No. 127

1 February 1973 YF-84

"All the persecutions of the Movement and its individual leaders, all vilifications and slanders, were powerless to harm it. The correctness of its ideas, the purity of its will, its supporters' spirit of self-sacrifice, have caused it to issue from all repressions stronger than ever.

"If, in the world of our present parliamentary corruption, it becomes more and more aware of the profoundest essence of its struggle, feels itself to be the purest embodiment of the value of race and personality and conducts itself accordingly, it will with almost mathematical certainty some day emerge victorious from its struggle. . . .

"May the adherents of our Movement never forget this if ever the magnitude of the sacrifices should beguile them to an anxious comparison with the possible results."

40th Anniversary of National Socialist Revolution Celebrated

The fortieth anniversary of the National Socialist Revolution in Germany was celebrated at National Headquarters on Saturday evening, 27 January.

Having returned from the march and wreath-laying ceremony in Alexandria, the ST and other Party comrades attended a special meeting presided over by the Commander to commemorate that eventful day forty years ago when Adolf Hitler and the National Socialist movement achieved political victory in Germany.

Describing the meaning of 30 January 1933 to Aryan mankind, Commander Koehl hailed it as a prelude of the great global National Socialist revolution yet to come. He pointed out that 30 January 1933 would have been impossible without the lessons of 9 November 1923, when the National Socialist movement received a serious setback at the hands of cowardly reactionary elements.

The unsuccessful Putsch of 1923 was a necessary prerequisite for the National Socialist triumph ten years later. From the seeds of that temporary defeat were born the revolutionary impetus that was to enable National Socialism to crush Marxism and capitalism first in Germany, then to so seriously challenge these twin Judaic philosophies of regression that it required a world coalition to stop and suppress it.

In a special ceremony, ST Clifford Ward was promoted to the rank of Team Leader, and PT Harold Covington was sworn into the Stormtroops.

Afterwards, while waiting for the showing of the film "Triumph of the Will," the Commander was presented with a surprise birthday party celebrating his 38th birthday. A special recording of the songs, marches, and speeches sung during the victory celebration on January 30, 1933, was played in the background as the assembled comrades hailed the national leader and wished him many happy returns of the day.

Commander Lays Wreath at Confederate War Monument

At 1300 hours on Saturday, 27 January, Commander Koehl led a column of 20 Stormtroopers down nine city blocks in downtown Alexandria, Va., to pay homage to the memory and the spirit of the Confederate fallen.

Two Stormtroopers carried a large wreath, bearing the red, white, and blue national colors and a golden Swastika. On the sash of the wreath was the dedication: "To All Gallant Men Who Have Given Their Lives For A White America."

Behind the wreath was a four-man color guard, bearing the slogan, "White Power!"

The White men of today pay tribute to the Aryan warriors of yesteryear, who fell in a tragic fratricidal war, killing and being killed by their White brothers in blue. On the wreath is the sacred symbol of our race, the Swastika—a silent promise to those who died of a better time to come, a time when White men will no longer slay each other at the bidding of Jews.

When the Stormtroop column approached the intersection where the Confederate War Monument was located (in the middle of the intersection of Washington and Prince Streets), the Commander ordered it to halt. Accompanied by Lt. Robert Homan, the National Secretary, and a color guard consisting of the Confederate and National Socialist banners, the Commander crossed the street and laid the wreath at the base of the monument. Both he and Lt. Homan gave the Aryan salute and then returned to the Stormtroop formation.

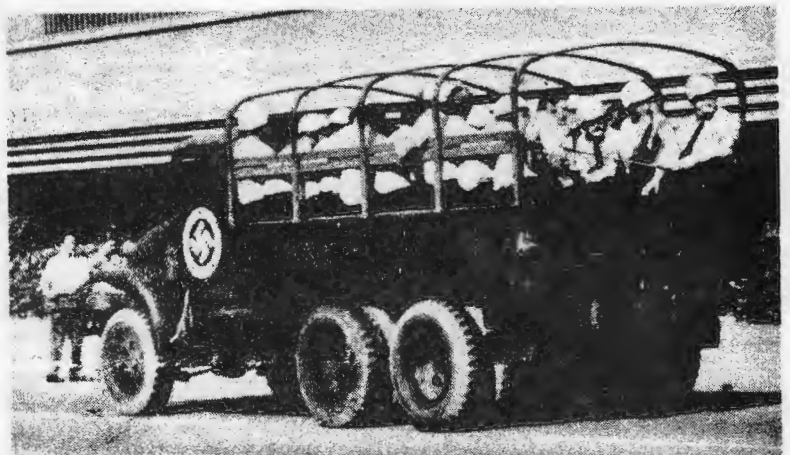

A crowd had gathered around the great intersection, along with curious motorists, to witness this public gesture by National Socialists that America's great racial traditions were not forgotten and that as long as the sacred National Socialist banner challenged the wind there would still be hope for White men everywhere.

Stormtroopers Smash JDL in L.A. Confrontation!

On Saturday, 20 January, the Los Angeles unit clashed with the Jewish Defense League during a mass leftist demonstration in the downtown area near Pershing Square.

Originally, Lt. Tommasi had intended to lead a head-on confrontation of Stormtroopers against the thousands of leftist marchers. Police prevented the Stormtroop column from approaching the Marxists, however, and so the National Socialists proceeded to march around the back of the Los Angeles City Hall to regroup.

Following the 25 Stormtroopers were about 10 members of the Jewish Defense League, led by Irv Rubin, the Jew who attempted to assassinate Lt. Tommasi last February by shooting at him from a passing car.

A truckload of troopers

This time, however, the Jews overplayed their hand. Following about ten feet behind the Stormtroop column, the JDLers taunted the disciplined ranks of National Socialists with obscene epithets. The Stormtroops did not respond to the provocations. Getting bolder, the cocky Jews began throwing bottles, and one of them ran up behind ST Philip Fogarty and hit him in the head.

Quickly surveying the situation and noticing but two policemen in the area, Lt. Tommasi quickly gave the order that all the Stormtroopers were aching to hear: "Get the Jews!" Before they knew what had hit them the entire JDL group was set upon by the outraged National Socialists. Early in the fray Irv Rubin, the JDL leader, deserted his gang and made his escape. The other Jews were not so lucky.

In seconds the hebes were being punched, kicked, and beaten to the ground. The yids screamed in terror as the full vengeance of the ST fell upon them. Lt. Tommasi later complained that there were not enough JDLers to go around. When he ordered the men back into formation, the area looked like the scene of a massacre. Jews were lying all over the ground and blood was everywhere. The two policemen had taken no action during the encounter, and smiled approvingly at the humbled kikes, saying, "They had it coming."

Shortly afterwards newsmen and TV reporters appeared. The Jews actually cried on camera! Blood streaming down their faces, they denounced the "Nazis" for retaliating against their attack. As the ST men boarded the ST truck, news reporters rushed up to Lt. Tommasi and asked him what happened.

"We were minding our own business," he replied, "When these Jews sneaked up behind us and started throwing bottles at us. We had enough of their anti-White actions, so we took care of them. Our enemies are going to learn what it's like to feel the wrath of angry White men!"

That evening, at the weekly Saturday night meeting at the El Monte headquarters an air of jubilation dominated the proceedings. A special collection was taken up to bail Comrade Fogarty out of jail. He had been arrested because the Jews later told police that he had "attacked" them.

At El Monte HQ that night voices were raised in hearty song to celebrate the Aryan triumph:

*"We close our ranks in loyalty and courage;
To God our thanks for comrades tried and true;
Let traitors quail, and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the Devil's throng!"*

However, earlier in the day, members of the Jewish Defense League clashed with members of the American Nazi Party who had showed up to stage a counterdemonstration.
One man, Solomon Cohn, 55, of 725 S. Main St., was arrested at Pershing Square for throwing a rock at a truckload of Nazis as they circled the park.
A fistfight erupted at the corner of Temple and Main Sts. between members of the two groups. One JDL member, Edwin Gayer, 29, of 8632 Cashio St., suffered a gash above his right eye. Philip Fogarty, 39, who said he lived at the Nazis' headquarters, 4375 N. Peck Road, El Monte, was arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, apparently a club.

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Two men were arrested yesterday at an antiwar rally planned to coincide with President Nixon's inauguration in Washington, police said.

A man wearing the uniform of the National Socialist White People's Party was booked for investigation of assault with a deadly weapon after he struck a member of the Jewish Defense League with a wooden baton, police said. Authorities identified the man as Philip Fogarty, 31, of El Monte.

Solomon Cohn, 51, of Los Angeles was arrested after he threw a rock at a moving vehicle, police said.

About 2500 persons gathered for the antiwar rally in front of City Hall here.

About 1100 persons attended a similar rally in San Diego.

Buffalo National Socialists Attacked on Picket

Comrades Karl Hand and Wayne Whiteside were attacked by a gang of Blacks on 15 January while picketing an "Anti-War, Anti-Racism, Anti-Fascist" meeting in honor of Martin Luther Coon at the JFK Recreation Center in the Black section of Buffalo.

The two National Socialists had been picketing outside the hall for approximately 20 minutes. They carried signs which declared, "Gas Reds Like King!" and "White Power!" About 50 Blacks and White leftists, who'd been debating about what to do, finally mustered up enough courage to attack the two men.

Despite their great numbers, it took the assorted scum nearly 15 minutes to overwhelm the two National Socialists, who fought like ancient Viking berserkers against their attackers.

Despite the beatings they received, Comrades Hand and Whiteside walked away from the encounter with grins of defiance on their faces. On January 19 Comrade Hand was interviewed by WKBW-TV and appeared on news telecasts. He has also spoken on several local radio programs and interest in the Party in the Buffalo area has been growing.

The address of the Party in Buffalo is: NSWPP, P.O. Box 11102, Buffalo, N.Y., 14211

Controversy Continues Over Philadelphia WPM

Jewish groups in Philadelphia have continued to protest the Party's White Power Message in that city. A lead article on the front page of the Jewish Times attacked the recorded telephone message and bewailed the fact that it cannot be legally suppressed, as they would like to do.

A syndicated article by Tom Tiede dealing with the Philadelphia WPM has appeared in newspapers across the country, and features Delaware Valley Organizer Richard Biederman.

DIAL-A-HATE

The sponsors are the die-hard members of the late American neo-Nazi organizer, George Lincoln Rockwell. Rockwell was murdered outside a Virginia shopping center three years ago, but his memory lingers on. Loyalists keep his ashes well guarded in a "place of honor" and keep his faith in the form of continued

According to FBI agents whose job it is to keep book on extremists, the National Socialist White People's Party, never very much, is merely a pimple of what it is under Rockwell. Headquarters in Arlington, Va., the group reportedly has "no more than a few hundred active members." Despite its size, however, it pops up periodically, in Los Angeles, or Cleveland, or wherever, usually for small demonstrations.

MORE ACTIVE

MORE ACTIVE
The party branch in Philadelphia is perhaps one of the more active. Bierdeman, a tall, 21-year-old "midwestern farm boy," says he was sent here from Arlington to organize the Delaware Valley. This includes the continuation of our phone message. We run it 21 hours a day. Unfortunately, we can take only one call at a time. Even at that, we get some 3,500 calls every week. We think people are more interested."

DICK BIERDERMAN SPILLS BIGOTRY
... to anyone who wishes to phone him

There are, however, not that many laws. And JDL watch-dogging has not yet been able to slap the Nazi line with anything resembling an illegality. "We are completely protected," says Nazi Biederstam, "the constitution guarantees us freedom of speech."

SETTLED BEFORE

It does indeed. The issue concerning phone messages was settled long ago. In the 1960's the John Birch Society launched a national phone message campaign called Let Freedom Ring. Blatantly anti-Communist in nature, the messages all condemned citizens such as Dwight Eisenhower. Several suits were proposed to stop the slander, citizens' groups issued complaints and denunciations, to

There are those who feel the price is too steep. Last summer the JDL rattled with residents in a known Nazi neighborhood (many residents of the neighborhood, a lower middle-class industrial area called Kensington, say they're opposed to new Nazis). A cluster of cherrybomb firecrackers were exploded near one Nazi's apartment. A black gang in town has threatened to "bump" Richard Biederman "on sight."

But the far greater number in Philadelphia take the Nazis for what they are, or ignore them completely. Gaber, of the Anti-Defamation League, believes the latter approach is

OVERREACTIONED

"Some people have overreacted. I think that's unfortunate. The bigots thrive on publicity. When we hear of, say, somebody painting a swastika on a man's door, we hurriedly advise him to clean it off before the word spreads. We feel that if nobody pays any attention to smears, they'll just go away."

For its part, the National Socialist White People's Party denies enthusiastically it will ever go away. Bierderman, who believes "Adolf Hitler was the greatest mortal who ever lived," says the mood of the nation is swinging in the new Nazis' favor. He says the party has reached the point where it now does not need to recruit indiscriminately, but is looking only for "people ready to die for the cause."
