not wish to once again go through a Doug Christie cross-examination of his historical opinions.

THE FINAL NAIL

Robert Faurisson drove the final nail into the coffin of the Holocaust Hoax in 1988 during the Ernst Zuendel retrial when he convinced the leading American expert on execution gas chambers, Fred Leuchter, to go to Poland and examine the concentration camps and supposed gas chambers there. Prior to his meeting with Faurisson, Leuchter believed in the Holocaust, but he agreed to go to Poland and investigate. He came back a changed man. He now believes that the Holocaust is a great historical lie. He found that there were no gas chambers in the supposed extermination camps, including Auschwitz and Birkenau, only buildings which are claimed to be gas chambers but could never be used as such. His engineering and chemical analysis report (The Leuchter Report) was filed with the court in Toronto and can be ordered from Samisdat Publishers, 206 Carlton Street, Toronto, Canada.

So the last concentration camps have been proven not to be extermination centers. Now all that is left is to get the truth out, which is no mean task considering the enormous media, political and economic power of the Jews especially in the U.S., Canada, Britain and France. But the real power of the Jews rests on a pillar of sand called the Holocaust; only upon it can they pose as a model for world morality and only upon it can they ask for the sympathy of mankind. Once that pillar crumbles, the Jews are exposed as the liars and connivers they really are, and then "the Chosen People" come down for the last time. That is why the "Sons of the Memory of the Jews" hate Robert Faurisson so much, and why the rest of the world should consider him a great man dedicated to the truth despite the personal cost - a hero for our times.

Dear Gary,

I have enjoyed your excellent publication for several years now and I can well say it continues to get better. I thank you for continuing to keep me on your mailing list despite my silence. In some ways we may differ, my being an Identity Christian, but despite those differences I find your work some of the best researched around the Movement. Well thought out. Keep up the good fight!

Editor - David Tate was a member of Robert Mathew's White revolutionary organization about which there is an excellent new book entitled The Silent Brotherhood by two Denver reporters, Kevin Flynn and Gary Gerhardt. It is written in an objective, reportorial style and allows one to understand what really went on operationally. We recommend it. The book is published by the Free Press (MacMillan Co.) and can be ordered through major bookstores for approximately $22.00.

Dear Mr. Gallo,

I always read The Nationalist cover to cover, although I do not always agree with all of the content, before passing it on to my friends in Glasgow. When the magazine is finally returned I post it off to my friends in France. As you can see a single issue tends to cover more than a few miles.... Future best wishes to yourself and the NDF.

Editor - Every subscriber should pass The Nationalist on to another.

Dear Mr. Gallo,

Thank you for putting me on your mailing list. I was particularly interested in the Jan89 Nationalist. At the time I received No. 37, I was doing research on an article for my own modest publication; to be called, tentatively, "The Kingfish and the Priest." The possibility of a Long-Coughlin alliance was one of the great might-have-beens of American politics. They were America's two greatest radio orators ... in an age when radio was the most important media outlet. Long could have delivered the South, and Coughlin could have delivered the ethnic Northern working class, a combination that would have brought Huey to the White House. The consequences of a Long presidency is covered on page 36 of the March 1989 issue of Instauration. Enclosed are two copies of my own publication. I try to get it out every four months. It is strictly a table-top effort that I do myself. It is free of charge.

QUOTES OF IMPORTANCE

The foundations of the ancient Greek and Roman philosophy called Stoicism are at one with Democratic Nationalism, particularly in regard to Stoic emphasis on duty to your people, and the use of reason to understand and live in accord with the laws of nature. The following quote of the great Roman Emperor and Stoic philosopher, Marcus Aurelius, will illustrate the point. It is taken from his book entitled Meditations:

"Be not unhappy, or discouraged, or dissatisfied, if you do not succeed in acting always by the right principles; but when you have failed, try again, and be content if most of your acts are consistent with man's nature. Love that to which you return; do not return to philosophy as if she were a schoolmaster, but behave like those who have sore eyes and apply a bit of sponge or egg, or like another who applies a plaster or water lotion. For thus you will not fail to obey reason and will find rest in it. And remember that philosophy requires only the things which your nature requires. But you would have something else which is not according to nature. You may object: "Why, what is more agreeable than this I am doing?" But is not this just how pleasure deceives us? And consider whether magnanimity, freedom, simplicity, equanimity, piety, are not more agreeable. And what is more agreeable than wisdom itself, when you think of the security and the happy course of all things which result from the faculty of understanding and knowledge."

SHORT BURSTS

SATs Down Again

For the third year in a row verbal SAT scores are down, wiping out gains that had been made previously in the 1980's. Mathematics scores have remained at 476 since 1987. The low point in mathematics was reached in 1980 when the average score was 466. The maximum possible score on each test is 800. The combined score for Whites was 937, 934 for Asians, and only 737 for Blacks. Black scores increased somewhat between 1980 and 1988 but have now leveled off. Asians continue to outperform Whites in math 525 to 491.

