"...The greatest and most enduring successes in history tend for the most part to be those which in their beginnings found the least understanding because they stood in sharpest conflict with general public opinion, with its ideas and will..."

(Mein Kampf, Vol. Two, Chap. VI)

NS Victory at Southern Illinois

In a stormy 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ -hour appearance, National Leader Matt Koehl forcefully brought the issue of National Socialism to the campus of Southern Illinois University in Carbondale on 26 February. Contributing to the success were the disruptive tactics of Negroes and Jews in attendance, which served as a live exhibit to underscore the National Leader's remarks concerning these groups.

The National Leader had been assigned to the smallest hall on campus, seating only 500. However, an over-flow of 250 jammed the doorways. In addition, another 2,000 heard the address over special loudspeakers installed in the cafeteria on the floor below, making this the largest turn-out for a political speaker in the entire history of the school. (By comparison, a well-known Left-Wing speaker attracted only 60 persons to a previous gathering.) The National Leader's remarks were also carried by the local Carbondale radio station. There was further coverage by newspapers, radio and television in St. Louis and Chicago.

By the time the dean--bowing to minority pressure--canceled the speech, hundreds of enraged White Aryans had been won over to a pro-NS position; and many of them pressed forward to shake the National Leader's hand. A report received following the speech stated:

"Everyone on campus is still talking about your appearance here, even in classes. The almost unanimous opinion amongst both the White students and teachers is one of great sympathy for you personally and a rising hatred of the Blacks. Everyone wants you back.

"As for the Jews, they are acting in the age-old tradition of their fathers by accusing almost every Aryan of being a 'Nazi.' As an example of their paranoia, last night some Jews overheard a conversation being held in German between a blond woman and a fellow from Germany. The Jews followed the woman outside and slapped her until she was hysterical because they thought she must surely have been a 'Nazi.' As it turned out, the girl was actually a Jewess herself. This self-exposure on the part of the Jews is validating everything you said to the White students."

In his address, the National Leader had called attention to the remarkable hate campaign against National Socialism 23 years after the end of World War II, contrasting this with the treatment of Communism by the propaganda media. He emphasized that politics begins with propaganda, and then proceeded to show who controlled the democratic propaganda media: television, radio, newspapers, books, magazines, movies, etc. He showed that there was a "Jewish power structure" exercising effective control over the White Aryan majority through these media.

Kirstein on Pyne Show

William G. Kirstein, Local Leader of the Party in Los Angeles, appeared 3 February on the "Joe Pyne Show" opposite Black Power fanatic, Ron Karenga. Kirstein handled himself capably against barbs from both Pyne and the anti-White Karenga. He did so well, in fact, that the program was blacked out by Jewish programmers in some parts of the country, including the Washington area--despite the fact that Kirstein's appearance had been given top billing by these same stations!

LA National Socialists Picket Anti-White Rally

On 18 February, a squad of stormtroopers, led by Lt Kirstein, waded into thousands of Blacks outside the Los Angeles Sports Arena, where an anti-White rally featuring Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, was taking place. Although heavily outnumbered by the Blacks, the National Socialists carried off their demonstration through sheer audacity, nerve, and personal heroism.

Chicago National Socialists in Literature Campaign

Chicago National Socialists recently distributed thousands of pieces of literature, including the Party newspaper, White Power, in the city's Marquette Park district, where Commander Rockwell scored overwhelming successes during his White Power campaign in 1966.

Gas for Race-Mixers

Unidentified National Socialists, apparently infuriated by the unprecedented depravity of Hollywood race-mixers, were on hand for the Washington, D. C., premiere of the interracial film, "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner?" at Loew's Palace Theater on 21 February. The anti-Aryan arrogance of William Rose, the Jew who wrote the script, and Stanley Kramer, the Jew who produced the picture, was obviously more than they could stand.

Unbeknownst to the assembled leading lights of the capital's degenerate Liberal Set--who were playing host to the Black "star," Sidney Poitier, and his White movie-bride, Katherine Houghton--their foul pleasure would that evening be ruined, and they would get a taste--or rather, smell--of opposition.

The "smell of opposition" apparently came in the form of a small bottle of highly potent Bromine Toluene, which was spilled out on the floor of the theater. As it went trickling down toward the front, overpowering gas fumes were emitted from the fluid. One by one--starting from the front and working back--the rows began to empty, as crying, cursing patrons hurriedly fled the theater. Some shouted for the air conditioners. But this only had the effect of spreading the fumes around more evenly.

We did a little checking, and discovered that Bromine Toluene is classified as a disabling gas, with the properties of both tear and mustard gas, and without the effect of inflicting permanent damage. It causes severe skin irritation, and affects the breathing, by causing mucous membranes to swell. It also affects the tear ducts of the eyes, which are drained of fluid, forcing victims to wear sunglasses for several days. Expensive clothing--such as that worn by "black tie" theater patrons--when infected by this gas, is extremely costly to clean, and in many cases results in permanent loss of a garment.

Although the Party cannot, of course, give official approval to unauthorized "gassings" of this kind, we do propose to try such individuals as Messrs. Rose and Kramer, as well as others of Jewish background, for crimes against the White Race; and if they are duly found guilty, they will be executed with an even more powerful kind of gas.

New Staff Member

Party Member Michael J. Gauss joined the National Headquarters Staff on 13 March, and has been assigned to the Party's Printing Division.

Gauss had helped the Headquarters Staff out regularly during off-duty hours, prior to his recent discharge from the Navy. En route to National Headquarters, he was arrested in Washington, D.C., for carrying a .22 caliber rifle. Under a highly unconstitutional law, which the Party plans to test, the rifle was considered a "machine gun!"

National Council Named

The National Leader has named a special national council, and generally designated the procedure, for choosing a successor, to provide for the orderly transfer of authority in the event of his death.

These provisions have been securely deposited in several places against such an eventuality.

Headquarters Assessment

There are still a few members who have not responded in the Headquarters Drive. So that they might maintain their good standing, we urge them to do their part in this common effort. The assessment for full-rate members is $20; for half-rate members it is $10.

Membership Cards

New membership cards have been issued to all members in good standing. If you have not received your membership card, it indicates that you have: (a) fallen behind in your dues payments; or (b) failed to meet some other obligation in connection with your membership. In such a case, we urge that you re-establish your good standing immediately, so your new card can be issued.

NS Commemorative Dates

- 9 March 1918 -- George Lincoln Rockwell, the man responsible for the revival of National Socialism following 1945, was born 50 years ago on this date, in Bloomington, Illinois
- 16 March 1965 -- James Pearson, National Socialist engineering student, is foully murdered near Boulder, Colorado
- 23 March 1868 -- Dietrich Eckart, poet, philosopher and playwright--and close collaborator of Adolf Hitler in the formation of the National Socialist Movement--was born 100 years ago on this date

Coming Events

National Headquarters is planning an appropriate celebration of Adolf Hitler's Birthday, 20 April, in Arlington. Local units around the country are planning similar festivities. We invite as many members and supporters to take part in these celebrations, marking the most significant holiday on the National Socialist calendar.

National Headquarters is also planning a series of pro-White activities starting the latter part of April in opposition to the plans of Martin Luther King and Stokely Carmichael to bring riot and disorder to the nation's capital. Those wishing to participate in these activities should contact this office.

NOTICE: Frank A. Drager, Jr. is no longer associated with this Party in any way.

"Crusader" Article

The incredible Sep-Oct issue of The Crusader--published by the anti-White fanatic, Robert F. Williams in Red China--which will bring home to every White person the grim prospect of the race-war we face, has been reprinted in full in the newest issue (No. 5) of National Socialist World.

For your copy of this issue, simply remit $2.50 to: National Socialist World--Box 5537--Arlington Virginia 22205. Better still, send in $10 for your one-year subscription to this important journal.

Orders and Subscriptions

The Party is planning to consolidate all its major operations in Virginia. As a step in this direction, subscriptions to the various Party publications will henceforth be handled from Arlington.

This will apply eventually to all orders as well. However, until further notice, these will be sent directly to: ANP-Dallas--Box 22071--Dallas, Texas 75222.

Activity of the Month

During March, we ask each Member to purchase an extra copy of Commander Rockwell's book, White Power, to use as a recruiting device, to be circulated among friends and associates who show even the mildest interest in National Socialism and our racial struggle.

As we enter a period of greater and greater racial unrest, it becomes easier to enter into serious racial with those with whom one comes into contact. These discussions must be deliberately undertaken with a view toward winning new recruits for the Cause. After your initial efforts in this direction, a follow-up by inducing a person to read White Power in the privacy of his own home is extremely effective for winning someone over completely.

Extra copies of White Power can be ordered for $5.95 each from: ANP-Dallas--Box 22071--Dallas, Texas 75222.
