Time Running Out For Government By Paralysis

Over and over we hear complaints from the media about the paralysis in American government. Yet the U.S. system of checks and balances is designed to maintain the status quo and prevent radical programs from being adopted. The media-masters know this, of course, as they are some of the primary beneficiaries of that status quo which keeps power in the hands of the wealthy. They pretend that the system is fine, that we are just plagued with a bad crop of leaders at present. But the fact is, we have not had a good crop of leaders since the original revolutionaries passed on. In the 1930's, Will Rogers could joke that America had the best Congress money could buy. But it's no longer funny because the country is in obvious and rapid decline.

The rich, well-organized special interests buy all the tax credits, deductions, subsidies and support programs they need to enrich themselves, and they block any action that may threaten their wealth or power. Thus any program which is meant to benefit our people as a whole is defeated. This corruption, the buying of politicians through campaign contributions and media power, is not only legal, it is institutionalized. And it is so blatant, the politicians cannot deny it.

A CROCODILE TEAR

Articles in Time magazine are typical of the disingenuous attention that is given to the very real problem of our government's inability to act in the national interest or to serve the people as a whole. The cover of the October 23rd Time pictures George Washington shedding a tear and the title asks "Is Government Dead? Unwilling to lead, politicians are letting America slip into paralysis." The lead piece tells us that "Americans may wonder whether the Government - from Congress to the White House, from the State Department to the Office of Management and Budget - can govern at all anymore." It goes on to describe the power of the vested interests and says, "Various support programs for the middle and upper classes are also humming along nicely. Large-scale farmers and well-to-do retirees still enjoy federal largesse, as do oil companies and people earning more than $200,000 (whose income is taxed at a 28% marginal rate, while a working couple with a taxable income of $71,900 pays 33%). Those who gain from such Government generosity vote - and contribute money - in disproportionately high numbers...."

In reality the middle classes are being bled white; it is they who are providing the massive subsidies to both rich and poor. The government insists upon giving dole money to the poor so they are dependent on state and federal handouts, rather than provide the poor with work at decent wages which would resolve the problem of poverty permanently. In this way the poor are kept under control and away from revolutionary movements as the conservative side of the 'good cop - bad cop' game can always threaten to cut off their welfare. The only difference between the liberals and the conservatives is how much they are willing to shell out to keep the poor masses (at least 35 million strong, including 20 million Whites) bought off and pacified. What the politicians do not see is that the middle class Whites have just about had enough. It is not an accident that close to two-thirds of the White populace refuses to vote in Congressional elections. The people are completely disaffected from the System and are just waiting for a real alternative - a ray of hope - to arrive on the political scene.

THE ONLY SOLUTION

So what is Time's solution to the problem of paralysis in government? Strong presidential leadership. Yes, as usual they have decided to cast blame on the President, pretending that he has the power to change things. In fact, the President has very little real power beyond the ability to blow up the world, and that only if the the civilian and military bureaucracies will obey him which is unlikely in the event. The great irony is that we entrust the President with incredible power to do harm, i.e. to destroy the world through the launching of nuclear war, yet we will not trust him with the power to do good for the nation. He does not have the power to pass law, and he cannot compel the Congress to do anything it does not want to do. And Congress will not do anything that might substantially change things because it is under the thumb of the real rulers - the rich. The courts have more power than both the Congress and the President combined because they can claim that anything they want to do is mandated by the Constitution. In this way unelected judges, with expertise in nothing but Talmudic hair-splitting, have taken over everything from the schools to the prisons. And we wonder why nothing gets done.

The U.S. is not a democracy, it is a plutocracy - a system run by the wealthy, for the wealthy. It is designed to be such. Thus, political revolution is the only solution. Under Democratic Nationalism the direction the nation goes will be established by the people. Every ten years they will elect a president with real power. He will be selected from nationalistic political parties whose finances will be strictly regulated in order to defeat the machinations of the rich. That president will have the authority to make and execute radical changes in policy for the good of the nation as a whole. A grand new structure that ensures competent, self-sacrificing and meritocratically selected leadership is laid out in the Program of the National Democratic Front. Such noble leadership is the only answer to America's decline. gg

South Europe On The Rise

What country in Europe has had the greatest economic growth since 1970? West Germany? No, it is Spain. Spain's recorded GNP has grown 12% a year over the past two decades. While Britain has declined rapidly from the richest to one of the poorest countries in Europe, Spain and Italy have resurged. Italy's economy is vital and robust and now ranks third in Europe behind West Germany and France. The official figures are, of course, deceptive because Britain, Spain and Italy all have very large underground economies which means that each is doing better than the published figures reflect. But despite the fact that millions in the U.K. work "on the fiddle" as they call it (i.e. off the record, under the table, in the underground), the British are still desperately poor. For the unemployed (approximately 13%), their dole money and their fiddle income together add up to poverty. And what is more amazing is that the Brits seem not to realize how low they have fallen. Polls indicate that most Britons believe that their standard of living is better than that of the French.

