"The future of a movement is conditioned by the fanaticism--yes, the intolerance--with which its supporters uphold it as the sole correct movement and promote it over other organizations of a similar kind."

MEIN KAMPF, I: 2

Fourth of July Rallies a Smashing Success

On the Fourth of July weekend, the Party held two exciting and very successful rallies in Lafayette Park across from the White House in Washington, D. C. The theme of the 3 July rally was "Washing the Jews Out of Washington."

In his remarks, Commander Koehl re-examined the nature of power in the United States. Analyzing the many fundamental issues facing White Americans--such as the cost of living, pollution, integration, crime, U.S. involvement in the Middle East, etc.--he showed that in none of these cases were Aryan interests being served. He pointed out that so-called New Left "revolutionaries" today represented nothing more than institutionalized dissent subsidized by big money and promoted by the System. "To make revolution," he said, "means to strike at the real sources of power, which today are controlled by organized Jewry and its flunkies."

The Commander went on to describe the Jewish genocide campaign against the White race. "Genocide by any other name is still genocide," he said, "and integration is genocide because it is designed to cause the White race to disappear." In concluding his address, Commander Koehl called for the elimination of Jewish control and domination over our national life, and the creation of a new order which would serve White racial interests.

Marching through Georgetown . . .

. . . the Commander spreading the word

As the Commander was concluding his remarks, one Jew threw several rocks at the platform. The rocks missed the Commander, but struck a couple of nearby troopers. Party Comrade Ralph Forbes, who had come up from Jacksonville, Fla., caught the guilty kosher creature with a powerful right hook and sent him sprawling to the ground. Forbes was arrested for 'disorderly conduct' but later released on $10 collateral.

Other speakers at the rally besides Commander Koehl included Richard Biederman, Richard Saunders, Robert Lyons and Dan Dexter, who chaired the event. Richard Biederman gave a brief history of Jewish involvement in Communist subversion and described the 85% kosher leadership of the so-called "Russian" revolution.

In his talk, Mr. Saunders compared race pollution with pollution of the environment and showed how both were part of a common ecological problem. Later, Dan Dexter elaborated on Jewish involvement in the power structure and pointed to the large number of Jews involved in government swindles and anti-White legislation.

The concluding speaker, Robert Lyons, exposed the Jewish role in opening up the sewers of race-mixing, filth and degeneracy, and turning American society into one big cesspool. He said that only a fundamental White revival could cleanse America of Jewish perversion, and wound up by describing the role of the National Socialist White People's Party in bringing about that revival.

After the rally, the day's events ended as they had begun, with an impressive ST march through the Georgetown section of Washington.

On 4 July, over 40 crack, helmeted ST men marched from Arlington over to the rally site in Washington. The theme of the Independence Day event was "Building a White America."

Hundreds of tourists gathered around the National Socialists with many of them for the first time seeing the American flag and the Aryan Cross flying side-by-side.

In his speech, Commander Koehl described the phenomenon of "bourgeois patriotism" with its trappings of peanuts, popcorn, platitudes, flag-waving and feeble stanzas of the National Anthem. "For us," the Commander explained, "patriotism means more than a big bean-feast on the Fourth of July, allegiance to the System, or paying our taxes by April 15. Our patriotism has a racial basis."

The Commander then showed that America was more than a piece of real estate, a particular form of government, or an opportunity to make a fast buck; it was above all a racial idea--a racial expression of the White man.

The Commander concluded by calling for a second American revolution--"a White man's revolution, a National Socialist revolution, a revolution which will decide once and for all the racial complexion of these United States." He added: "When we talk about patriotism, we're not referring to a revolution that took place 200 years ago. We're talking about a revolution that's going to take place in our lifetime!"

National Organizer Bill Kirstein amplified the Commander's remarks about "bourgeois patriotism" by reading a letter some used car dealer had printed in the newspaper, explaining what America meant to him. This individual was praising America's high standard of living, its Gross National Product, and the fact that this country has more cars and roads than anyone else. Mr. Kirstein then pointed out that it was precisely this materialistic, bourgeois, Junior Chamber of Commerce attitude that is destroying our country. "America to such people is nothing more than a piece of real estate to be divided up and sold," he said. He then called for a complete change in America's values from worship of money and the fast buck to respect for race and blood.

By this time, many assorted leftists and Jews were showing their usual respect for free speech by shouting and carrying on. (For some reason not known at this time, at least one individual associated with the so-called "National Youth Alliance" operation of Party defector William Pierce was with the Marxist group, yelling and screaming and trying to get it to attack the speakers' platform.)

So appropriately, the opening remarks of the next speaker, Frank Spisak of Cleveland, were "Welcome to Disneyland!"

In his speech, Spisak addressed the hecklers directly. "You're all a bunch of slaves to the Jews and their rotten System," he exclaimed. "Turn around and bow to your master," he said, referring to Nixon and the White House. "He likes what you're doing today. You think you're revolutionaries, but actually you're being led around by the nose by a bunch of capitalist Jews!" A number of fights erupted in which one ST man was injured and a number of creeps bloodied and arrested by Park police.

After the rally, the Stormtroops returned to Arlington by way of Georgetown, showing outstanding discipline and order despite a number of rock and brick attacks. As they marched back to Virginia, they left behind a tell-tale trail of bloody faces, bashed Hebrews and maced coons!

L. A. Headquarters Firebombed by Jews

Lt. Joseph Tommasi reports that on 3 July several Jews later identified as members of the JDL threw a Molotov cocktail at the Los Angeles headquarters. The fire-bomb was heaved from a speeding vehicle and fell on the front sidewalk. It was quickly extinguished, and damage was negligible.

In a recent clash with JDL members, L. A. Stormtroopers so thoroughly thrashed these "super-Jews," that they apparently thought they would get even in their typical cowardly manner.

New San Diego Unit Emphasized ACTION

San Diego has been the scene of increased National Socialist activism in recent weeks, thanks mainly to the initiative of Camp Pendleton Marine Gerald Smith. During the weekend of 6 June, a half dozen National Socialists counterpicketed a Yippie demonstration across from the local Naval Electronics Laboratory. The NS demonstration received both newspaper and television coverage.

On 13 June a meeting was held in the local VFW hall, with Los Angeles Leader Joe Tommasi the guest speaker. The reaction of the many new people was very good.

In May, Mr. Smith addressed a group of graduate social workers from San Diego State College. Discussion was mainly one-sided since most of these graduates "went blank" when the subject of White culture was broached. A White Power Message is currently being planned for the area.

Appeal Goes Over Top!

The Party has reached its goal in the special appeal which officially ended 4 July! With the final results tabulated, we show a total of $2,544.75 raised--an achievement which has tremendously increased the capabilities of the Party. Commander Koehl wishes to thank every member and supporter who pitched in to make this drive the great success it has been.

Policy on Other Groups

We often get letters from well-meaning individuals telling us what great work the Party is doing, but "wouldn't it be good if we could find some 'common ground' with other 'like-minded' organizations and 'get together'?"

Our position is this: A group is only like-minded if it is National Socialist. And it is only National Socialist if it recognizes the fundamental teachings of Adolf Hitler and Lincoln Rockwell. And if such a group does adhere to these teachings, then there is indeed some common ground for real, organic unity: they can join the Party founded by Commander Rockwell as the sole bearer of Adolf Hitler's National Socialist movement in North America.

Adolf Hitler provided us with the key to an understanding of this important subject in Mein Kampf: "The future of a movement is conditioned by the fanaticism--yes, the intolerance--with which its supporters uphold it as the sole correct movement, and promote it over other organizations of a similar kind." (I:12:xii) The Fuehrer amplifies these words in Vol. II, Chap. 8, entitled "The Strong Man Is Mightiest Alone." Anyone holding illusions that our victory lies in alliances should read and thoroughly understand this chapter!

We are not some right-wing group trying to get George Wallace on the ballot in 1972. Neither are we interested in preserving States' rights, returning to the gold standard or any other troglodyte issue. We represent an exclusively unique and revolutionary Idea that lives and burns in the hearts of fighting young idealists. And we are not ashamed to admit that for this great Idea we want absolute and total power, because we know it represents the highest Truth that governs this universe.

We have been able to accomplish great things in the past because we have not compromised our fundamental principles--from the time Lincoln Rockwell founded our Party, through mutiny after mutiny, good times and bad, and down to the present. So it will always remain!

WHERE THE ACTION IS!

1 August (Sunday): A MAMMOTH WHITE POWER RALLY is scheduled for Cleveland, Ohio. The rally will be held on the main baseball diamond at Brookside Park, on Denison Avenue off Fulton Road--in a White working area on the city's west side starting at 12 noon. Commander Koehl will head a team of Party speakers for the event, and there will also be plenty of march music boomed out over a loud P. A. system. Stormtroop contingents from Washington, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Detroit, as well as Cleveland and Akron, will converge for the event. If you live in the Midwest or Western Pennsylvania, plan now to be on hand for this exciting National Socialist event!

An indoor meeting will be held later that evening at 8:00 at the Bohemian Sokol Hall, 4937 Broadway Avenue in Cleveland.

Labor Day Weekend (4, 5 & 6 September): The third annual Congress of the National Socialist White People's Party will be held in Washington. Among the events scheduled will be a public rally in the capital plus the largest Stormtroop demonstration since 1945! Don't miss this one. Be sure to get your registration cards in now so you can be part of this great historic event. We would like to DOUBLE the attendance of this year's Congress!

Need a Ride to the Congress?

In the next few issues of the Bulletin, we will be publishing the locations of Party comrades who are offering rides to those who need them. Should you like to get in touch with any of these people for the purpose of arranging transportation, just write to National Headquarters, "Carpool." If you're not in an area mentioned, you may still be along someone's route, so bear this in mind. Meanwhile, we strongly urge all of those who will be attending to return their completed registration cards immediately!
