

The logo consists of the letters "NS" in a white, stylized, serif font, centered within a solid red square.

BULLETIN

OFFICIAL INTERNAL ORGAN OF THE
National Socialist White Peoples Party AND THE National Socialist Youth Movement

No. 78

15 January 1971 YF-82

"... So-called liberal Jewry rejected the Zionists not as non-Jews, but as Jews who were impractical, perhaps dangerous in their public adherence to Judaism. It made no difference to the inner fact of their oneness."

MEIN KAMPF, I:2

Commander Appears on Radio, TV

A record number of radio, television and college invitations have been pouring into National Headquarters lately. On 15 January, Commander Koehl appeared on the Alan Douglas Show on WKYC radio in Cleveland. During the two-hour long interview from 10 to 12 midnight, he spoke at length on the Party's White Power program.

The Commander declared that Jewry was leading an organized attack on the White race and that Blacks were being used as a battering ram to destroy Western civilization. He also showed how the Jews control the so-called New Left, and exposed Jewish influence in the mass media, government and the economy.

The program was re-broadcast in 40 states and over a million people were reached. The response to the Commander's appearance has been tremendous.

On the 17th, the Commander appeared on KDKA-TV in Pittsburgh for a news interview. In it, he described his fact-finding trip to the area to study the effects of unemployment on White families. The Commander's interview reaped unexpected benefits for a local NSYM organizer who submitted the following report:

"When I got back to school Monday, my Social Studies teacher called me over and said that several persons in his first period class had seen the TV interview, and that they wanted to hear more about the Party. When he told them that I was with the NSWPP, they carried on until he said it was OK for me to speak to them."

The Commander also held meetings with members and supporters while in the Pittsburgh and Cleveland areas.

Latest Issue of "White Power" Now Out!

Issue No. 14 of White Power has now been mailed out to all members and subscribers and they should be receiving their copies shortly, according to Party Mailings Manager Donald Parsons.

This latest issue focuses on a very important issue: U.S. involvement on behalf of the Jews in the Middle East. This is a powerful issue for National Socialists, one which should be pressed by all adherents to the millions of White youth around the country connected with the so-called "peace" movement. Here, more than anywhere else, their Jewish leaders can be exposed as the frauds they are.

Also included in the new issue are articles about National Socialist activity in Australia as well as the increased pace of Party activism in America.

Apart from the facts and information members and supporters get from White Power, they can earn extra money and make new contacts selling the Party newspaper. Trooper Dan Stewart from our Los Angeles unit reports:

"... Have sold 488 newspapers on the last eleven weekdays, which comes to an average of 45 newspapers a day."

Trooper Bill Gould, also from L. A. Headquarters, submitted the following report:

"My paper sales vary from day to day. The most I have sold is 50, and the least is 21. I am getting a lot of support from people who buy the newspaper and many have said they will come to our meetings."

Buy a bulk supply of White Power today! Rates are as follows:

10 copies	...	$1.50
100 copies	...	$10
500 copies	...	$35*
1; 000 copies	...	$50*

(* Shipping charges collect)

Bill Gould

National Organizer Appears on Local Radio

William Kirstein, the Party's National Organizer, appeared on "Plain Talk" on WAMU radio, the broadcast station of American University in Washington, D. C. Other participants included a Jew from the National Student Association, the area vice-president of the NAACP and the leader of a local American Indian organization.

From the outset, Mr. Kirstein was able to dominate most of the show. With the topic being "racism," he immediately rejected the term, pointing out that National Socialists believe in "racial idealism." He also attacked the Black bigwig by pointing out that the NAACP has always been dominated by Jews and therefore is irrelevant to real Black interests.

The program was originally slated for 2 February at 8:30 p.m., but because it was so 'lively,' it was extended another hour and will be heard again at the same time on 9 February as well!

WYA Defies Harassment by Baton Rouge Authorities

While leftist organizations at Louisiana State University regularly bring non-student participants on campus with no trouble from school or city authorities, the White Youth Alliance hasn't gotten such 'consideration.'

Earlier this month, the WYA had a literature table set up on campus, manned by students and non-students alike. When WYA co-ordinator Dave Duke left the scene with a number of students to participate in "Free Speech Alley," an open air campus forum for students, he left an area official supporter alone at the table. It was only a matter of minutes before authorities moved in and arrested him for "vagrancy" and "criminal mischief!"

He was transported to the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's office where he was booked, mugged, fingerprinted and interned in a cell. Only after a run-around between school, city and county authorities, were WYA members finally able to locate him and get him released on $500 bond!

Meanwhile, an old Jew who tried to attack Duke while he spoke at the "Alley" was neither arrested nor jailed.

Young persons interested in joining the WYA should write to: Box 17006, LSU--Baton Rouge, La. 70803. The WYA is not to be confused with a group called the National Youth Alliance (NYA).

NS Publications to Be Expanded

NS Publications will soon be offering a host of new books and other materials. A special listing of new titles will be sent out to all members and supporters within the next few weeks.

The expansion of NS Publications materials is designed to make available to every National Socialist a wider range of facts and information with which to present the NS position more effectively.

Midwest Newspapers Run Story on Party

A chain of newspapers in Missouri and Illinois have been carrying the enclosed story on the Party. Except for a bit of ridiculous speculation on the size of our organization, the article is quite accurate and straight.

Membership Cards

All official supporters in good standing will be receiving their cards with this mailing. For those who are behind on their dues or monthly pledge, now is the time to catch up and re-establish your good standing!

Members in good standing who have submitted passport-type photos of themselves are being issued new membership cards (good till 31 December 1972) at this time. Those members who do not get their cards are urged to get squared away on their photos and/or dues immediately.

COMING EVENTS

April 17-18 weekend: There will be a celebration in Northern Virginia commemorating the 82nd birthday of the Fuehrer.

May 8 and/or 9: A demonstration will be held in Washington, D. C. to mark the 30th year Rudolf Hess has spent in Spandau Prison.

Labor Day weekend (Sept. 4, 5 and 6): The third annual North American Congress of the World Union of National Socialists will take place in Arlington.

We invite as many NS Comrades as possible to make plans now to be on hand for these events. Further details will be given in the coming weeks.

New Nazi Leader Revives U.S. Party On White Racism

(The writer is a master's degree candidate in the University School of Journalism's Washington Reporting Program.)

By BOB WILSON

ARLINGTON, Va. — America's home-grown Nazi movement plunged into confusion by the assassination of George Lincoln Rockwell in 1967, is being revived by a new leader bent on a "white man's revolution" by the end of the decade.

Trim and dapper, his brown military-style shirt festooned with brass swastikas, Matthias (Matt) Koehl has survived fighting to emerge as unquestioned leader of the National Socialist White People's Party — the old American Nazi Party dressed in a new name.

Rockwell and Adolf Hitler may be the vanquished knights of national socialism, but it is Koehl who now issues the final word from the party's cramped, two-story headquarters just off a main street in Arlington.

Thus, to reallocate funds and resources for a cautious expansion program, Koehl has closed the party's local bookstore, located in a shabby shopping center next to an X-rated theater; discontinued selling "Negro control equipment" through NS Arms Inc.; stopped publication of the slick "National Socialist World" quarterly; and now handles requests for Nazi literature through his office, instead of a Dallas address.

GONE IN ONE of a series of purges is party theoretician Dr. William L. Pierce, who found revolution more fulfilling than physics at Oregon State University.

"He got too big for his britches," Koehl told this reporter recently, referring to an apparent attempt by Pierce to overthrow him last July.

Koehl's slap has been felt by others who challenged his way of doing things. Among them:

- White supremacist Charles White, thrown out after a "council of succession" picked Koehl, a one-time construction worker and national party secretary, to succeed Rockwell. White retreated to Ashville, N.C., and formed the National White People's Party.

- Karl Allen, another white supremacist, who moved to neighboring Alexandria with a band of fellow dissidents. They founded the White Party of America, virtually absorbed by the Wallace movement in 1968.

- Frank Collin, ousted last June, when Koehl learned that the young Midwestern Nazi's father is Jewish. Collin later organized the National Socialist Party of America.

"It is important to remember," Koehl emphasized in a crisp voice, "that the National Socialist movement never split. There is only one true movement, and I am the leader of it."

Following Rockwell's practice, Koehl won't reveal the membership of the party, or that of such ancillary groups as the National Socialist Youth Movement, the National Socialist Liberation Front, the White Servicemen's League and his Stormtroopers.

IT IS BELIEVED that party membership dipped to about 16, down from 24 to 36 after Rockwell was shot by former Nazi John Patler on Aug. 25, 1967. (Patler's 20-year prison term was upheld recently by the Virginia Supreme Court.)

It is known, however, that 121 persons attended the second annual Congress of North American Socialists last September in Arlington. The meeting drew participants from as far away as British Columbia.

Predictably, Koehl maintains that membership in the U.S. is growing, and the recent openings of a branch headquarters in Los Angeles and a bookstore in Cleveland appear to substantiate this.

LIKE WASHINGTON, both areas are serviced by "white power" telephone message units, one of the party's favorite — and Koehl says most effective — ways to spread racial hate in cities where violence has occurred or is a possibility.

These short, vitriolic blasts directed against blacks and Jews are part of Rockwell's "four phases" of seizing power, a game plan which Koehl has adopted as his own.

The first phase called for publicity, good or bad; phase two (the present stage), building a revolutionary "hard core"; phase three, a grassroots movement toward national socialism; and phase four, the actual taking of power.

But the timetable has been set back.

"The party suffered a powerful loss in Rockwell," Koehl said. "His was a powerful image. He had a good chance of taking over by election day, 1972, as he predicted. Now, we have adjusted that date back to the end of the decade, when conditions in this country will be right for us."

IN THE MEANTIME, Koehl and his followers are engaged in a campaign to get one of the few surviving Nazi bigwigs, Rudolf Hess, out of Berlin's Spandau Prison. They had out "Free Rudolf Hess" bumper stickers, refer to him as the "Prisoner of Peace" and occasionally picket the White House on his behalf.

That few people take this sort of thing seriously doesn't seem to bother Koehl.

"They will. Nobody paid much attention to Rockwell when he predicted a race war. Now, look around you."

Race is central to national socialist theory as practiced by Koehl, his brown shirt followers, the party organ "White Power" and its internal counterpart, "NS Bulletin."

Brazenly defying threats, Koehl sends stormtroopers and higher-ranking stalwarts such as pistol-toting William Kirstein into racially-tense areas of metropolitan Washington to hold rallies extolling white supremacy.

MORE OFTEN than not, the rallies are heavily attended by police and reporters expecting trouble.

Kirstein calls for a "racially aware new generation" to put an end to integrated schools and "stand up to the Supreme Court." In addition, he hurls pithy, profane slogans at blacks. Sometimes the result is an embarrassing backfire. "Niggers!" shouted Kirstein at a November rally in Alexandria called to protest "black terrorism" in the city's schools.

A crowd of about 100, mostly black students, gathered around him.

"Hey, hey, we got more soul!" they chanted.

"Niggers!" Kirstein shouted again.

"Let's hear it for the Jews," the young man shouted again. Another cheer — and still another one when Kirstein yelled over his bullhorn that police had earlier roughed up two stormtroopers.

THEN CAME the final blow.

"One day, man," a young black shouted at Kirstein as other Nazis rolled up a party banner to leave, "you and I will sit down like brothers to a big bowl of chitlin's and pigs feet."

Don't count on it, Koehl says.

After the "revolution," he proposes to send all U.S. blacks back to Africa and deal with the Jews only slightly less harshly than Hitler did.

"We can't continue to let the race problem drag out," he said. "The two races can't live peacefully on the same continent. As for the Jews, they are a bit of a different problem . . . we don't care what they do, so long as they leave us alone."

Then came the kicker: "Of course, those who have committed crimes against white people will be gassed."

KOEHL PONDER'S these schemes in a small, red-carpeted office furnished with a worn couch, a desk, a swastika banner and a panoramic photo of the 1934 Nazi rally in Nuremberg.

A few miles east is the White House, his ultimate target, and with it a panoply of power unknown to Hitler's most megalomaniac dreams.

Don't worry, he assures those who listen to him; his revolution won't mean the end of the United States and its federalist system. There'll simply be more authority in government, greater centralization, more emphasis on law and order.

"Why, when you think about it," he said, enthusiastically, "national socialism is as American as apple pie."