BRITISH ISOLATION

One reason for this is that most British cannot afford to vacation in France. Middle-class Brits who do travel usually go to Spain and Greece on cheap package tours. Another reason is the British are almost unbelievably parochial. They are so psychologically isolated from the rest of the Continent that one might think that the English Channel were a thousand miles wide instead of just fifty.

REGENERATION OF CORRUPT CULTURES

What has caused the turnaround in southern Europe? The answers are not clear, but what it most certainly is not is honest and competent government. Spain is now a full-fledged Western plutocracy, and was not well led when Franco's conservative, pseudo-nationalist movement was in power. Italy's government is and has been notoriously corrupt and inefficient since the fall of the Fascists in the Second World War. Normally, corrupt cultures recover their sense of community when a corps of honest, competent and self-sacrificing revolutionary leaders seize power and by dint of their own example point the way for their people. Examples of this process are the "communist" revolutions in China and Vietnam, which are in fact racial-nationalist revolutions. If good leadership prevails in these governments for a sufficient number of generations, then these cultures will cease to be corrupt and will become truly nationalistic, despite centuries of decadence. The people will gradually come to believe that their leaders are really trying to rule for the benefit of all and not for themselves, and eventually the people will commit themselves to the nation once again. They will abandon loyalty to self or to family for loyalty to nation. This social strength will then convert to economic, military and political might. Japan is an excellent example of this completed process, which began in that country in the early 1600's when the Togukawa clan defeated its rivals to unite the nation. If, on the other hand, large-scale corruption creeps back into the leadership, as seems to be happening in China, the revitalizing of the nation will fail.

REVOLUTION FROM BELOW

What seems to be taking place in southern Europe is the exact opposite of the normal process described above. The social order seems to be rectifying itself despite inept and dishonest political leadership at the top. We should say, however, that at least in Italy the regeneration did begin with some visionary nationalist leaders. Garibaldi united Italy in 1870 and Mussolini carried forward the banner of national revolution and resurgence until his murder by Communist partisans in World War II. The spirit of community that these men preached has not been forgotten, and in fact, now serves as an ideal for the younger generation. Two examples will suffice. In the late 1970's, a young man named Roberto Fiore founded a nationalist movement in Italy called Third Position. The government called it neo-Fascist and cracked down on it. Yet, with less than 100 activists, Fiore was able to turn Rome upside down simply by distributing nationalist literature. Such is the extent of latent nationalist support in Italy. The government became so afraid of the rapid growth of nationalism that elements in its security forces planted a bomb in a railroad tunnel in Bologna. The bomb killed over 80 people and the government used it as an excuse to arrest all "neo-Fascist" activists. Those that did not escape to other countries were held without charges in brutal Italian prisons for four to five years. A few were tried but were found innocent, and eventually the real culprits were caught and prosecuted. Nevertheless, Fiore is still in exile (along with

SHORT BURSTS

Down the Tubes

Two more Black mayors are in trouble with the law. Washington D.C. Mayor Marion Barry has once again been identified by one of his cocaine dealer friends as a user. Charles Lewis, a former D.C. employee, made the statement to authorities after his latest arrest for selling drugs. D.C. police were going to arrest Lewis for selling drugs in a Ramada Inn last December but found out that Barry was in the room, so they left. Lewis says he smoked crack with Barry in the Ramada Inn. Three years ago a similar charge was made by D.C. employee Karen Johnson who claimed that she was Barry's primary cocaine supplier. But once she found herself in a D.C. jail, someone convinced her that she had better not testify against Barry. Barry swore to a grand jury that he did not use drugs, and Johnson held her tongue and did her time. Barry may not be so lucky this time. The Justice Department is investigating deals made by Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley with the indicted Jewish junk bond king, Michael Milken. And City Attorney James Hahn is suing Bradley for violation of conflict of interest laws. Bradley was being paid fees by banks doing business with the city.

