Conflict with Iraq Is Not About Oil

Most every American believes that the crisis with Iraq is about oil. This is what we are told by the media and this is what we are told by George Bush and his administration. After the oil shocks of the 1970's it certainly sounds plausible, and this is why the story is used - it sells. But the Iraq crisis is not about oil, as every honest expert on oil knows.

The Oil Lie

One such expert recently explained on the MacNeil Lehrer News Hour that in 1973 there were only 55 nations producing oil and that the Arabs dominated OPEC, but that all that has changed in the 17 years since. Now there are 200 nations producing oil and there is a vast surplus of production capacity, and no one country or coalition dominates OPEC. The U.S., for example, gets only 7% of its oil from Arab countries.

Indeed, since 1980 "our ally" Saudi Arabia cut its production of oil from a high of 10 million barrels a day in 1975 to 2 million barrels a day in 1985. Why? To keep oil prices high despite rising production around the world. Thank you Saudi Arabia. With friends like this we do not need enemies. No doubt the oil companies appreciate the Saudi policy, but it has hurt the economies and the peoples of the world as prosperity is linked to cheap fuel.

Bush-Created Shortage

Bush claims that Saddam Hussein is out to corner the world's oil market and thereby hold us hostage. In 1973 this would have been possible, but now it is an absurdity. In fact, it is Bush himself who has cut off all the oil from Iraq and Kuwait through his embargo. He has created the very situation which he claims is such a danger to the U.S. Hussein seized Kuwait in order to make more money to pay off Iraq's enormous war debt. He needs to sell oil to do that. If he cut off or decreased the sale of oil, the rest of OPEC would simply produce more oil to compensate, and he would be throwing money down the drain. Yet, the media and Bush would have us believe that Hussein is about to carry out a policy inimical to the interests of his country.

Bush's embargo has eliminated 5 million barrels of oil a day from the world market. The oil companies responded immediately with price gouging at the pump, even though it takes two months for the more expensive oil to get to the pump. Within three weeks of Iraq's invasion of Kuwait gasoline prices were up more than 20 cents per gallon. Bush came from the oil industry in Texas, and no doubt his old friends are pleased with his policy, but the American people are not happy and as the facts come out, the President will have to do a lot of explaining.

This Bush-created shortage will only be short-term as the oil producing nations of the world will be delighted to sell more oil. Already Saudi Arabia has announced it will increase its production by 2 million barrels a day which amounts to 40% of the embargoed oil. The Saudis have asked for a conference of OPEC nations to set new quotas, but this idea has been rejected because each nation now seeks to sell as much oil as possible during the crisis and is not interested in Saudi pleas for quotas.

Nigeria, Mexico, Venezuela, Britain, Texas, etc. etc. will soon be producing so much oil that the remaining loss from embargoed oil of 3 million barrels a day will soon be made up. There may even be a new glut of oil on the market as in the mid-1980's, which makes Bush's claim about Iraq holding the oil supplies of the world hostage a ridiculous statement designed to prey upon the technical ignorance of the American people in this area.

The "Aggression" Hypocrisy

Bush also claims to be against "aggression." Only a politician with years of experience in lying could say this with a straight face. The utter hypocrisy of the invader of Panama, which country our troops still occupy, professing to be offended by the use of military force in the national interest stuns the imagination. The only explanation is that he takes the American people for fools.

If Bush is against aggression on principle, as he says, then why does he not embargo Israel which invaded Lebanon in 1982 and which still occupies the southern part of that country. Why is he not mobilizing a huge military force to invade Israel to force that aggressor to give up its ill-gotten gains from the 1967 Six Day War and the Lebanon War pursuant to U.N. resolutions. Israel launched a surprise attack (a so-called "preventive strike") against its Arab neighbors in June of 1967. Shortly before this attack, the Israeli intelligence service (the MOSSAD) assured its "friend" the CIA that it was not going to attack Jordan, and the CIA duly passed the message on to King Hussein of Jordan. Under this cover Israel proceeded to invade Jordan in a surprise attack more effective than Pearl Harbor, and it seized the West Bank, which is the site of the ongoing Palestinian Uprising against the Jews (the Intifada) where Arab children are regularly tortured (and sometimes murdered) upon capture for throwing rocks at Jewish soldiers.

