Vidnjevich Released

Thanks to the unselfish efforts of hundreds of Party comrades, Capt Chris Vidnjevich was released 8 April from an Ellsworth, Maine, jail, after a $10,000 cash bond was posted.

Capt Vidnjevich was arrested and jailed following a gunfight 17 March with a notorious Boston gangster. Following receipt of information that John Patler may have conspired with others in the murder of Commander Rockwell, the Captain decided to place his house under observation in the hope of checking out certain details in connection with the assassination.

Tipped off that his house was being watched, the gangster seized an armload of weapons and gave chase to Vidnjevich through three cities in his car. Capt Vidnjevich tried to elude his pursuer, but having a slower automobile, was finally forced to begin exchanging fire in self-defense with the well-armed gangster after the latter pulled a gun and opened up on him.

The police intervened, however, and Capt Vidnjevich was charged with assault with intent to kill, as soon as his Party membership was discovered. He faces 25 years' imprisonment upon conviction.

The gangster--who after the episode admitted that Ratler murdered the Commander--was let off scot-free. The case against the Captain is expected to come to trial shortly.

FLASH: As this was being written, we received late word that the above-mentioned gangster was arrested in Boston on a concealed weapons charge.

Students Approve National Leader's Return to SIU

The Student Government Association at Southern Illinois University has overwhelmingly approved the reappearance of the National Leader to Carbondale.

National Leader Koehl would this time be given the largest auditorium on campus, which seats 3,000. During his previous appearance 26 February he was assigned a 500-seat hall, which was woefully inadequate for the overflow crowd of 2,750 which he addressed.

The final decision to reinvite the National Leader to SIU rests with the Dean of Students.

National Socialist Action in Pacific Northwest

Thousands of automobiles in the parking lot of the big Jew-owned Crown-Zellerbach plant in Oregon City, Oregon, were recently plastered with Party handbills. The material included Party proposals for repatriation of the Blacks to Africa, as well as an advertisement for the book, White Power, and was deposited during the "graveyard shift" on a Saturday and Sunday.

Militant White Youth

The following is a report from an NSYM Member in the Buffalo, N.Y. area:

"The school I attend, ---- High, was the scene of a riot on February 9. Fighting occurred all day, and finally the Blacks tore apart the cafeteria. It was found out in a public meeting a few days after that the riot was instigated by some kind of Black Power advocate who was in school on a visitor's pass.

"The good thing to report, however, is that the Whites all stuck together and fought. Four Blacks were taken to the hospital and seven were suspended.

"Things are quieter now, but officials feel that it is just starting, as the Blacks themselves have been screaming. However, the Whites are ready to fight. They are tired of being pushed around.

"Many of my friends expressed interest in joining together in a movement of this sort. Would it be possible to form an NSYM unit in this area?"

D.C. Area Activity Planned

The Party is planning a series of co-ordinated public activities in the Washington metropolitan area this summer. Those wishing to participate should notify this office as soon as possible.

Hitler Birthday Celebration

National Headquarters is planning an appropriate celebration of the 79th Birthday of Adolf Hitler, the immortal Founder of our Movement, on 20 April. The great, classic film of the 1934 National Socialist rally at Nuremberg, "Triumph of the Will," will be shown, if a copy can be obtained. All Party members and supporters are invited to attend.

Similar celebrations for the 20th are being planned by various Party units around the country.

MAKE SURE WE HAVE YOUR CURRENT TELEPHONE NUMBER

Party Business Consolidated

All Party business operations, including sales and subscriptions, have been consolidated under the new subsidiary, NS Publications--Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia 22205.

All orders, as well as subscriptions, should henceforth be sent directly to this address, with the major exception of orders for Commander Rockwell's book, White Power, which may, for $5.95 each, be obtained direct from the publisher, Ragnarok Press--Box 22071--Dallas, Texas 75222.

This move is part of a general policy of Party consolidation, as originally explained by the National Leader in the September 1967 Bulletin in an editorial entitled, "The Job Ahead Of Us."

SEGREGATE YOUR REMITTANCES: Remittances for dues and contributions, Party orders and subscriptions, and NSW orders and subscriptions should be made out separately as follows, and never lumped together:

NSWPP-----Dues and contributions

NS Publications-----Party orders & subscriptions

National Socialist World----NSW orders & subscriptions (Box 5537)

Your co-operation will help ease the work-load here at National Headquarters, and enable us to render better service.

Activity of the Month

As the activity for April, we ask each Member to distribute at least 10 copies of Issue No. 5 of White Power, the Party newspaper.

Copies may be obtained at 10 for $1; 100 for $7.50; or 1,000 for $25 (unfolded) prepaid from: NS Publications--Box 5505--Arlington, Virginia 22205. (Be sure to make checks and money orders payable to "NS Publications.")

The Anti-Party Syndrome

(A Staff Editorial)

It was not for nothing that the first-draft title of Adolf Hitler's masterwork was Four and a Half Years of Struggle Against Lies, Stupidity and Cowardice--that is, the lies, stupidity and cowardice of members of the various squabbling factions inside the Movement which Hitler was slowly building up, despite their destructive efforts.

Nor was it for nothing that Commander Rockwell nearly wore himself out dealing with factionalism, conspiracy and treachery inside our Party, often having little strength left with which to oppose outside enemies.

Next to Patler, the most dangerous traitor with whom Commander Rockwell had to deal was a sly, ingratiating person named Allen, who, after being promoted to the position of National Secretary, deliberately attempted to seize the leadership of the Party, and then, failing that, to wreck the Party by organizing a mutiny.

Both Allen and Patler serve as examples of a phenomenon characteristic to many of those who leave the Party. The persons referred to are those who fail at some endeavor in the Party, whether an attempt to elbow aside the Party leadership or to have their ideas prevail in some matter of Party policy, and then are not able to reconcile themselves in a mature way to their failure.

Instead of either continuing to work for the good of the Party or quietly withdrawing, they become bitter enemies of the Party, convincing themselves, and sometimes others, that it is the Party, not themselves, which is responsible for their failure. With such an attitude they are able to justify to themselves the most flagrant anti-Party activity, for to them the Party has now become the enemy, taking the place in their minds of the Jews, Communists, Blacks, or what have you.

The fundamental trouble lies in the fact that these persons are not, and never can be, National Socialists. They are constitutionally incapable of devoting themselves to a selfless ideal. To them the Party is a means of gratifying their egos or temporarily remedying some inner deficiency. When it serves this purpose, they enthusiastically support it. But when, for some reason, the Party fails to serve this purpose and shows up their basic weakness, they turn on it just as enthusiastically as they formerly supported it.

Every Party Member will sooner or later observe this unfortunate phenomenon on the part of one or another of these character cripples. The wise Party Member will recognize such behavior for what it is and remain unmoved in his devotion to the Cause and his obedience to the Party.

As long as the great majority of Party members are true National Socialists, with an unconditional commitment to the Leadership Principle, the Party will maintain its unity of purpose, expressed through the National Leader, Matt Koehl; and the words and actions of a dissident splinter group now and then will not have any permanent effect upon the course of the Party toward its goals.