Jewish Scatological Obsessions

In a remarkable letter to the New York Times (9/12/89), Rabbi Avraham Weiss, hero of the struggle against the Carmelite nuns, claimed the following: "The facts are that soon after we commenced our peaceful demonstration, workers from inside the convent threw buckets of water mixed with urine and paint over our heads. Several hours later, they attacked again, this time kicking and punching us, and dragging us from the area. Their leader yelled, "Heil Hitler!" Nuns peered through the convent window as we were beaten. A Polish priest cried, "Rip their scullcaps off, drag them out!" Uniformed and plainclothes police watched without intervening. As we were hauled away, dogs were set loose to patrol the area." In the last issue of The Nationalist, we satirically predicted that the Jews would claim that boiling oil had been poured on them at the Carmelite Auschwitz convent. We had taken their lying nature into account, but had forgotten all about their scatological obsessions. No doubt the good rabbi collected a sample of the water from the ground and had it chemically analyzed for urine. And we are sure that Poland is just seething with Hitlerites. Certainly, Poles celebrate the day their country was partitioned between Hitler's Germany and Stalin's Soviet Union. That such a letter of lies could even get printed tells you something of the incredible mindset, and arrogance, of the Jewish-controlled press in America.

NEW AMERICA - The Radical Voice of American Nationalism

New America is the ideological and historical journal of the National Democratic Front. It exposes the half-truths, historical lies, and hypocrisies upon which the present plutocratic system is based, and it reveals and explains the eternal principles of nationalism that guide the NDF. Our ideas are drawn from an historical and scientific analysis that follows truth wherever it may lead. New America No.4 is concerned primarily with the issue of race:

- On Nationalism, Part IV: Racial Freedom This article outlines the NDF's official position on race. Who is in, who is out, and why.

- Books in NDF Review

Drylongso by John Gwaltney - A most revealing self-portrait of Blacks and Black life in America. This book makes one realize how alien White culture is to Blacks, and how different we really are from one another.

The March Up Country by Harold Covington - A critical analysis of a book that purports to be a manual for White revolutionaries.

IS FORCED BUSING COMING TO YOUR CITY?

Let's look at the record of this program of federal tyranny which is imposed upon us against our will by unelected, black-robed officials of the System:

In 1972 when forced busing began in the Los Angeles public school system, 75% of the students were White. By 1984 only 25% of the students in the public schools were White even though Whites still made up 60% of the population of the city. Those Whites who could afford to do so either left the city or put their children in private schools. Now Whites are a minority in Los Angeles.

After 11 years of judicial tyranny in Boston the percentage of White students in the public schools dropped from 61% to 27%, despite the fact that the population of Boston was still 70% White.

In Detroit (which was recently displaced as murder capital of the U.S. by 85% non-White Washington D.C.), Black Mayor Coleman Young recently said that White Flight from the city was the greatest abandonment of property in history. The city is now less than 10% White.

Can't happen in your city, you say. If forced busing is coming, the process has already begun. Once not so long ago the people of the Northwest were oh so smug about race relations - that is before large numbers of Blacks moved there. Now they know more about what multiracialism really means for the White race and White culture. Seattle is 79% White, yet already one-third of the White parents have moved their children into private schools to escape the voluntary busing plan adopted by the city in 1977. Now there is a strong movement in Seattle to scrap the program.

And don't think Whites can take their children out of the public schools and then decrease financial support for the public schools. Already, black-robed tyrants around this "free and democratic" country are taking over county budgets to force counties to raise new taxes to be disposed of by courts that are determined to force multiracialism onto America, even if it breaks you financially.

Forced integration has ruined the once proud system of general education in America. National standards have been lowered so that Blacks could keep up, but they cannot compete even at the decreased levels. On international examinations U.S. students now place near the bottom in math, science, history and geography, despite the fact that we spend more on education per pupil than any other country. Many of our industries now spend more money on the reeducation of their employees than on new investment in plant and equipment because the schools have failed to produce even a minimally educated populace.

Why then is the government still intent upon busing young White children away from their home schools into Black neighborhoods? Because the capitalists and Jews who dominate the system and who promote multiracialism know that children indoctrinated early become more pliable. They lose their racial pride and racial consciousness and then engage in miscegenation which ultimately destroys the race and its culture. The capitalists want no resistance to their plans to bring all borders down so that people and goods can travel freely, such that they can make more money. They want to import millions of coloreds for cheap labor so that they need not pay the White worker a decent wage. And if the White goes unemployed and his family falls into poverty, well that is just too bad.

The Jewish strategy is always to undermine the unity of the host population. They oppose all racial nationalisms, except Zionism (Jewish racial nationalism), and they demand that we pay to protect their brutal racial state in Israel while they work relentlessly to shatter ours here. While the Jews preach multiracialism to us, they teach their own children to hate the goyim and marry their own kind. While the rich capitalists preach multiracialism to us, they put their own children in wealthy private schools and teach them not to marry "beneath their class." As Senator Ted Kennedy once said to Mike Wallace, such private schools are the prerogative of wealth. Yes, multiracialism is designed to destroy us - the White masses. Our enemies think they can escape it while they force it upon us.

If you love the White Race and want to see its great culture survive, and if you have the courage to fight the Jews and the capitalists and their tyrannical plutocracy, which is government by the rich - for the rich, then you belong with us.
