"The miserable army of our present-day shopkeepers will never understand (our idea). They will laugh at it or shrug their crooked shoulders and moan forth their eternal excuse: 'That would be very nice in itself, but it can't be done!' True, it can no longer be done with you, your world isn't fit for it! You know but one concern: your personal life, and one God: your money! But we are not addressing ourselves to you, we are appealing to those who are so poor that their personal life cannot mean the highest happiness in the world; to those who do not see the ruling principle of their existence in gold, but in other gods."

Adolf Hitler's Birthday Commemorated Across Nation

15 April — Members and supporters from the Seattle-Vancouver, B.C. area met in Seattle to honor the Leader's 83rd birthday. Speakers, including Mr. Robert Homan and Mr. George Magas, spoke on Adolf Hitler's life and the development of the National Socialist world-view, the origin and meaning of the Swastika and local activities for the area. After a solemn ceremony honoring National Socialist martyrs, there was a film showing of the El Monte-JDL confrontation of 30 January (see NS Bulletin number 103).

The commemoration, held in a Seattle hotel, was attended by a goodly number of area Whites.

22 April — Although day-long heavy rainfall forced cancellation of the planned rally in Washington, D.C., members and supporters from the Eastern Seaboard enjoyed an indoor celebration which included appropriate ceremony, the swearing-in of ST members, and a showing of "Triumph of the Will." Commander Matt Koehl addressed the assembly on the significance of Adolf Hitler's mission, saying that the dawn of a new age was signaled by the birth of this one man. Quoting National Socialist writer Savitri Devi, the Commander concluded that the National Socialist philosophy not only surpasses Aryan man today, but all mankind in all epochs, for it ultimately expresses the primordial wisdom of the cosmos. "It was to Adolf Hitler's glory," he continued, "to reintroduce this divine wisdom to a world on the brink of catastrophe."

22 April — Ten teams of ST from the Los Angeles headquarters interrupted a 5000-creep treason march that featured Rev. Ralph Abernathy as a speaker. The troops took and held the Reds' planned assembly area in MacArthur Park on Wilshire Blvd. Hose-nosed warriors of the "anti-Communist" Jewish Defense League teamed up with the Reds first to harass, then attack our men. They were successfully beaten back by the ST. One JDLer was severely beaten during the fight and five were later arrested by police. One ST man was also arrested. A news clipping about the incident is at the top of the next page, though it does lack accuracy.

Demonstrators renew protests

By United Press International

Antiwar demonstrators by the tens of thousands turned out for rallies in major cities and several state capitols Saturday, the sixth straight day of protests against renewed United States bombing of North Vietnam.

More than 50,000 demonstrators marched two miles in pouring rain through the heart of Manhattan, carrying umbrellas along with their picket signs. Mayor John Lindsay issued a statement saying, "I join all Americans who on April 22 will speak out for peace."

Former Beatle John Lennon and his wife Yoko Ono were among the celebrities leading the demonstrators in the Lennon song, "Give Peace a Chance."

More than 30,000 persons filed into San Francisco's Kezar Stadium to hear speeches by actress Jane Fonda, black comedian Dick Gregory and Panther leader Bobby Seale, then enjoyed free lemonade and a chance to throw darts at an image of President Nixon.

IN CHICAGO, chill winds blew as 2000 marched from the Civic Center Plaza to Grant Park. A group of 25 broke away toward the Conrad Hilton Hotel, scene of one of the worst clashes between protesters and police during the 1968 Democratic Convention, but police made them move on. One woman refused and was arrested.

Marchers moved 30 abreast along Wilshire Boulevard in Los Angeles. There was a tense moment when three dozen members of the Jewish Defense League, taking part in the march were confronted by 30 brown-shirted American Nazis. Two young men were arrested.

Vietnam Veterans Against the War bore a flag-draped casket, symbolic of all those who died in Indochina, through the rain of Washington, D.C., to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier Saturday. The veterans then laid a memorial wreath and carried the casket to the Pentagon.

About 200 protesters staged an all-night sit-in at the University of Illinois student union at Urbana before leaving for Saturday's rally in Chicago. Students at Princeton University in New Jersey ended their sit-in at the Woodrow Wilson School for Public and International Affairs at 3 a.m. after 12 hours.

RUNNING BATTLES between police and demonstrators at the University of Texas-Austin campus ended shortly before dawn with at least 15 arrests. As many as 2000 students tried to occupy the University's main building and stoned the Lyndon B. Johnson Memorial Library.

In many cities, police faced their sixth straight day of confrontation with protesters.

Police in Madison, Wis., reported that demonstrations by University of Wisconsin students and local residents since Monday already had cost $90,243 in police overtime and property damage. The police chief in Champaign, Ill., and two of his men were among the dozen injured in Friday's demonstration at the University of Illinois campus.

"Uptight" Leaflet Gets Niggers, Liberals Uptight

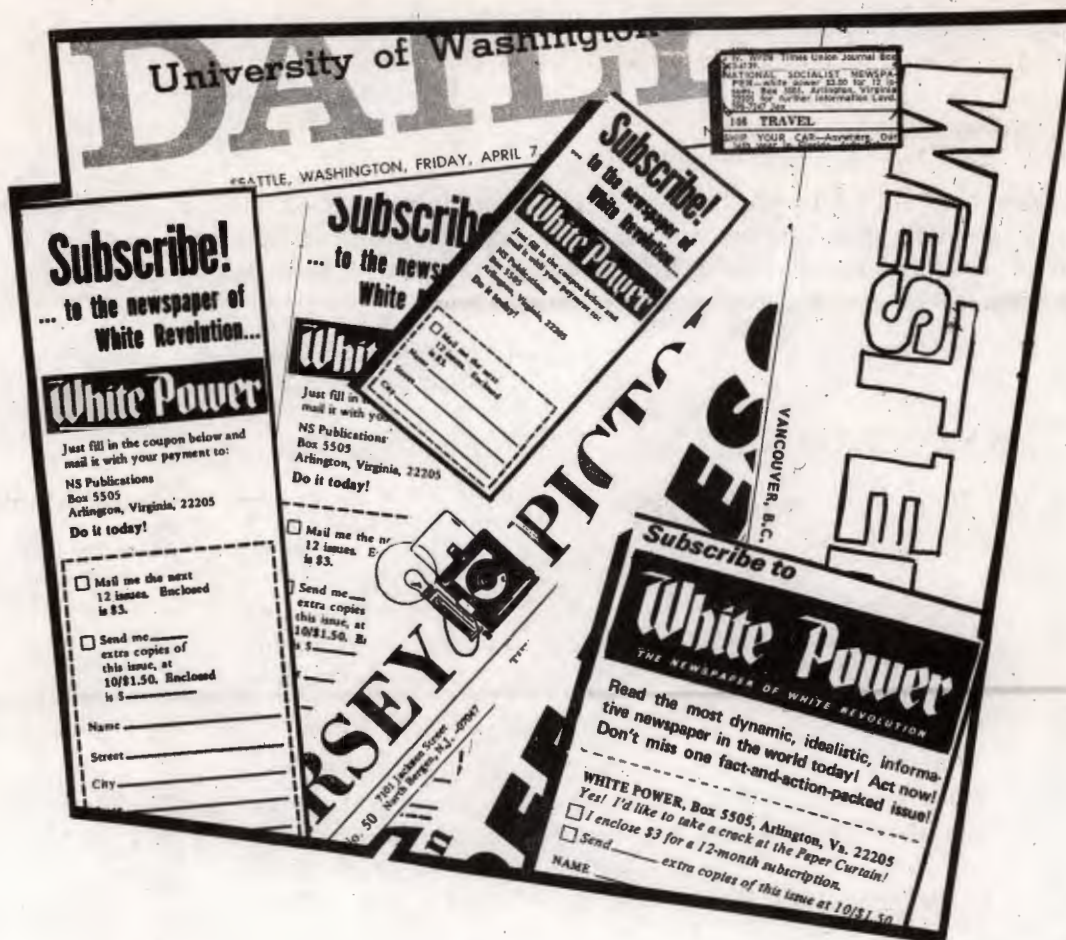

Young activists in Upper New York state high schools have found the "Uptight About School?" leaflet a good way of getting the message across to their fellow Whites. At one school, the leaflets have prompted Whites to stick together amid Black violence and terrorism, and then to effectively oppose it. The majority of White students agreed with the leaflet and united to protect themselves from the rampaging Blacks, something, needless to say, that the liberal school administrators would not tolerate. While allowing Black violence on the one hand, these anti-White types stifle any expression of White self-defense and solidarity on the other. By doing so, they expose their free speech hypocrisy and further alienate themselves from disaffected young Whites. They are the first to forget about their "free speech" ideals when confronted by Whites demanding their rights. The "Uptight" leaflet is an effective way to reach young Whites and to force administrators to expose themselves. See that high schools in your area are amply supplied with this leaflet. You can order 500 of these leaflets for $5.

WHITE POWER Ads Spread the Word

Running ads for the WHITE POWER newspaper is an excellent means of spreading the National Socialist message to the public. Activists in Seattle, Vancouver and New Jersey have recently placed such ads in local newspapers.

Although some of the larger papers may refuse to accept our ads — and this is currently being tested in court — smaller publications and school papers will many times accept the ad without question, particularly if promised a lawsuit for refusal. Many college and university newspapers are honestly committed to freedom of the press and will accept the ads freely. Don't overlook them. These advertisements are important in that they will help to boost the circulation of the paper — a real necessity to the long-range success of the Movement. Do your part in this easy project — just place an ad in local papers!

Below are a few of the advertisements and the flags of the papers they appeared in.

A Word of Caution . . .

Information from Los Angeles has indicated that government officials there are probably involved in an attempt to cause disunity and strife in the Party. This sort of quasi-legal harassment by government agents is to be expected as the Movement grows and as its effects are felt in higher circles. We ask all members and supporters to be on the lookout for this sort of thing. Efforts to cause intra-Party strife will be unsuccessful if recognized in advance.

New Team Leader in Los Angeles

Effective 4/29/72, Dan Stewart, a long-time Party activist, was promoted to the rank of Team Leader in the ST by Lt. Joe Tommasi. The Party offers its congratulations to TL Stewart, who will continue to assist Lt. Tommasi in the building of National Socialism in California.

Notes From NS Publications

1) It has long been Party policy that only members are entitled to receive free subscriptions to the WHITE POWER newspaper. Official supporters must have a subscription to receive copies regularly. With the paper coming out on a steady monthly basis, many supporters may have missed an issue or two because they do not have a subscription. You can't afford to miss WHITE POWER, so if you haven't subscribed, do so.

2) The super stickers advertised in WHITE POWER number 28 should be priced 3 for $1 rather than 50¢ each. These are 8½ x 13 inch sticker-posters in red and black with Swastika and White Power slogan on the front. Order yours now!

3) Newspaper and magazine clippings that are of Party interest are welcomed by the WHITE POWER staff, but they must include the name and date of the publication from which they are taken. Items of interest should NOT be heavily underlined, nor should comments be written on the copy as this makes reproduction difficult – sometimes impossible.

Party Needs Trading Stamps

Trading stamps, bonus coupons and the like are used to acquire much-needed equipment for the Party. If you have stamps or coupons around the house, why not send them in to National Headquarters? Used by us, your stamps help guarantee a brighter future. Is there any better way to use them?
