

The logo consists of the letters "NS" in a white, stylized serif font, centered within a solid red square.

BULLETIN

OFFICIAL INTERNAL ORGAN OF THE
National Socialist White Peoples Party AND THE National Socialist Youth Movement

No. 183 & 184

15 July & 1 August 1975 YF-87

"By being a NAZI, with the swastika, I would also automatically gain the only kind of people I wanted around me — tough, dedicated idealists ready to fight for those ideals and give their lives, if necessary. But even more important, I would automatically GET RID of the millions of blabbermouths, cowards, fools and crackpots which the rest of "movement" abounds the swastika would recruit me an army of the toughest, best men in the country, while repelling and scaring away millions of useless people who have so far destroyed every other movement by their dead weight."

Lincoln Rockwell, This Time the World, Chapter X

Theme of Sixth Congress:

"BUILD NATIONAL SOCIALIST POWER"

Advance Details of Sixth Congress

The Sixth Congress of the National Socialist White People's Party and the World Union of National Socialists is going to be held in Milwaukee on 30, 31 August and 1 September.

This year's Congress promises to be one of the best. A better than ever participation is expected; Milwaukee having been chosen in part for its central location, allowing more delegates to attend from the Midwest and West than ever before. In addition, the best and largest facilities available have been acquired for the Party's use.

A major street activity is planned to bring the attention of the entire city to our presence. ST Chief of Staff, Lieutenant Cedric Syrdahl, is hereby directing all ST personnel to have a fully squared away uniform with them, including regulation helmet, which will be available at the Congress from NS Publications. A thorough ST inspection will be conducted by the Chief of Staff of all ST personnel in attendance. No non-regulation hair length or uniforms will be tolerated. Be prepared for action!

The keynote address during the Congress will be given by Commander Koehl, who will speak on his recent European tour, during which he met and spoke with many European comrades.

Anyone planning on making the Congress but having transportation needs may write National Headquarters which will attempt to arrange a car-pool; those who can give rides are urged to contact NHQ also.

Those who plan to fly to the Congress are reminded of lower cost when traveling night flights and stand-by. All delegates should plan to arrive by Friday, the 29th, to allow for proper registration and preparation for the Congress events, as well as to check in at hotels or motels, and to generally get orientated. A listing of accommodations will be provided with the next NS Bulletin. Dress regulations and other information will also be supplied.

The enclosed registration form must be completed and sent to NHQ by 25 August at the very latest. All Official Supporters must have been signed up before 1 June, 1975, to be eligible to attend the Congress.

Day care service will be provided by NSWO to delegates with children at the Congress.

All comrades are reminded that NS Publications will be operating during the Congress. Bulk quantities of WHITE POWER and leaflets may be purchased at that time, eliminating shipping delays and charges normally incurred.

Attention Unit Leaders and Local Organizers

Each and every Unit Leader and Local Organizer is directed by NHQ to make every effort to see that Party comrades under their jurisdiction are encouraged to attend the Party Congress, as well as ensuring they themselves attend. This is one vital duty the local leader cannot afford to be substandard in.

This year's Congress will feature for the first time Unit displays. Unit leaders and organizers are urged to submit plans for a display which will take the form of an exhibit in the Congress hall. Subjects for consideration include: the Myth of the Six Million, Heroes of the Movement, Aryan Culture and any specific of the National Socialist Movement. Displays may include photos, lettering, artifacts and graphic designs presented from an NS viewpoint. The Milwaukee Unit, for example, is making their display on Rudolf Hess.

Unit Leaders and organizers are to submit their display plans to NHQ by 25 August.

Milwaukee ST Greet Kissinger

On 14 July, Milwaukee Stormtroopers under the command of Team Leader Tony Schmitt greeted Henry Kissinger at the Marc Plaza Hotel in downtown Milwaukee.

Kissinger spoke to about 1,000 people inside the hotel while the ST contingent marched in disciplined ranks outside. The Youth Against War and Fascism (YAWF), the local Communist front with whom the ST have battled many times before, allied with some 'Gays Against Kissinger' also were present.

Riot-equipped police ordered the ST to stay away from the YAWF creeps, and maintained the separation throughout. However, even without the help of our men, several YAWFers managed to get themselves hauled away, one of whom was Richard Cohn, a YAWF rat who learned from bitter experience that smart Communist Jews do not tangle with Team Leader Schmitt or his men.

Needless to say, the YAWF and other commie outfits like the Revolutionary Student Brigade will have ample opportunity to welcome National Socialist Stormtroopers from all over the nation as they gather in Milwaukee for the Sixth Congress. The only question is, do the Reds really have the guts to do anything about the Nazi infusion of group upon group of ST? Or will they simply hide in their rat holes for the duration? Come to Milwaukee for the Congress and see for yourself!

Goose-steppers against Kissinger.

Photo by Cathy Gubin

Team Leader Anthony Schmitt

The Bugle-American

July 23, 1975

Friday, July 11, 1975

THE JEWISH POST

NAZIS IN MILWAUKEE NOW PUBLIC NUISANCE

By HYMAN CHESTER

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (P-O) — Activities of the Nazi party in Milwaukee County were declared a "public nuisance" by the judiciary committee of the county's Board of Supervisors after it heard complaints from the Jewish community about damage to synagogues.

The resolution was aimed at concentrating police effort and that of state law enforcement officers on vandalism that has frightened elderly Jews and survivors of tyranny in Germany.

SUPERVISOR FRED TABAK demanded that the state attorney general assign a special unit to investigate the situation. Supervisor Michael Mett asked that the corporation counsel determine whether the county could enter a public nuisance lawsuit against the Nazis.

Several rabbis told of having windows in synagogues broken, and swastikas plastered or painted on buildings. Police Capt. Robert Medich said his men were keeping special surveillance over Jewish community buildings but had been unable to catch any vandals or connect them directly with the Nazis.

JOSEPH PELTZ, president of Congregation Agudas Achim, himself a concentration camp survivor, said his synagogue had not reported all incidents because it didn't want to give the Nazis publicity.

"It's time now to tell of what's happening," he said. "I can't believe that the United States will allow what happened in Germany to happen here, too."

Members of the National Socialist White People's Party, wearing Nazi uniforms and carrying swastika banners, have gained high visibility with a steady program of picketing Jewish events, passing out anti-Semitic and anti-Negro literature in crowded places, and attempting to recruit high school students.

THE SAME GROUP rarely reaches 15 or 16 in number, and FBI agents have said that this is about the total membership in the city. Attempts to curb the Nazis have been dismissed by the courts in the name of free speech.

National Socialist Youth March in July 4th Parade

On Independence Day, an NSYM contingent consisting of personnel from Arlington and Baltimore, along with an ST escort, participated in a 4th of July parade in Arlington County, the first time the Party has ever been officially represented in any community parade in the United States.

The National Socialist contingent carried, in addition to two American flags, a Virginia state flag. Also, an NSYM drum was utilized to beat out a smart cadence, which, although simple, contrasted sharply with the massed percussion and brass of the other parade entries — helping the NS group to stand out all the more from them.

Surprisingly, many of the parade watchers, who numbered in the thousands, loudly applauded the National Socialists as they marched. Along the entire three-mile parade route on Wilson Boulevard, hardly a peep of discontent — let alone opposition — was heard from the all-White crowd lining the street. As the contingent passed the judges' reviewing stand, the loudspeakers on the platform blared out the name of the Party, which the crowd acknowledged by massed applause and cheers!

At the end of the parade, the comrades were joined by several non-uniformed Supporters who together with the NSYM/ST mingled with the crowd selling WHITE POWER, talking to groups of Whites, inviting many to stop by NHQ for more literature and to attend a Party meeting. The contingent departed an hour later, marching back along the parade route to NHQ, thus obtaining much exposure for the Cause to the thousands of Whites present, and garnering picture publicity in the Arlington Journal.

NSYM National Encampment a Great Success

During the third week of July, NSYM personnel from all parts of the nation gathered in Michigan for the first NSYM National Encampment. Three NSYM units — Arlington, Los Angeles and Milwaukee were represented in strength; other Youth members came from as far away as New Orleans and Salinas, CA to participate. Ages of the participants ranged from 11 to 19 years.

Under the overall direction of NSYM National Secretary Jeff Palmer, the three units competed for a specially designed Unit Citation. Based on proven performance, the Citation was awarded to the Los Angeles NSYM Unit under Unit Leader Douglas Winkleman.

In addition, at the upcoming Congress, a professionally designed individual Certificate of Participation will be given those who participated.

The highlight of the encampment was a traditional Hitler Youth style book-burning ceremony over a huge bonfire at the campsite. Under the brilliantly lit 15-foot Hitler Youth streamer above the fire (see photos) the NS Youth, in specially made NSYM T-shirts, heaped assorted pornographic and Bolshevik books, newspapers and magazines into the raging fire to signify, as did the original Hitler Youth, their repudiation of perverted Jewish values.

On Monday the 14th, the entire NSYM contingent of 15 drove into Detroit for a WHITE POWER paper sale, the twofold purpose of which was to provide the personnel with practical street activist experience, and to focus attention on the NSYM in the fifth largest city in the U.S.

Arriving in the White Power bus, the all-NSYM group, under the command of National Secretary Jeff Palmer, formed up and marched into the city's business district with two Hitler Youth banners at the head of the column. Upon selection of a six-cornered intersection, "Kennedy Square," the personnel were positioned and brisk selling of the Party newspaper

A unit of the National Socialist White People's Party marched in the Arlington parade.

Jewish literature is symbolically tossed into the flames

NSYM members stand solemnly by as Bolshevik books burn began. After about 45 minutes, television cameras arrived to film the Youth Movement members, and National Secretary Jeff Palmer was interviewed by Channel 7 newsman Jim Harrington. While the interview was taking place, a well-known local Bircher, Don Lobsinger, lunged at one of the Hitler Youth banners being held by a 14 year-old NSYM member. NSYM Senior Member Clyde Bingham was the first to see this 'courageous' attack upon a younger comrade, and instantly reacted — knocking the Bircher into the street with a hard right hook to the jaw, all of which was picked up by television cameras and shown on the evening news. Television coverage that day included five minutes of scenes of the youth selling WHITE POWERS and of the Hitler Youth Banners waving proudly, while the interviewer commented on "the first appearance of Nazis on Detroit streets in five years," and got 'horrified' reactions from the Jews and from nigger onlookers. Additional publicity included the accompanying Detroit Press article.

The following day, the Youth contingent again returned to the same location to continue their activities, and to appear before a Detroit judge to clear Senior Member Bingham, who had been taken into custody during the first day's action.

After securing the release of NSYM Bingham, the NSYM group marched from the main police station to Kennedy Square, where selling of WHITE POWERS was resumed.

After about an hour there, one Youth member was taken into a nearby police "mini-station," to be issued a ticket on the pretext that a license was required to sell the newspaper in the city. After clarification of the law with the city legal bureaucracy, it was revealed that selling was not permitted in a 5 by 20 block area of downtown, the boundary of which just happened to be one of the streets passing through Kennedy Square. Thus, the NSYM group simply moved to one side of the square, occupying three corners, and selling resumed. About 45 minutes later, the NSYM group experienced an organized surprise attack, which began when a 6' 4", 350 lb. gorilla and others jumped out of a car turning one of the corners, and attacked National Secretary Jeff Palmer and the other four members on that corner. Instantly, a free-for-all began, with the communist attackers, identified with the Progressive Labor Party, backed up by a nigger-Jew crowd and Negress agitators, smothering the NSYM by sheer weight of numbers. As other NSYM arrived from other corners, the crowd separated and the NSYM inflicted a fierce beating on at least two mongrels and a Jew who were down and surrounded. After several long minutes, during which the crowd of Blacks and Jews faced-off the Youth who were backed up against a wall, the police began hauling the most hostile Blacks away, and attempted to disperse the crowd, while the National Socialist Youth stood ready to meet any onslaught. About 20 police then escorted the Youth group across the street and down the block to the police mini-station, while the agitated crowd followed closely behind, of the NSYM contingent. Inside the small police station, beset by the whipped-up crowd, the NSYM reformed and regrouped, while Comrade Rick Prohaska and NSYM member Jeff Enders had their injuries attended to.

NSYM at staging area in front of Detroit police building

WHITE POWER sale at one of Detroit's busiest intersections

After half an hour inside, a police paddy-wagon arrived to take the NSYM to their vehicles. Waiting outside were TV cameras and the hostile Jew-mongrel crowd, shouting anti-NS slogans. As the NSYM were escorted — in formation — into the police vehicle, they shouted, "What do we want? WHITE POWER!" and began singing the Party Battle Song — infuriating the non-White crowd to no end.

THE DETROIT NEWS—Tuesday, July 15, 1975

'White Power' group ignored Neo-Nazis sell papers downtown

By CLARK HALLAS
News Staff Writer

Nazis marched into Detroit yesterday. But nobody paid much attention until somebody grabbed their flag.

Nine of them — all young men in their late teens and early 20's — stood on the northeast corner of Kennedy Square during lunch time, hawking "White Power" newspapers for 25 cents apiece in violation of a city ordinance.

They formed ranks under a swastika banner waving in the sunlight, clad in khaki shirts and dark field caps.

The headline of their newspaper said: "We Need a Hitler! No Mickey Mouse Politician Can Do the Job."

A small crowd gathered on the steps of the square, looking on without discernible arousal at the curious street scene — mildly suggestive of German streets in the 1920's. The newspapers went largely unsold.

However, a melee nearly ensued when right-wing activist Donald Lobsinger was slugged by one of the Nazis while trying to wrest away their flag.

Lobsinger, 40, is head of the ultra right-wing Breakthrough organization and a co-founder of the Catholic Laymen's League, which he has described as being dedicated to rooting out "Communist frontiers from the church and clergy."

Before Lobsinger's arrival, the Nazi spokesman, Jeff Palmer, 19, was explaining why his group surfaced in Detroit yesterday.

"We're trying to push the white peoples' viewpoint," said Palmer.

"Nobody but us in this country is fighting for white racial interests. This city is a good example of what's happening."

"The Democrats, Republicans and other political parties are all bowing down to minority power. The two-party system has to go."

Palmer said that he and his friends are members of the youth division of the National Socialist White Peoples Party, headquartered in Arlington, Va.

American Nazis, Palmer said, advocate the "repatriation" of all blacks now living in America to Africa, and the "gassing" of American Jews found guilty of "race-mixing or monopolistic capitalist practices."

The party is unwilling to release membership figures, either for Michigan or nationally.

"We're not trying to impress anybody with our size," he said.

"We're interested in quality — not quantity."

However, he claimed the youth division is enjoying an increase in membership, with new recruits as young as 14.

Soon after yesterday's demonstration began, a Detroit police officer ordered the gang to stop selling their newspapers until they obtained a license for street soliciting.

But, except for an occasional heckler, the demonstration went peacefully until Lobsinger arrived, demanding: "Take down that enemy flag — what's wrong with the American Flag?"

He then lunged twice at one of the brown-shirted youths in an attempt to grab a Swastikaemblazoned banner away from him.

The second time, one of the gang struck Lobsinger on the side of his face, sending him reeling onto Griswold. Lobsinger called for police to "arrest this man for assault and battery."

But apparently no officers witnessed the incident.

Lobsinger stood jaw-to-jaw with his Nazi attacker and the two exchanged words, but no further punches were thrown. Lobsinger threatened to return "in force" if the Nazi flag reappeared today.

The band marched away and the small crowd disbanded.

Lobsinger later filed an assault complaint. Police took one of the Nazis to Police Headquarters for questioning in the incident, but no charges were brought.

As with the previous day's activities, Detroit TV carried the incident in all its news broadcasts.

Arriving back at the encampment site after two successful days of activity, the NSYM carried on with the less exciting but just as important job of practicing close-order drill, doubletumbling, calisthenics, and ideological instruction including racial history and instruction geared to bring out a greater understanding of the National Socialist philosophy.

Ceremonies included a "hatenanny" around the campfire, singing, "We Don't Want Niggers for Neighbors," "Ship those Niggers Back," "Finklestein," "Lookin' for a Handout," with NSYM songs, "Youth Anthem," "Tomorrow Belongs to Me!," "Hitler's Banner," and others.

At the end of the week-long encampment the individual member had made many new acquaintances with his comrades from far away, and had had the opportunity to experience a unique feeling of NS comradeship. Striving for the Unit Citation helped to develop cooperation and a concern for one's comrades in the individual units themselves. The encampment helped all participants to better understanding the mighty mission of Youth fighting for a New Order, and most participants look forward to joining together again in the approaching Sixth Party Congress.

Baltimore Comrade Subject of Interview

NS Bookstore Manager Wolfgang Schrodtt, who is a candidate for city council from the Baltimore neighborhood where the Bookstore is located, at 2112 Eastern Avenue, gave the reprinted interview to Baltimore's largest circulation daily, The Sun, as a result of his recent campaign efforts in the city.

Comrade Schrodtt was forced to register himself on the ballot as a Republican, as Baltimore City statutes forbid candidates from running for office unless their Party has a minimum of 10% of the city population registered as belonging to that Party. Without this requirement, Comrade Schrodtt would not have been allowed to run. In order to get on the ballot, he is running as a "National Socialist Republican."

Nazi In Council Race In First District

By Carl A. Schoettler

Wolfgang Schrodt is possibly the only City Council candidate who thinks that what the world needs now is a new Adolf Hitler.

Wolfgang, a Storm Troop group leader for the local National Socialist White People's party, modestly disclaims any personal ambitions to be the American fuhrer.

He does admit a spiritual kinship with Adolf:

"You have to have some of the spiritual qualities Adolf Hitler had to be a member of the Nationalist Socialist White People's party. But Adolf Hitler was one of the greatest white men to come along in thousands of years. I certainly do not compare myself with him."

Very Serious

Wolfgang is not kidding. He's a very serious person. He packs what appears to be a very serious .38-caliber Detective Special on his hip. He's serious when he says he's never shot at anybody. His Eastern avenue bunker is guarded by a very serious looking attack dog.

"What's the dog's name?"

"Just Dog. We don't give his name out," Wolfgang says. "It's not good security."

Wolfgang is running in the Republican primary. There are only two Republican candidates for three First district council posts, so he'll automatically be on the ballot in November's general election. He says he's a registered Republican.

National Socialist Republican
"I'm running as a National Socialist Republican," he says. "I can go along with some Republican views."

Sunpapers photo — Lloyd Pearson

APING ADOLF — City Council candidate Wolfgang Schrodt, a latter-day storm trooper, preaches Hitleresque hate.

The National Socialist White People's party doesn't have the resources or personnel available to get enough signatures to get him on the ballot as an independent, Wolfgang says.

"The leaders of the Republican party recently made statements that they wish to have a broad base of views within the party. I'm running within the Republican party to see if they were on the level with that statement."

"Have you heard from the Republicans?"

"Isolating" Him

"No," he says. "They're kind of isolating me. Evidently I'm calling their bluff."

The National Socialist White People's party is the American Nazi party founded by the late George Lincoln Rockwell. Commander Rockwell is late because one of his storm troopers shot him. Wolfgang thinks it might have been a Jewish plot.

Wolfgang thinks most everything is a Jewish plot, except a couple things which are Commie plots or black plots.

Wolfgang is running for the City Council on a platform that is pure—so to speak—racism.

View Of Minorities

"We're opposed to non-white minorities," he says. "Jews and blacks, they are the main problem. They're destroying the initiative, morality and white racist fiber that made this country great."

He intones the long, boring litany of alleged sins and crimes of nonwhite minorities that racists have handed down for generations. He seems to have a hard time remembering them all. He keeps referring to a printed handbill to refresh his memory. It's so dull even Dog has gone to sleep.

The headquarters is full of stale hate literature so unoriginal it includes "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." Wolfgang also stocks Oswald Spengler's "The Decline of the West" and Hitler's "Mein Kampf."

"In the authorized version," Wolfgang assures us. He claims he sells six to eight copies a week. "It goes so fast we can't keep it in stock."

Born In Germany

Nazis apparently have to be supermen to slog their way through the turgid prose of their own propaganda. Wolfgang himself looks a little too thick through the middle to be your model Aryan superman.

But he was born in Germany and had a Hitler era education until the allies brought the thousand-year Reich to an end about 990 years early. Wolfgang was brought to Baltimore in 1950 when he was 12 and has lived here somewhat uneasily since then.

Ethnic nostalgia welled up within Wolfgang when Commander Rockwell formed the National Socialist White People's party. He has been an American Nazi ever since.

He opened this headquarters three years ago as a Nazi bookshop. When he hung out his first swastika it took fairly heavy persuasion to keep his neighbors from tearing the place down. Which seems to indicate Wolfgang's campaign might end up like Rommel's at El Alamein—out of gas.

Los Angeles ST Picket "Mandingo"

On 2 July, Stormtroopers and NSYM of the L.A. unit under the command of TL Bruce Mathews picketed the premier showing of the vile, race-mixing movie, "Mandingo."

Arriving at the theatre after a half-mile march through degenerate throngs along Sunset Blvd., the ST began to picket. In a short while, a small crowd developed. The usual jeers and threats were hurled at the ST, but they were met head-on by the thunderous chants of "WHITE POWER!" This attracted considerable attention from passerbys who swelled the crowd to over a hundred. At that point, Los Angeles police arrived and dispersed the crowd. After that, all went smoothly — except for the theater manager who was visibly upset at losing so many customers because of the ST marching in front of his establishment.

After an additional hour, the Stormtroopers and NSYM formed up and marched away without incident.

Pictured below: Los Angeles Stormtroopers and NSYM members picketing theater where anti-White movie, "Mandingo," was being shown.

WHERE THE ACTION IS!

30, 31 August 1 September — The Sixth Congress of the NSWPP & WUNS is only four weeks away! All Party members, Official Supporters, NSYM and NSWOW should immediately complete and return the enclosed registration form, with registration fee, to insure their being accommodated.

Delegates should plan to arrive no later than Friday evening, the 29th.

Everyone to Milwaukee!

ISSUED BY NSWPP NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS AT
2507 NORTH FRANKLIN ROAD, ARLINGTON, VA 22201
PHONE: (703) 524-2175