Incredibly Costly Clean-Up

The first part of the clean up of the Y-12 nuclear plant in Oak Ridge, Tennessee is almost complete. The Energy Department drained four ponds containing 10 million gallons of toxic liquid wastes contaminated by nitrate compounds, mercury and uranium. Since 1984, $1.2 billion has been spent on the project. But $2.8 billion more will have to be spent to clean up the rest of the Oak Ridge site. The Energy Department says that it will spend close to $20 billion over the next five years to clean up its nuclear production facilities. Forty years of neglect is the cause of this problem, and now the bill is coming due, along with the EPA bill, along with the S&L bill, along with the drug war bill, along with the education bill, along with the medicare bill, along with the transportation bill. In its eagerness for failed multi-billion dollar social welfare programs to help the Blacks, Congress has ignored the deterioration of the structure of the nation. Now what? We are already $2.5 trillion in debt. More than 25% of every tax dollar goes to pay off the national debt. Where will the money for all these things come from?

Israeli "Consultants"

According to an article in the Outlook section of the Washington Post, Latin American drug lords have been hiring Israeli consultants to train their security forces and hit squads. These "consultants" are usually former Mossad (the Israeli CIA) agents who have licenses to export arms from Israel to their clients. The two most active agents in Latin America are Michael Harari and Rafi Eitan, both famous Mossad men. Eitan should be familiar as he was Jonathan Pollard's handler when the latter was spying on America for Israel. Harari was one of the Jews' best assassins. He killed over a dozen PLO operatives in Europe as well as at least one innocent Arab in Norway over which a major scandal broke. Harari is now a friend and security advisor for General Manuel Noriega of Panama. Isn't it wonderful that America has such a good friend as Israel. Certainly, we need many more such "allies."

The Black Pedophile Pope

George Stallings Jr. was a Catholic priest until this summer when he founded his own church, the Imani Temple, a so-called independent African-American Catholic Church which immediately attracted about 2000 parishioners from the Washington D.C. area. Stallings charges of racism against the Catholic Church gained him great media attention over the summer, but the media coverage has come back to haunt him. One of Stallings former altar boys is now saying that he and the priest often had sex in the parish. It also turns out that Stallings withheld $100,000 in collections from the Catholic Church to carry out renovations on his house.

Irving's Conversion

On June 23rd, the famous World War II historian David Irving called a press conference at the London World Trade Center to announce his conversion to Holocaust Revisionism. Under pressure from the Jews, the Trade Center cancelled the booking at the last moment, and the press boycotted the event which was eventually held at Irving's home. Irving announced plans to write his own book on the Holocaust, but for now he is promoting the sale of the Leuchter Report discussed in the Oct89 issue of The Nationalist. The Jews also succeeded in getting 88 members of Parliament to condemn Irving in writing.

many of his comrades) as he was sentenced in absentia by an Italian court to nine years in jail. His Third Position movement with its new ideology has been an inspiration for modern nationalist movements throughout the White world.

The second example demonstrates recent and fundamental changes in Italian attitudes. Earlier this year, union membership went on strike and demonstrated en masse in north Italy not against its employer, Fiat, but against its own Communist-dominated leadership for calling a strike against the auto company that the membership felt was unjustified. Next to Britain, Italy is the most strike-ridden country in the world (followed closely by the U.S.). Clearly something has been happening within the Italian social culture to make it much more community-conscious.

ANOTHER RENAISSANCE?

In Spain, Franco preached nationalist principles but rarely practiced them. Nevertheless, the teaching of nationalism may have had some positive effect for now one of the most popular forms of social satire in Spain is the mocking of the Spaniard's exaggerated sense of self. Parody of this extreme individualism for which the Spanish have become famous is one of the first steps toward building a sense of "we" as opposed to "I". The Spanish and Italians know that unity is strength. They are trying to move away from individualism while the northern Europeans, especially the Anglo-Saxons, are glorifying individualism and the capitalist self-interest ethic. The spirit of the north is sadly dying while the spirit of the south is reviving. Italy led the first European renaissance, and shortly thereafter Spain came to dominate the world on both land and sea. Is the wheel turning full circle? Will southern Europe also lead the second European renaissance? GG

Dear Mr. Gallo,

On a recent airing of a Seattle talk show (on very 'liberal' radio station KING), Silent Brotherhood co-author Kevin Flynn was interviewed. Mr. Flynn was surprisingly even-handed in his treatment of Robert Mathews and the Order. Several individuals called in to state that they had personally known Bob Mathews, and a more decent, upright man was not to be found. Needless to say this rattled the host who kept sputtering about 'hate.' His illogical stance, indeed 'doublethink' mode, was revealed in his response to his next guest who had journeyed to the Latvian S.S.R. to help the Latvians found a nationalist party in opposition to the Soviets. In this case the host fully supported the right of an endangered White minority to assert itself and to promote racial, cultural and historical solidarity.

Editor - The following letter from an NDF activist was published in the October 20th Knoxville News-Sentinel. All of our members and supporters should send letters to their local newspapers in an effort to get White Nationalist ideas before the people:

Editor, The News-Sentinel: A recent letter defending President Bush is indeed interesting. It proves how a citizen can be brainwashed by spineless politicians who are bought and sold at the toss of a coin.

As a former conservative Republican, I defended President Reagan for five years, finally realizing that what President Reagan said was not what President Reagan did. The power of the energy and education departments, which he promised to abolish, increased; and we indeed saw the tax increase, which he promised not to give us. President Bush is worse, since his lies are blatant to anyone who watches the boob tube. Mr. Bush can pray before a Christian Church one day and the next go to a Shintoist funeral in Japan. He can go without shame, before a Christian audience, raise his hands and declare, "I'm born again."

President Bush and his ilk are part of the same plutocracy which rules the workers of this nation with an iron fist! We have a government by and for the rich, and anyone who does not believe it should examine the people around Bush: they are all chosen from David Rockefeller's Trilateral Commission, or David Rockefeller's Council on Foreign Relations.

Hence, only the rich are free, and they maintain this freedom through financial control of the social, political and economic systems.

These are the capitalist friends of George Bush who control the working slaves of this country, and anyone who denies this should look at the facts. The last great man who tried to explain to the American people that 3% of the people owned 90% of the wealth was Sen. Huey Long of Louisiana, and as we all know, he was shot dead in 1935.

Dear Gary,

Your article "Jewish Terrorists Assault Revisionist" is surprisingly good. Not that I doubt your talent, but accuracy right after an event is extremely rare. As well as Mark Weber, you have a good sense of "synthesis".

Only one mistake: you should write Raul Hilberg instead of Raoul. And it is not totally exact that I convinced Leuchter to go to Poland. I visited him in Boston, and he agreed to come and visit Ernst Zuendel in Toronto. Zuendel convinced him to go to Poland.

Without Ernst Zuendel, we Revisionists could not have achieved one-tenth of what we have achieved since 1985....

Thank you for sending The Nationalist.

Jews Boast of Media Power

It used to be that the Jews tried to hide their domination of the media from the American people, but that has changed. As Nietzsche said, they are arrogant in victory and they now feel so assured in their power over America that they can no longer contain their boastful nature. The October 12th issue of Washington Jewish Week ran a most revealing article entitled "Jews on TV: More and More, Jews Are in Front of the Camera." The article states that:

"Television actors, producers and writers say that many in the tight knit Hollywood community are unwilling to portray Jews on the small screen because they are inhibited by a complex series of fears and beliefs.

"Chief among the concerns is one that has existed in Hollywood since the days of the Jewish movie moguls. Many in TV fear criticism that their industry is run by Jews."

The Jews fear this criticism because it is true, and they fear the truth above all things. Which is why they have invested so much time, money and effort in gaining control over almost all of America's sources of information. William Paley, a Russian Jew, founded CBS and controls it to this day. NBC was purchased early on by another Russian Jew, David Sarnoff. ABC was created by an American Jew, Leonard Golden-son, who still personally manages the company.

AN EMPIRE OF THEIR OWN

In the recently published book An Empire of Their Own: How the Jews Invented Hollywood, Jewish writer Neal Gabler describes in disgusting

detail how the Jews gained control of the movie industry. It was, of course, Whites who invented the cameras, projection equipment, and other machinery that made movie-making possible, and it was Whites such as W.K.L. Dickson (Birth of a Nation), Edward S. Porter (The Great Train Robbery) and many others who developed the art of movie-making. But through the arts of fraud, deceit, and dissembling which the Jews have honed to perfection over centuries of living amongst alien host populations, they were able to gain almost complete control of the industry.

Gabler describes how Adolph Zukor and Carl Laemmle illegally used Thomas Edison's patents without paying royalties. Edison's Motion Picture Patents Company, founded in 1908, had a virtual monopoly on camera and projection equipment licensing until 1918, but the Jews were determined to cheat Edison. They moved to California and set up shop in Hollywood primarily to escape the enforcers of Edison's New York-based Patent Co. Louis B. Mayer made his fortune by cheating the producers of Birth of a Nation through false book-keeping.

The Jews bought up the distribution network, i.e. is the movie houses, and through control of these chains they were able to squeeze out White moviemakers.

CONTROL OF THE PRESS

Jewish dominance of the press was acquired in equally sinister fashion. The two most influential papers in the U.S., the New York Times and the Washington Post, were taken by similar process. The Sulzbergers purchased the Times in the late 19th Century and the Meyers purchased the Post in the early 20th Century. The Times found that its retail advertising from Jewish merchants was drying up; the Sulzbergers appeared with an offer which the distressed owners of the Times were compelled to accept; shortly thereafter, the Times was once again flush with Jewish retail advertising. The game was repeated with the Post and many other newspapers.

The Jews also own and control all of this country's major news weeklies including Time, Newsweek and U.S. News & World Report. They own or control all of the major publishing houses except one (Harcourt Brace Janovich) and all of the major book and magazine distribution companies.

THE MASK COMES OFF

The theme of the Washington Jewish Week article was that the Jews who control Hollywood are no longer afraid to portray Jewish characters on TV. But the WJW piece does not explain why Jews are no longer afraid of what the White public thinks. The reason is not that the Jews have a lock on the American media; this they have had for decades. What is new is their confidence in the strength of their grip on the American political system. American Jews boast of this iron-grip to Israelis, but rarely have they discussed it in this country. One exception came in March of 1985 when the American Jewish Congress released a report on Jews and politics in the U.S. The report revealed that 25% of all political contributions given to the Republican Party come from Jews, and that 50% of all contributions to the Democrats come from Jews.

When the Jews turn on a politician, he is finished. They knocked off Sen. William Fulbright because he said that Palestinians as well as Jews had a right to their own sovereign nation. They destroyed Sen. Charles Percy because he backed a sale of high-tech military equipment to Saudi Arabia. One Jew from California spent $1,000,000.00 of his own money on TV advertising against Percy during the campaign. Former congressman Paul Findley wrote a book about the Jewish Lobby, and those who have opposed it, called They Dare to Speak Out.

Findley and Percy now work for the American Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, which organization you never hear about. Wonder why? The organizer of the AAADC, Alex Odeh, was assassinated by the Jewish Defense League in California. According to the FBI the JDL is the leading terrorist organization in America. Yet it is allowed to operate openly in this country. And when you think of a "terrorist" do you think of a Jew or an Arab? Wonder why? The FBI says that Odeh's killers are safely esconced in Israel and that the Israeli government refuses to cooperate. The U.S. government is afraid to pressure the Jews to turn over these murderers for trial. Wonder why?

Such is the power of the Jews in America. Such is why they no longer fear taking off the mask. They think they have a stranglehold on America's leaders. But they have had similar grips on the leaders of other countries in the past, and always it is the people who rise up to throw out the Jews and their allies.

WHITE NATIONALISM -OUR FUTURE!

When Huey Long was asked the difference between the Republicans and the Democrats, he replied, "The Republicans skin you from the neck down, and the Democrats skin you from the ankles up." You could almost laugh if it weren't so pathetically true.

In America today how many people can honestly look ahead and say that they are happy and confident about their children's future? In the space of fifty years virtually all of our major cities have come under the domination of non-Whites. Most White men, let alone our women, would not even consider walking through these "inner cities" at night. Yet the politicians of this country are deaf to any call for change and are blind to the anxiety of White America.

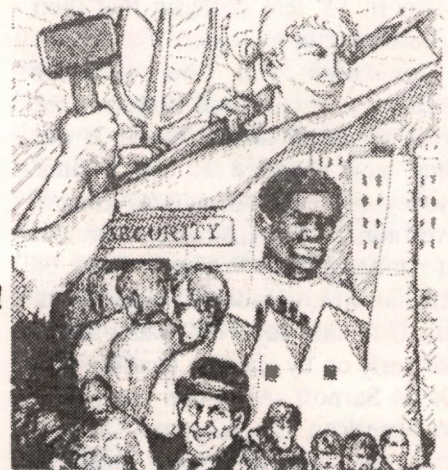

These politicians know the real feelings and worries of ordinary White Americans. But they will do nothing to help us. Our politicians are bought like prostitutes - bought by the Banks, by the Jews and by the other rich and well-organized special interests.

As we look to the future of our children and their children, we are faced with a simple choice. If we do not act, we will become a discriminated against minority in the country that our forefathers worked, bled, fought and died for; we will serve the plutocrats and their alien allies, and we will be wage-slaves for the Capitalist system that has betrayed the White Race and which is happy to see us drown in a sea of color, so long as profit reigns.

As White Nationalists, we cannot sit by and watch while the future of our people disintegrates before our eyes. We of the National Democratic Front are resolved to work and to fight to ensure that our children live in a nation of racial freedom and social justice. We will remove the corrupt old order of the Plutocrats, and never again will we be faced with the "choice" of being skinned from the ankles up or the neck down.

Tear down the dark, old order -

The bright, new one awaits!