Also during the Six Day War, the

Gary Gallo, Editor

Israelis bombed the U.S. intelligence ship the USS Liberty in international waters, and then machine-gunned from torpedo boats the surviving American sailors as they attempted to abandon ship in life rafts. Thirty-four American sailors died in this war crime. Yet, none of this, apparently, is aggression in the eyes of George Bush. He demands nothing from Israel for its crimes, and moreover, supports the giving to Israel of $4 billion a year in U.S. "aid," plus a further $2 billion a year to Egypt to keep it bought off from the Arab Cause. Such is the power of the Jewish Lobby and such is the nature of George Bush's devotion to "principle."

No Tripwire

Saddam Hussein is convinced that Bush is preparing to invade Iraq, and he is right. The Administration has announced that it intends to put 250,000 troops into Saudi Arabia, claiming that this is necessary to deter an Iraqi attack on Arabia. This is an obviously false claim as we do not need a quarter of a million soldiers to act as a tripwire, rather a few tens of thousands have always served this purpose in the past both in Germany and in Korea. A tripwire serves notice on the attacking country that the U.S. will come to the defense of the defending country because American troops are involved and are being killed. This is all it takes to deter aggression.

Indeed, if Iraq were going to attack Saudi Arabia it would have done so on the same day it invaded Kuwait with a mere 1/10 of its army when there were no U.S. troops in the region. So why put such a huge U.S. army in Saudi Arabia? There can only be one reason, and that is to mount an attack on the army of Iraq. But if oil is not the reason for such an attack by the U.S., what is?

Balance of Power

The answer lies in the balance of power in the Middle East which has shifted dramatically since Iraq's victory over Iran in the Iran-Iraq War. Iran's army was mainly an infantry force and its losses bled it white, but Iraq's army was a modern mechanized force which grew stronger as the war went on. Iraq now has a veteran million man army with 5500 tanks and 700 jet aircraft, plus a long range missile capability that allows it to strike Israel with chemical weapons in the event of war. Though Israel destroyed Iraq's nuclear bomb production facilities in an unprovoked air raid, and though Israel has hundreds of atomic bombs itself, the Jewish state fears the power of Iraq and wants to see its strongest enemy destroyed. And that is why we have deployed in the Middle East - to destroy Israel's most powerful enemy for the benefit not of the U.S. but of Jewry.

It was the Jews who suggested to the Reagan/Bush Administration that it sell arms to Iran which resulted in Iranscam because they wanted to see the Iran-Iraq war prolonged. It was the Jews who told Reagan to give Iraq satellite intelligence on Iran when it looked like Iraq might lose the war to an Iranian offensive. Again the Jews wanted the war protracted. It was the Jews who told Reagan to put Marines in Lebanon to separate Jewish forces from Palestinian forces in Beirut so that the Jews would not have to fight a Stalingrad-style battle in that city. This resulted in the fury of the Moslem fundamentalist movement being directed at the U.S. and in the suicide bombing of our Marine barracks which killed 248 of our soldiers, whereupon Reagan promptly withdrew from Lebanon - apparently it was no longer vital to American interests after the bombing.

Yellow Journalism

It is the Jews who now, once again, want Americans to do their fighting for them. And that is why you can smell the stench of yellow journalism wafting from your television sets each evening and each morning as the Jewish-controlled networks (ABC, NBC, CBS and PBS) pound the drums for war. The media has sought to heighten tension in the conflict from the very beginning. From the first day each network produced foreign policy "experts" who demanded war with Iraq! We find newscasters such as Ted Koppel and Barbara Walters (both Jews posing as "American" journalists) attacking the Ambassador of Iraq with an almost hysterical venom on the TV program Nightline.

The non-Jewish media stars have been little better in their "reporting" as they are determined to tow the company line. Virtually every sentence written in the U.S. press that contains the name Saddam Hussein also contains the name Hitler, and this is no accident - America is being hyped for war. The press lords are eager to shed American blood for Israel, to right the shift of the balance of power in the Middle East in favor of Israel, even though these same people give short shrift to balance of power arguments outside of the Middle East (and Israel's sphere of influence) such as in Southeast Asia for example.

Peace Pleas Ignored

Saddam's Hussein's pleas for unconditional negotiation are being ignored. The fact that he is using American hostages to deter an attack on his country demonstrates how desperate he is to avoid war, and how certain he is that the U.S. plans to attack. And indeed, the Arab masses seem to see things the same way as Hussein. There have been pro-Iraqi demonstrations throughout the Arab world as he is seen as the new leader of pan-Arab nationalism, the new Gamel Abdul Nasser.

Moreover, the Arabs have no respect for the kings, sheikhs and emirs who amass fortunes and spend them in Las Vegas gambling, drinking and whoring with White women, and there is little sympathy amongst the Arabs for the Kuwaitis who lived in unimagined luxury while most Arabs lived in a grinding poverty. The typical attitude is: if all Arabs are brothers, then why should some live in mansions and others live in hovels. The ordinary Arab wants to see their oil wealth shared, not selfishly hoarded by "countries" created artificially by a few flicks of the British imperial pen for the sole purpose of keeping the Arabs divided against themselves. Indeed, the Iraqis have always claimed that Kuwait was a province of Iraq, but never before did that country have the power to reunite itself.

Jewish Foreign Policy

The leader of Syria, Hafez Assad, once said that America does not have a foreign policy in the Middle East - Israel has a policy which America executes. Along these lines, C.J. Butler, the foreign columnist for the Scripps Howard News Service, unintentionally revealed the real cause of this war in an article entitled "Will Saddam make Israel his next target?" The title says it all as it explains why the Jewish Lobby and the Jewish-driven media are so hungry for war. And the Jewish Lobby has the power to get whatever it wants, particularly with a wimp like Bush, and with the spineless politicians who now walk the halls of Congress.

The Jews, who constitute less than 3% of U.S. population, contribute 25% of all the money given to the Republican Party and over 50% of all the money given to the Democratic Party according to the American Jewish Congress. The Jewish Lobby destroyed the careers of two former chairmen of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, William Fulbright and Charles Percy, for opposing Jewish foreign policy.

Our gutless pols know better than to oppose the Jews and that is why Americans will once again die for the benefit of world Jewry unless the American people demand an immediate end to this charade.

A Semitic Hitler?

It seems that Hussein is our new Hitler, yes he is out to conquer the world, and like Hitler, is such an evil genius that he can do it without a navy and without a long range air force. The American people are not fools, and they rejected this media hype in 1939, 1940 and 1941, until Roosevelt found a backdoor into the war by forcing Japan to the wall with an oil embargo. Let us hope that the American people are still wise enough to reject yellow journalism and Presidential tricks - but let us not kid ourselves. Our politicians are cynical men. Roosevelt secretly committed acts of war against Germany in order to provoke Hitler, and Lyndon Johnson fabricated the Gulf of Tonkin Incident (which attack never took place) in order to make war on North Vietnam. It is this sort of manufactured incident that we can expect from the System. Look for it, and do not be fooled when it comes, as it most certainly will come. Then have the courage to fight the frivolous waste of life as our children die once again for the benefit of the Jews. Shed American blood only for America. GG

Banks Are the Next to Go

In the very first issue of The Nationalist (Dec85) we discussed the crisis that was brewing in the banking and S&L industries. All the facts pointing to a break down of our banking system were available even then, but the press and politicians ignored the problem for three more years until it was so vast that it threatened a complete collapse of the S&L industry. And now the stability of the much larger and wealthier bank industry is finally being called into question.

Banks Already Broke

For example, an August 20th AP article entitled "Beyond Savings and Loans: Experts say commercial banks also in trouble but differ over how much" quoted economist R. Dan Brumbaugh of Stanford University as saying the banking system is already broke, but that outmoded accounting procedures are being used to mask the magnitude of the failure. The chairman of the FDIC, William Seidman, contends that Brumbaugh is wrong, but admits that the bank insurance fund is "in a very much stressed position."

Middle Class to be Sacrificed

The estimate on what it will cost to save the S&L industry is now up over $500 billion. The commercial banks control three times the amount of deposits as the S&Ls. A bailout of the banks on the same scale would wipe out the American middle class, unless of course the assets of the rich were confiscated to repair the system which the wealthy have used and plundered for their own benefit. Since the top 3.3 million in America own more than an entire year's national GNP this is quite possible and reasonable.

Squeezed Dry

But the United States is a plutocracy - a system run by the rich for the rich - and the System will not force the rich to sacrifice until the middle class has been squeezed dry, and that process is well under way. Our standard of living is dropping. How much further will it go?

New Nation Books

(New and Used)

We sell the books on politics and history that have been suppressed by the System - the books you cannot find on your library shelves or at your bookshop because the powers that be will not allow it in the "land of the free." Many of these books from America's underground press are finely bound hardbacks written by famous historians such as David Irving, David Hogan, and Harry Elmer Barnes - books that the Establishment publishers would not print because they are "too hot to handle."

Academic Freedom at UT A Fraud

When Professor Mieczyslaw Trzeciak arrived in Knoxville he paid a visit to the head of the Sociology Department of the University of Tennessee. Professor Trzeciak is the head of the Department of Sociology at the Kasmiera Pulaski University of Engineering in Radom, Poland, and to pay such a courtesy call on a fellow head of department is commonly done in Europe. In his political life, Prof. Trzeciak was the Secretary General of Grunwald, Poland's largest nationalist organization, for seven years. But personal politics did not arise in the conversations between Prof. Trzeciak and Prof. Thomas Hood, the UT Sociology chief, as they concentrated on discussion of their academic discipline and on ways scientific knowledge could be shared by their two schools.

Lecture Cancelled

Prof. Trzeciak met most of the professors of the Sociology Department, and apparently they were impressed as the Department eventually invited him to give a lecture for a $350 honorarium on the subject of social and political conditions in present day Poland. However, a few hours before the lecture someone protested to the Department of Sociology of Prof. Trzeciak's "affiliation" with the White Nationalist NDF, and the lecture was immediately cancelled. The announcements of the lecture that had been posted all over campus were covered with the word "CANCELLED."

Professor Trzeciak was not notified or consulted before this cancellation. He arrived at the University ready to give his lecture which had already been approved by the vice-director of the Sociology Department Michael Betz the previous day.

Betz informed him that the sponsors had withdrawn their support, and he would not be paid an honorarium. When Prof. Trzeciak pressed Prof. Betz for a reason he said only that it was for "political reasons" and mentioned Prof. Trzeciak's affiliation with the nationalist NDF.

Prof. Trzeciak replied that he was not so interested in money and asked for permission to give the lecture anyway. Betz was obviously taken aback by this lack of mercenary interest and reluctantly allowed Trzeciak to give his lecture if four others were in attendance. To the chagrin of the Department of Sociology there were about 20 people in the hall waiting for Prof. Trzeciak to speak despite the cancellation notices posted on the lecture hall door.

Trzeciak Attacked

So Prof. Trzeciak proceeded with his lecture though it was not under the best of circumstances. The Department had expected over a hundred university people to show up for the talk. At the end of the lecture most everyone applauded, but then the Professor was emotionally criticized by someone carrying a copy of the Aug90 issue of The Nationalist which carried a speech by Professor Trzeciak. This person quoted a few passages about the Jews out of context from the speech, made a rude and bitter commentary and then stormed out refusing to hear the Professor's reply. After that questions proceeded in a normal fashion despite the obviously strained atmosphere. Altogether the UT Department of Sociology put Prof. Trzeciak in a very difficult position, but he handled it as best he could.

Trzeciak Counterattacks

On the day following the lecture Prof. Trzeciak mailed the following letter to Professor Thomas Hood:

Dear Professor Hood:

As you probably know my lecture on social and political conditions in Poland scheduled for August 29th was suddenly cancelled a few hours before the designated time for "political reasons," according to your vice-head Professor Michael Betz. I was denied my academic freedom to address your University for "political reasons!" What political reasons? Honestly, I did not believe such a thing possible in America, a land which supposedly stands for freedom of speech, human rights and academic freedom. I was not even consulted prior to the cancellation of my lecture - I have never been treated with such outrageous discourtesy in all my academic life, not even by the Communists.

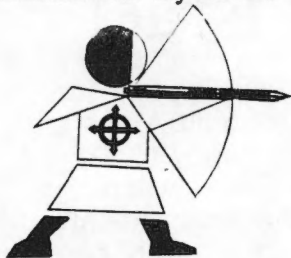

I demand to know why my lecture was cancelled. Who are my accusers? Simple justice and fair play require that I be allowed to face my accusers and defend myself. Is it because I am a nationalist, or an anti-Zionist - because I criticize the Jews? How is it that in your free country Jews can attack Poles for being anti-Semitic, but Poles cannot criticize Jews for being anti-Polish? Is this freedom? I experienced this sort of freedom under Communism, but until now I did not realize that Capitalist freedom is substantially the same in character as Communist freedom.

I cannot express to you how outraged I am at the behavior of your Department toward me. Is fear of the Jews so great in your country that this is really possible? This is a nightmare, truly you live under a tyranny. I now demand a complete explanation of why my announced lecture was cancelled, and further I demand that my lecture (the text of which was approved by Prof. Betz) be reinstated under our original agreement, which your Department has breached.

Sincerely,
Professor Mieczyslaw Trzeciak

Dear Gary,

The Nationalist continues to be one of the very best. Please find enclosed $2.00 in postage stamps, ain't much, but every little bit counts, right?

"Our Day Is Coming ..."

I recently read James Michener's book about the Hungarian uprising in 1956 entitled The Bridge at Andau which I found to be so emotional and truthful (to that certain line which few authors dare to cross) that I suggested it as a "must read" to many Kinsmen. I don't see how David Irving could put much more emotion into his book Uprising except to add the Truths against the Jews who were, and still are, sucking the lifeblood of the Hungarian nation like so many stinking vampires. Please notify me as to whether Uprising is available in softback, and please send me your "NDF Recommended Reading List."

Dear Gary,

Enclosed is an item on the Yacub Theory theory espoused by Elijah Muhammed. Be sure you read this. I know it sounds flakey, but up until Elijah Muhammed's death it was the basis of Black Muslim ideology, and many Black Muslims today take it very seriously. It was a major cause of Malcom X's defection from the Nation of Islam. It also provided the justification for the "Death Angel" sect of the Nation of Islam responsible for the Zebra killings in California, which claimed 400 or so White lives. Farrakhan has never (to my limited knowledge) repudiated the Yacub Theory. My feeling is that before the Movement gets too engrossed in playing footsie with Farrakhan that his stand on this should be clarified.

Wanted: American Boys to Kill Arabs for Israel

The Jews are in trouble again and need our help once more. The Arabs keep rioting just because the Jews took their land and treat them like servants. It is time for these stupid Arabs to realize that the Jews are the Chosen People of God and that we should all be happy to serve them. The Jews have been as patient as they can be with these Arab malcontents - when the Palestinian children throw rocks the Israelis do not exterminate them, rather the Jews patiently break their bones, then imprison them, torture them, and destroy their homes. Only rarely have they buried these Palestinian youths alive or murdered them with bullets to the head. Yet, despite this measured response and extraordinary restraint on the part of our great ally, the Arab insurrection continues. Israel cannot do it all. It has hounded the Palestinians all the way to Beirut, but still they refuse to submit to the rightful domination of the Jews.

And now Saddam (just call him Adolph) Hussein has the chutzpah to build up a powerful military, almost as big as Israel's, and has used it to invade Kuwait which he claims is a province of Iraq. He even had the gall to attempt to manufacture atomic weapons in response to Israel's building of nuclear bombs, but fortunately the Jews bombed his plant outside of Baghdad. So then the megalomaniac went about building a long range missile force with gas warheads that can strike Tel Aviv. What madness! It is clear that Saddam Hitler has lost his mind. Any day he could send his tank army rolling down the Jordan Highway to attack the Chosen, the most moral people on earth, our friends the Jews. We cannot let this happen. Iraq must be destroyed.

We sent millions of our sons to fight the enemies of the Jews in World War II, and if we killed Germans for Jews, we can certainly kill Arabs for Jews. It is our mission in the world to destroy all of the enemies of Jewry, it is the American Way. If it's not in the Constitution, it should be. Yes, there is hatred for the Jews all over the world, but whatever the cost, anti-Semitism must be stopped! Can you think of a better reason to shed the blood of American youth? Send your children to fight the Islamic Menace and kill the new Adolph Hitler in Iraq!
