MEIN KAMPF, I:10

A New Year--A New Challenge

During the past year the Party has made a number of substantial gains--gains which were achieved despite attempts by enemies within and without the Movement to undermine our efforts.

Perhaps the most significant achievement was the recruiting of virtually all the key staff personnel needed to fulfill the vital functions of the Party, the full effects of which will be felt in the coming year.

Second, the Party was able to increase substantially the volume of its spoken propaganda--particularly with public rallies, radio and television appearances, and local Party addresses--a form of activity which will be expanded considerably in the coming months as the Party trains an army of speakers for the mass-action phase.

Third, the Party has firmly and decisively rejected an attempt by certain elements to 'de-Rockwellize' the Party and deny the true significance of this greatest Hero of our Movement, and generally turn the Party into an intellectual plaything not resting squarely on National Socialist principles.

Of course, there were many other accomplishments too numerous to mention here. But from the standpoint of overall effect, those mentioned above were undoubtedly the most important.

In looking back over the past 12 months, I especially want to commend all those who stood solidly behind the Party not only during our successes, but also during the difficult times. You have been the bulwark of this Movement's inner strength. Without you my leadership could not be effective, and I am deeply grateful.

We now enter a new year which stands before us as a new challenge. At this time I want to extend to every National Socialist comrade my personal best wishes for every success in the coming 12 months. With greater dedication, determination and resolution, I know that we will be making some real progress toward that great revolutionary Victory which is our goal.

Christmas Cards

The National Headquarters staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who sent in greeting cards during the Yuletide season, especially those pledging their continued loyalty and support. In this spirit, let us all continue the fight with fiercer intensity in the knowledge that through our common activism, faith and loyalty we will--as the Leader has said--"overcome the existing order and emerge victorious!"

Right-wing Reactionaries Pose No Threat

Commander Koehl is always receiving letters telling him how to run the Party and best carry on the fight. "Change your name and symbol," say some. "Give your Party a 'face-lifting'," say others.

If these people would stop reading their own literature long enough to face the truth, it would be obvious even to the most thick-headed among them that the Race-mixing Treason System under which we live considers them no threat at all! That ONLY a revolutionary White peoples' movement gives them cause for concern was revealed in a recent article on Army civilian spying in the Washington Post:

Ex-Sergeant Tells of Widespread Surveillance

Army 'Radical Desk' - Strange, Scary

ARMY, From A1

The latter, according to Stein, detailed "political activities and affiliations of individuals and their thoughts and travels."

The former sergeant says he was supposed to collect information on suspected radical individuals and organizations before the newspapers did. He recalls being exhorted by superiors, "Beat the AP, the UPI." His regular work, he said, included briefing generals on the activities of those listed on the index cards and dossiers. On one occasion, he

The "rightwing desk" was chiefly concerned with activities of the Virginia-based National Socialist White Peoples Party, according to Stein.

Stein says the only elected official he recalls on his lists was Julian Bond, a black member of the Georgia Legislature, but other public officials, he said, would figure in the files if they spoke at meetings organized by radicals or antiwar liberals.

The three desk officers pooled information in a spirit of competitive camaraderie. But Stein also remembers worried debates about the implications of Those under surveillance, he says, ranged from known Communists like Gus Hall to antiwar liberals Dr. Benjamin Spock and Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin and to entertainers Jane Fonda, Joan Baez and Arlo Guthrie. Also on his lists were Army Brig. Gen. Hugh Hester (ret.), a critic of militarism, and Rear Adm. Arnold E. True (ret.), now a professor of meteorology at San Jose State College, an opponent of the Vietnam war.

Stein asserts that the "racial desk" kept track of everyone from moderates such as Roy Wilkins, director of the NAACP, to black

"At the time I had no idea what could be done with computers—I now know, and it frightens me to death. There is no computer that cannot be broken into by electronic means. People can tap computerized data banks, you won't even be aware of it."

"And here we were putting into data banks unverified reports on the political and sexual lives of thousands of Americans. I hate to use the term 1984, which sounds hackneyed, but the potential of computers makes 1984 read like a fairy tale."

According to Stein, "practically none of the information" collected by the 116th

White Power Message in Florida

A new White Power Message went into operation on 4 January in the north-central Florida community of Gainesville, the site of Florida University. The new unit will serve an area of 100,000 people, including 20,000 college students.

Local National Socialists deserve congratulations for their initiative in installing the WPM unit. All Party comrades interested in calling the Gainesville WPM should dial: (904) 376-0342.

White Parents Fight School Mixing

Two courageous parents from Jacksonville, Fla., are fighting to keep their children out of integrated schools. Ralph Forbes, former leader of the Party's Los Angeles unit, and his wife Karen recently filed a motion-to-dismiss in a case pressed by the State of Florida ordering them to send their children to integrated Duval County schools. Included in the motion are 16 pages of solid arguments and statistics including proof that the Forbes children have learned more from their parents than they have at the schools placing them far above the average Duval County student.

Mr. Forbes writes:

"They threaten to take our kids because we refuse to send them to a school with even one nigger. We are in Circuit and Federal District Courts also. You know I can hit them hard in the courts!

"When we win we'll also win the rights for thousands of innocent White kids if their parents have the guts to assert them."

Vigil for Rudolf Hess

An around-the-clock vigil was held for Rudolf Hess 22, 23 and 24 December in Lafayette Park directly across from the White House. Over all response was very favorable, and some passers-by requested additional leaflets for friends and relatives.

Although participants stood through sub-freezing weather, rain, and sleet to dramatize the plight of this living martyr, not one word was mentioned even in area newspapers! But on Christmas Eve, as the final hours allowed for the vigil passed, an integrated herd of Quakers stood a short evening peace vigil across from the National Socialists. Needless to say, this token pacifist gesture received national news coverage!
