Stormtroops Battle Reds During D. C. Disorders

During the week of 3 - 7 May, the Party engaged in a number of important demonstrations, proving once again that it is the only political organization actually fighting Red treason.

On 2 May, two teams of Stormtroopers from National Headquarters marched into Georgetown as thousands of Mayday scum attempted to block public access to the nation's capital. Led by Commander Koehl and outfitted in special crash helmets, the troopers marched through the worst areas of trouble in the midst of tear gas and fleeing cruds.

In one action, a large group of Reds stood in shock as Team Leader Richard Biederman burned a large Viet Cong flag in front of their eyes. He was arrested by a Black cop, but was later released by a White police officer when it was learned that Biederman was to be thrown into a jail cell with a mob of hysterical, hopped-up leftists.

Meanwhile, Commander Koehl and a team of ST men bearing American flags marched deep into enemy territory where broken boards, trash, smashed garbage cans and metal storage lockers still littered the streets. Defying threats and ignoring obscenities from mobs of creeps, the troops marched through town cleaning up on cruds left behind by police.

Commander Disrupts Red Rally, Rips Down VC Flag

On 5 May, Commander Koehl singlehandedly disrupted Red 'peace' activities in two separate areas of Washington, D. C. At noontime, a Red front group, the "Federal Employees for Peace", was holding a rally in Lafayette Park, directly across from the White House, urging a sell-out to the Communists in Indo-China.

As soon as a vile Jewess had finished her harangue before the crowd of nearly 1,000, Commander Koehl coolly walked up to the platform where the chairman--expecting another kosher speaker--politely asked him, "Excuse me, are you Mr. Mayer?" "No!" came the Commander's reply, "I'm Matt Koehl of the National Socialist White People's Party" whereupon the Commander removed a light coat, revealing his NS armband!

During his brief speech--it took them that long to recover!--he told an aghast audience that nobody wants the war in Indo-China, but "there is a right way, and a treasonous way of ending the war. What I object to in these so-called 'peace' demonstrations is that they are being led by Jews and Communists!" The Commander's bold action received excellent coverage in the local press as well as on two television outlets.

Later the same afternoon, Commander Koehl tore down a Viet Cong flag during a Red march on U.S. Capitol grounds. He was charged with disorderly conduct and released on $10 collateral.

National Socialists Expose Kosher Conservative Phony

On 8 May--after all the Reds had left town and it was safe again--Carl McIntire led a shuffling herd of well-meaning reactionaries in a so-called "March for Victory" in Washington. Five teams of ST men stood in silent vigil to expose this phony anti-Communist as hundreds of conservatives shuffled past banners bearing the slogans, "Drop Nixon on Hanoi", "Nixon is a No-Win Swine", "Flush the No-Win System" and "Flush Tricky Dick--Vietnam--Israel". Many passers-by were pleased to see our men, and a number indicated interest in joining the Party.

Later, Stormtroops in plain clothes with militant anti-Communist signs circulated among marchers during their rally on the Washington Monument grounds, but were arrested as McIntire's orders to muzzle any effective anti-Red expression were carried out by D.C. Park police.

As a result, the whole demonstration degenerated into a big circus featuring peanuts, popcorn and plenty of cowardly, ineffectual 'hoo-rah patriotism' that the Jews approve of.

Rally on Behalf of Rudolf Hess Draws National Attention

On 9 May the Party held a rally in Lafayette Park across from the White House to demand the release of Rudolf Hess on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of his heroic peace mission to Britain during World War II and his subsequent imprisonment.

Seven teams of NS Stormtroopers marched across the Potomac from Arlington into Red-infested Georgetown. They carried picket signs reading "Free Rudolf Hess", "Was Peace a Crime in World War II?", "End 30 Years of Injustice" and "No More Jewish Wars". As the Stormtroopers marched down Pennsylvania Avenue en route to the rally site, they could be heard by Nixon inside the White House as they chanted "We want White Power!"

In his keynote address, the Commander noted that had Hess succeeded in his mission, almost a half a million American --as well as 60 million other--lives would have been saved, and we wouldn't have sacrificed our finest manhood to make the world safe for Jews and Communists. The Commander explained that prewar National Socialist foreign policy took the position that the major world powers--the U.S., Britain, Germany and Japan--bore a special responsibility to provide a bulwark of peace and order against the forces of chaos and Communism. Because we ignored this reasonable policy and sought war instead of peace, we reaped all the disastrous and chaotic conditions of the modern world.

Describing the atrocities committed by the Allied powers, the Commander exposed the double standard and hypocrisy of the Nuremberg kangaroo trials. He said it was ironic that instead of getting a Nobel Peace Prize, Hess was convicted of "crimes against peace". He declared that the United States bore a moral responsibility for Hess' continuing captivity, because it had the power to release him when its turn came to guard him at Spandau.

As the Commander was concluding his remarks, a Jew heckler suggested that he be locked up and Hess released. The Commander replied to the kosher punk that he would be honored to take Hess' place anytime in Spandau if that's what it took to release this comrade!

In his speech, Dan Dexter asked why Nixon goes free in pursuing the Vietnam war while Rudolf Hess must spend 30 years in prison--longer than any other political prisoner in recent times--for pursuing peace and an end to the unparalleled holocaust of the Second World War. Richard Saunders enlarged upon this point by explaining other lies the System has perpetuated about National Socialism. He explained that Nixon has lied to the people time and again and is continuing to serve alien racial interests, and, like Pinnochio, "his nose is getting longer and longer" and that only a National Socialist new order imbued with the spirit of idealism and sacrifice as exemplified by Rudolf Hess can save our race. Richard Biederman in his speech showed how the vicious precedents established at Nuremberg to convict such men as Hess were now being used against American servicemen--such as William Calley--carrying out their duty in the Vietnam war.

At the conclusion of the rally, the troopers reformed into a double column and marched back through Washington and over to Northern Virginia. As usual, the Red opposition proved to be almost no factor, when confronted with tough, uniformed Stormtroopers!

The demonstration netted national publicity for the Party as the wire services picked up the story.

White Power Message in Seattle

Seattle is the latest city to have a White Power Message. The Party installed a unit there last week. According to Local Organizer Roy Armstrong, the purchase of two more message devices is anticipated for the very near future, and distribution of over 5,000 cards with the phone number has been planned.

The number for the Seattle WPM is: (206) 622-0623.

Appeal Response Lagging

As of this date, the response to Commander Koehl's recent appeal is way below our goal of $2,500. Only 31%--or $775--has been raised so far. This means that to fulfill our quota, another $1,725 is needed.

Some people have already done their part--many of these have come through in a really magnificent and sacrificing way. But too many individuals have ignored their responsibility here and left it up to others to pull their weight and do their share.

This, of course, is not satisfactory. Unless the party is able to raise the needed sum, there is no way around the fact--as the Commander has already pointed out--that the Party will have to curtail its operations. We don't want to have to do this. We want to go forward and make strides this summer. That's why it's so important that you do all you can to make this drive a success.

A dedicated NS student from Columbia, Mo., tells how he managed to save enough money to help out:

"As a student, my funds are quite limited. But I have figured out a way to obtain the extra money. I shall boycott all the Jew-ridden movies that I usually see. I believe that if all National Socialists would sacrifice and double their pledge, no matter how small, the Party could expand and grow to new heights."

That's the spirit it takes to win a new world for our race! Let's hear from you right away, if you have not already had a chance to respond.

Instant White Power Rally at Detroit-Area College

John Sedlak of Harpers Woods, Michigan, sent in the following report which shows what can be done with a little imagination and initiative and answers the question: "What can I do for the Movement?"

"Last Friday, while discussing National Socialism with some hippies in the student lounge at Macomb County Community College, I put my armband on. As I spoke, a crowd began to develop. Soon, it was standing room only as over 100 students listened to the "debate." I did most of the speaking and the lively affair lasted for nearly an hour. During the course of the event, I received an invitation to speak before a political science class."

Postal Increases Affect Party Mailings

With increased postal rates, we would like to suggest a couple of ways in which you might help to keep the Party mailing expenses down. One way is to include a stamped, self-addressed envelope in sending any pledges for which you wish an acknowledgement. (This will be required in cases of pledges under $3.)

Also, please be sure to include 10% for postage and handling on orders to NS Publications.

Your co-operation here will help considerably to ease the increased postage burden.

A Note From NS Publications

"Newspaper Control in America" by Robert Homan, a well-documented expose of the extent of Jewish control over newspaper publishing is available from NS Publications at the following prices: 1 for 25¢; 5 for $1; 30 for $5.
