"One blood demands one State."— Adolf Hitler, My Struggle, I:1FALL BUILDING CAMPAIGN BEGINS!

The start of the 1977 Fall Building Campaign was announced by the Commander in Arlington on 9 November. The goal of the campaign is to raise $12,000 between now and Christmas, to be applied towards the Party's Three-Year Plan.

The theme of this year's drive is "GET READY!" As revolutionary times draw closer and closer, it is the duty of every National Socialist to help make the Party battle-ready for the hard days ahead. In order to do this, the Party vitally needs the funds being raised in the Three-Year Plan.

Unfortunately, the Plan has drifted behind over the last year, and now a special effort is needed to ensure that the goal of $88,888 is met by the closing date of 20 April, 1978. The first step in closing the gap is raising the $12,000 called for in the Fall Building Campaign.

Bombing Attempt on Nazi Fails

A crude bomb was found Tuesday morning under the car of Anthony C. Schmitt, leader of Milwaukee's Nazi Party.

Police said the dynamite bomb would have blown Schmitt to pieces, if not for a clothespin triggering device that failed.

Authorities gave this account:

Schmitt, 24, heard something dragging underneath his car about 1:15 a.m. Tuesday as he drove from a woman friend's home on N. 60th St.

At 58th and Nash, Schmitt stopped the car and discovered part of the bomb dragging on the roadway. The bomb consisted of five dynamite sticks wired to a dry cell battery.

The bomb was to have been detonated by a switch made with a clothespin. At the end of each prong of the clothespin, a metal contact had been attached. The clothespin was propped open but was to have somehow slammed shut to close the bomb circuit when Schmitt's car began moving.

However, police said, when the clothespin snapped shut, the ends of the prongs missed each other and failed to make electrical contact.

Police said that when Schmitt found the bomb, he returned to the home of the friend, where he called police. Police officers disarmed the bomb.

A detective said Schmitt told them he had no idea who might have planted the bomb. Schmitt was quoted as saying that he had not received any threats recently.

THE MILWAUKEE JOURNAL Tuesday, October 4, 1977

The Commander is making a special appeal for all comrades to give just $1 a day for the 44 days between 9 November and Christmas Eve, 24 December. Some may be able to give more or less during this period. The important thing is for every comrade to give as much as he can afford.

The appeal is late in getting started this year, because the Party has focused much of its energies on getting its publications back on schedule. Due to this, any donations made to the Plan in October and the first days of November will be counted with the appeal total.

The amount raised in October was moderate. Exactly $1,002.22 was received in contributions from comrades in 25 states and two foreign countries.

With only six months left until the Plan ends, we have raised $63,521.24, or 71 percent of our goal. This means that we are $7,500 behind, as we should have raised $71,000 or 81 percent of our goal by this point.

Those who donated in October are to be thanked for their dedication and generosity. The initials of those who contributed, as well as their states, are listed on page two.

go off. Comrade Schmitt was driving home at approximately 1:15 a.m., when he heard something dragging under his car. He stopped to investigate, and discovered a bomb attached loosely to the bottom of the car. The bomb, which consisted of five sticks of dynamite wired to a dry cell battery, was to have been triggered by a clothespin snapping shut, completing an electrical circuit. Fortunately, when the clothespin closed, the ends of the prongs failed to make contact.

The only effect the murder attempt has had on Unit Leader Schmitt and the other Milwaukee comrades has been to strengthen their resolve and dedication to the Movement and to the Commander.

It is unknown at this time who was responsible for the attempt on Comrade Schmitt's life, but the Party and the police are both investigating several leads.

Commander Leads "Dump Israel" Picket

On 15 October, the Arlington/Baltimore ST group, under the personal direction of the Commander, picketed the White House, demanding that Carter "Dump Israel" as an ally of the United States. Thousands and thousands of weekend tourists to the nation's capital saw the National Socialist demonstration, which featured a giant DUMP ISRAEL banner, as well as pickets signs reading DUMP ISRAEL and NO MORE JEW WARS. In addition to the many White people who saw the action, a number of Jews were treated to the sight of an openly "anti-Semitic" demonstration in front of the White House. As usual several of the Chosen Ones went absolutely insane at the sight of White men wearing the Aryan Cross armband and chanting anti-Jewish slogans.

These insane, berserk Jews provided quite a sideshow for the numerous spectators who gathered, as they went through their hilarious kosher antics.

Also present on the scene were several hundred "anti-neutron bomb" demonstrators from various Communist organizations. As could be expected, most of them were Jewish also, and were predictably upset by the Commander and the Stormtroopers.

The only incidents occurred when a few hose-nosers attempted to harass the NS column as it was leaving the site of the picket. There were no ST casualties.

Second Party Comrade Convicted in Frameup

A second Party comrade, TL Frederick Verduin, has been convicted of assaulting an off-duty Black policeman and his White wife, in an incident which occurred in Arlington during the time of the Eighth Party Congress (see NS BULLETINS 229 and 230). Comrade Verduin has decided to appeal the case, as has the other trooper convicted, TL Robert Bukowy. Lawyers for both men say the outlook for the convictions being reversed looks very good at this time.

TL Verduin, who is a member of the U.S. Army on active duty with the elite 3rd Infantry Regiment, has caused quite a stir in the press. Up until several months ago, he was a member of the presidential guard, and took part in numerous White House ceremonies and functions. Rumor has it that Jimmy Carter himself ordered Comrade Verduin's transfer to a "less sensitive" post when he learned of his Party affiliation.

Reproduced on page four are some of the news clippings in which the media show their dismay and outrage at the discovery that a presidential bodyguard was a horrible "Nazi."

California Comrades Clash with Creeps

On 8 October, a group of ST men under the command of GL Dan Stewart clashed with a mob of anti-White creeps at an "anti-Bakke" rally in Oakland, California. There were no incidents, outside of routine police and press contact as the troopers advanced towards the demonstration site. About half a block from where the Reds were rallying, a bunch of Jews, Mexicans and White trash street scum attempted to block the ST column. One trooper gives this account of what followed:

"We marched down the sidewalk until the creeps — many creeps — tried to block our way. The two of us in front had to punch a hole in the creep mob. I only got to smash three or four creeps in the ribs and stomach myself. As soon as we started swinging, the creeps nearest to us went down and the others went running. I did not have enough Jews and spics to punch, and the other comrades complained later of the same problem."

After the police moved in to save the anti-Party scum and normalize the situation, numerous newspaper, radio and television reporters swarmed in to get statements from the Party spokesman. Massive publicity, some of which is reproduced on page five, was received as a result of this activity

Elite Guard Admits Nazi Affiliation

Demoted 8 Months Ago, GI Is Guilty of Beating Policeman

By Jene Seaberry
Washington Post Staff Writer

A former member of the U.S. Army's elite presidential guard, who was convicted yesterday of beating a black off-duty D.C. police officer, testified at his trial that he is a member of the American Nazi party.

Frederick T. Verduin, a member of the 3d United States Infantry at Ft. Myer in Arlington, was a member of the honor guard until about eight months ago when Army officials discovered Verduin was a member of the National Socialist White Peoples Party, formerly known as the American Nazi party.

Verduin was demoted from the 180-member guard, which performs at parades and ceremonies, such as at White House functions, at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and at Arlington National Cemetery funerals.

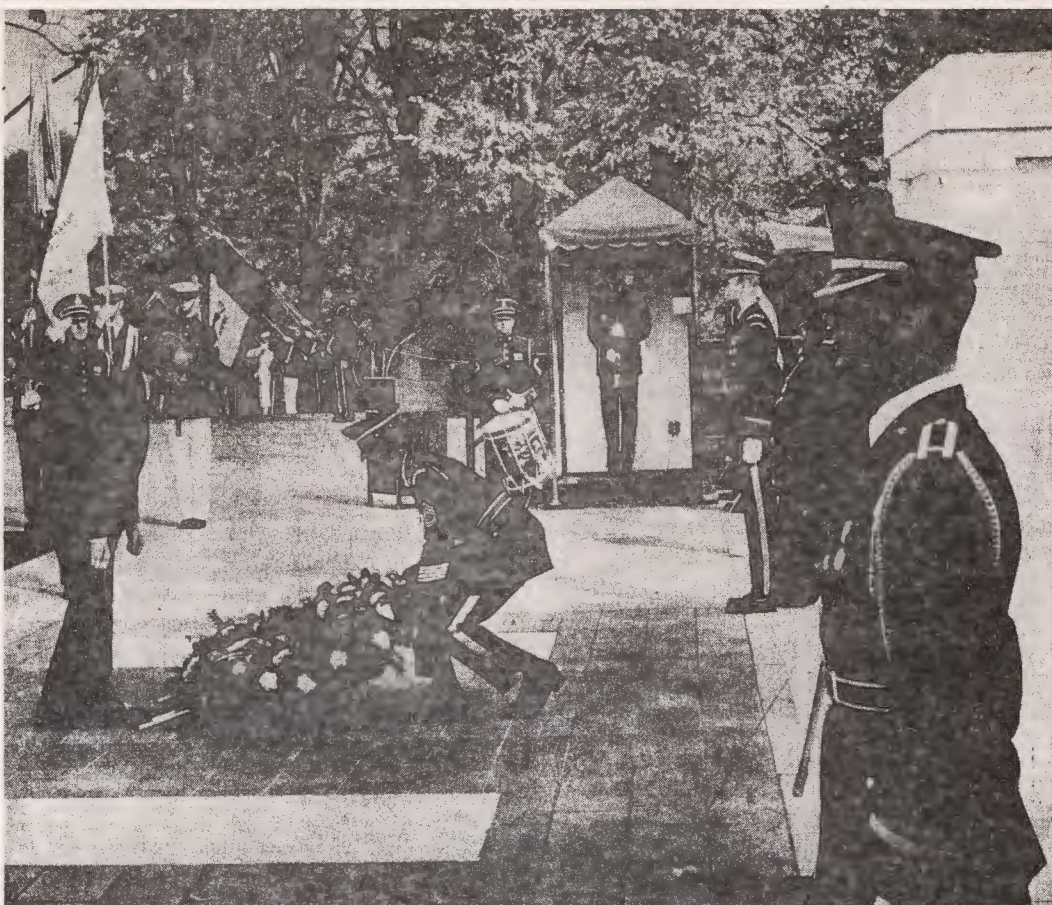

"It is an embarrassing thing as far as the Army is concerned," an Army spokesman said. The spokesman said he didn't know of any other Nazis in the Army and that Verduin's party membership "has not interfered with his military duties." He now is an historian at the Ft. Myer museum.

It is not against Army regulations to be a Nazi as long as the organization is not attempting to violently overthrow the government, the spokesman said.

It could not be immediately determined yesterday whether Verduin was ever at White House ceremonies, but the spokesman said that once it was discovered Verduin was a Nazi, his White House clearance as a member of the honor guard was taken away.

Servicemen may wear other uniforms, the spokesman said, as long as it is not during on-duty hours. Verduin testified yesterday that when the assault incident occurred on Sept. 3 he was wearing black boots, black trousers, a beige poplin military-style shirt and a red armband with a swastika.

Verduin, a member of the honor guard for about 10 months, testified yesterday in Arlington General District Court that he had just returned from a Nazi rally and convention in buying furniture when they and their two children drove into the Redhead station for gas, the Threats testified.

The detective, who has worked two years as a detective with the 2d district theft squad, began pumping gas for his car.

Both Threats said a brown Chevrolet Caprice with two men in it wearing Nazi uniforms pulled up next to their car.

The driver of the Nazis' car got out and bought a soda from the vending machine, Mrs. Threat testified, "and gave it to a passenger in the car."

Mrs. Threat said she then went to the machine to get a soda for their children and as she passed the Nazis' car one of the occupants said to her: "More power to the white people, you nigger-loving bitch." On her way back to the car with the soda, the man repeated the same comment and then threw a soft drink on her, Mrs. Threat testified.

"Please leave me alone. I don't want to have anything to do with you," Mrs. Threat testified she told the man.

Threat then ran to the car and said: "You leave my wife alone."

A fight ensued and Verduin testified he ran over to the Nazis' car and started beating Threat because he said Threat was hitting a man who was pinned inside the car.

During the fistfight, which lasted between five and seven minutes, as many as 35 uniformed Nazis, armed with riot gear and billy clubs, came from their headquarters across the street to the gas station, Threat testified.

Trial Set for 'Nazi' On Assault Count

By Forrest S. Gosselt

A soldier in the U.S. Army's elite presidential honor guard, who is a self-proclaimed Nazi, is scheduled to appear in Arlington General District Court Monday to answer charges that he assaulted an off-duty black District policeman last month.

PFC Frederick T. Verduin, assigned to the 3d United States Infantry (The Old Guard) at Ft. Myer, is charged, along with two other men, with assaulting Metropolitan Police Officer Edward L. Threat and his wife Sept. 3.

Also charged in the case are Robert F. Bukowy of Chicago, whose Sept. 9 conviction on the charges are under appeal, and Sean McQuire of Pasadena, Tex. McQuire has been arrested, and Arlington police spokesman said it is unlikely that extradition papers would be filed because only a misdemeanor charge is involved.

According to an Arlington County police report, Verduin and the two other Nazi party sympathizers assaulted the police officer and his wife at a gas station at 2520 Wilson Blvd., about a block from the headquarters of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) formerly the American Nazi Party.

According to police reports, Threat and his wife who is white, were in their car at the gas station when one of the men, Bukowy, allegedly called out obscenity names and then threw the contents of a soft drink can on her. A Nazi party spokesman conceded that the party member made "obscene" remarks to the police officer's wife.

In the police report, it is alleged that McQuire then got out of his car, started hitting first Threat and was joined by Bukowy and then by Verduin in the attack.

Police said Threat claimed Verduin and McQuire pinned him to the ground and his wife was kicked twice by Bukowy when she tried to break up the fight.

When Arlington police arrived there was a "large gathering of Nazi members" attempting to aid Verduin and Bukowy, although McQuire had left the scene.

Threat swore out warrants against Verduin, Bukowy and McQuire for assault and battery and destruction of property. A warrant for assault and battery against Bukowy.

Bukowy was held in lieu of $500 bail, and Verduin released to military authorities on his promise to appear in court, police said.

Bukowy was sentenced Sept. 9 in General District Court to six months in jail on the first count of assault and battery, six months suspended jail sentence on the second count and five days suspended sentence for destruction of property. He appealed his conviction in Arlington Circuit Court and is scheduled to appear for a jury trial Dec. 13.

Army officials at Ft. Myer refused to comment on Verduin's case. Capt. Daniel C. Cullinan, public affairs officer, did say that "if Verduin is found guilty by civil authorities, the army will dispose of his case according to army regulations, just like any other soldier in the same situation."

"This is a matter between myself, the other party involved and the state of Virginia," said Verduin.

Bukowy could not be reached for comment. Threat declined to comment.

Harold Mantius, NSWPP director of public relations, said the party is providing Bukowy with legal advice but Verduin "elected to provide his own counsel."

Mantius said Verduin is a party member while McQuire and Bukowy are listed as party "supporters."

"There is no doubt in my mind these men are not guilty," said Mantius.

Honor-Rite GI Is a Nazi, Army Says

By JOSEPH VOLZ

Washington (News Bureau)—An Army spokesman admitted yesterday that a former member of the elite Old Guard honor unit that performs at the White House is an organizer for a neo-Nazi group known as the National Socialist White Peoples Party.

The soldier, Pfc. