OFFICIAL INTERNAL ORGAN OF THE
National Socialist White Peoples Party AND THE National Socialist Youth Movement

No. 82

15 March 1971 YF-82

"As a matter of principle the movement must so educate its members that they do not regard the struggle as something idly cooked up, but as that which they themselves are striving for. Therefore, they must not fear the hostility of their enemies, but must feel that it is the presupposition for their own right to exist. They must not shun the hatred of the enemies of our race and our world-view and its manifestations; they must long for them. And among the manifestations of this hatred are lies and slander."

Cleveland Bookstore Reopened

Undaunted by a court-ordered eviction from their first bookstore, Casey Kalembe and other Cleveland-area National Socialists, promptly went to work looking for a new place. Their untiring efforts were rewarded and they found another site just across the block and down the street from the first store.

The new address is 10012 Lorain Avenue. Its hours are from noon to 6 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Cleveland Press ran the following story soon after the doors of the new building opened:

Nazi book store has Brown Shirts, "white power," few books

NEW PLACE — The Nazis, however, have relocated across the street at 10012 Lorain.

By MARY SWINDELL

The block between W. 99th St. and Denison Ave. on Lorain Ave. has a strong right-wing flavor about it, due no doubt to a Nazi book store, a former Nazi book store, and George Wallace's campaign headquarters.

The Nazi book store is at 10012 Lorain, across the street from the former one which was at 9905 Lorain. The former book store is vandalized and boarded-up, but gives a clue to its former identity by large sign over the door that says, "N-S Book Store."

When I visited the new book store I found the door somewhat difficult to open, but I gave it a good push, it opened and a couple of rolled-up newspapers dropped to the floor.

A MAN in a brown shirt who had been typing behind an old desk, stepped out and greeted me effusively.

"Come right in, come on in," he boomed. "Sorry about the door. It doesn't shut unless we jam papers into it."

The new book store was small, dark and somewhat dingy. It wasn't much of a book store, either, with only a few desultory paperback, a rack full of pamphlets and the newspaper, "White Power."

Brown Shirt apologized for the scanty selection of books. "We just been open a few days. In a couple weeks, we'll have a big variety of books and papers here. We're just getting started. We got shut out of our other store."

I ALLUDED to the one across the street. "Yeah, after the landlord found out who we were he chased us out," said Brown Shirt.

Brown Shirt's uniform was completed by a black tie with a swastika tieclip and black pants. If it hadn't been for the tie clip, he would have looked like a truck driver.

I explained that I hadn't much money with me to spend on books.

Nevertheless, Brown Shirt didn't want me to go away empty handed, so he pressed upon me several copies of "White Power." The thing that impressed me most about "White Power" is that it seems to have taken up, in terms of gory pictures, where the National Enquirer has left off.

BUT I could spare a quarter, so I purchased a pamphlet called "To Aryan Youth," which is a translation of an address delivered in 1935 by Dr. Walter Gross, a German professor.

It is about race and blood, and how the Aryan boys and girls shouldn't have anything to do with "liberal bourgeois thinking."

Brown Shirt was telling me his theories on race mixture when two men walked in, greeted my host and sat down around Brown Shirt's desk. They reminded me of three characters gathered around the pickle barrel in a country store.

Brown Shirt continued to lecture me. "It was the white man who made this country great, and the black man is trying to tear it down."

"THE ARYANS are builders. The white race must stick together so that the Jewish-Communist conspiracy doesn't tear everything apart. Only Aryans can belong to the Nationalist Socialist White People's Party," he said.

"What exactly is an Aryan?" I asked.

"An Aryan is any white, non-Jewish person," said Brown Shirt.

"Really? I thought you had to be German," I said, recalling that the Third Reich disdained other Europeans.

"No! No!" I had obviously struck a nerve. "I'm Polish, he's Ukrainian, and he's Methodist!"

Further, despite the efforts of one defector to stop the White Power Message in Cleveland, it is back on the air stronger than ever. Since its reinstallation, a wave of controversy caused some attempted legal action on the part of the Ohio Bell Company.

The number of the Cleveland-area WPM is (216) 631-6448.

Commander Addresses Baltimore Gathering

On the evening of 6 March, Commander Koehl made a stirring call to action at an organizational meeting of National Socialists in Baltimore. He showed how activism is the key to success in winning the hearts and minds of our people during the revolutionary struggle in the months and years to come. He explained that only the Aryan Cross inspires in our people a spirit "stronger than 1,000 atom bombs--a spirit that is the essence of Aryan man himself!" He then strongly urged all present to help in the effort to establish a local unit. A spontaneous standing ovation followed his presentation.

Other National Headquarters speakers included Richard Saunders and William Kirstein. Mr. Kirstein spoke on Party activity around the country, including the recent cross-country trip he and the Commander took. He showed how only through standing squarely on National Socialist principles can we build a revolutionary White man's movement imbued with the spirit of victory so necessary to establish White power in America and throughout the world.

Mr. Saunders spoke of the relationship between National Socialism and ecology, showing how our philosophy advocated respect for, and a harmonious relationship with the environment.

While speaking of recent successes in door-to-door newspaper sales, the chairman of the meeting invited new people to join with him and other activists in working in White neighborhoods. He said that this form of activity, while most difficult in terms of effort and time spent, was most important in laying the groundwork for establishing a White Power Message and, eventually, a bookstore.

One individual at the meeting told of his former affiliation with several right-wing groups. He delivered a dramatic testimony to his faith and dedication to the Party when he addressed himself to those he recognized from other organizations:

"Those of you who know me know of the nearly 15 years I've spent fighting in various conservative organizations, and yet I say to you that all of those years were wasted! Nobody respects you when you say you're something you're not. My Official Supporter card in the NSWPP means more to me than membership in all the other groups and all the offices I've held in them and all the years I spent with those bunches of cowardly phonies!"

The mailing address of the Baltimore unit is: Box 7885, zip 21221.

A Boat Ticket for Dick Gregory

NS Comrade John Sedlak recently shook up a treason meeting held at a local high school. Jane Fonda, 'sex symbol' turned race-traitor and Dick Gregory, erstwhile coon comedian and revolutionary were speaking at a fund-raising drive for harassment of our soldiers in Vietnam. Sedlak's report follows.

"Standing at the entrance of the parking lot, I passed out over 300 pieces of literature as the cars pulled in. Later, I went inside and stood in the wings while the treasonous affair went on in the auditorium. I then put on my Swastika armband. Jane Fonda was at the other end of the hall and I was about to ask her why she did not seem concerned about Israeli war crimes. Jews, niggers and hippies gave me nasty looks as I stood there. Then Dick Gregory stepped out into the hall, and I handed him a boat ticket to Africa! He looked at it, laughed and said he'd go back. 'I KNOW you will,' I replied!"

L. A. Leader Shakes Nixon's Old Alma Mater

Lt. Joe Tommasi, Los Angeles Leader, recently shook the little town of Yorba Linda when he appeared on one of their high school campuses with Trooper Bill Gould ... in full uniform! NSYM member Tom Bedore sent the following report:

"About two weeks ago I managed to get Lt. Tommasi on our campus to speak to an American History class, and to make a public speech which all students could attend. When the Lieutenant and Trooper Gould arrived in the morning, the teacher got more than he had bargained for--they were in full-dress uniform! As he walked into the class, people from all over started pushing to get in. About 75 were packed into the room with at least 100 outside. During the talk, an obnoxious Jew asked Lt. Tommasi if he thought Jews were a race and to pick out all the Jews in the room. The Lieutenant pointed his finger at him and exposed him to the students as one of 'God's Chosen', and then picked out several other repulsive creatures. During further questions and answers, the teacher stood up and screamed that it was all over, but Trooper Gould rushed up and placed several hundred copies of White Power and The Racialist on a desk, and within minutes they were gone. The teacher hustled the Lieutenant and Trooper Gould out the back door of the building and out to their car. All the rest of the day the school was talking about nothing else."

On Campus ...

Pittsburgh

NSYM Organizer Suspended!

Robert Evans, a student at East Allegheny High in Pittsburgh, was last month LOCKED in a classroom by the administration to prevent his spreading of the National Socialist doctrine, and then finally suspended for holding an ad hoc White Power meeting in the school library. A portion of his recent report on "Operation Spearhead" (to be reprinted and issued to all NSYM members) reads as follows:

"Since the inauguration of Operation Spearhead less than two weeks ago, tremendous progress toward its final goal, the establishment of a unit of the Movement on at least 10 high school campuses by June, has been made. This is especially true of East Allegheny, and Hampton high schools. Slow, but even progress is being made at Sierra, and we expect excellent results from our drive at Perry, McKeesport, Peabody and Oliver high schools.

"Needless to say, these developments represent an unqualified VICTORY for National Socialism in this area. Operation Spearhead has gotten off to a fabulous start and is steaming ahead at top speed. This promises to be the first in a long series of successes which we hope to continue to produce-- with unshakable faith in the victory of our mighty Idea, unswerving dedication to Adolf Hitler's teachings, and unbending loyalty to Commander Koehl!"

Meanwhile, a number of Party meetings and youth rallies have been organized in the Pittsburgh area next month. The ACLU is working to get Mr. Evans' suspension revoked!

Utica, N. Y.

Utica Free Academy was recently rocked with race war, a result of continued forced integration of classes and social activities. In response to the Black terrorism, Joseph Brown and other young activists flooded the campus with "Uptight About School" and "Had Enough Whitey?" leaflets. Naturally the Blacks went on the rampage at this first sign of National Socialist activity, but this has only served to strengthen the spirits of organized White resistance. Mr. Brown reports a very good response from the students and the White community as well.

St. Paul, Minnesota

Gregory Mapes, an NS activist from St. Paul reports on the results of a speech he gave before a high school:

"On 4 February I spoke to a group of fellow White students and some Blacks at the request of my English instructor. Having recently received the 'Smash the No-Win System' leaflet, I decided it would make an excellent topic for this occasion. Upon completing the speech, I opened the floor for discussion, but no one could find a point to be argued! Even the Blacks, who are the most critical opposition I face, could only agree with the point I brought out."

Detroit

The following report from NSYM member Steven Kovacs includes a project other Party comrades in high school or college might take up:

"During February, I continued my campaign in school. I've continued to place stickers on my campus and pass out leaflets to potential supporters and friends in general. I also made a chart illustrating the Jewish power structure in my school. This chart illustrates that every department head in the various teaching categories is a Jew! Such names as Gornbein, Rosenberg, Ruben, Golden and Adler head the list. I feel that every supporter or NSYM member in high school or college should make a similar chart for their school to be used to illustrate the Jews' power in education. I'm sure that Jews will top their lists."

Vancouverites Appear on Radio

Three Vancouver National Socialists recently appeared on the "Open Line" program on radio station CKWX. George Magas, James Friesen and Stewart Barden spoke and answered questions about the National Socialist program for an hour and a half.
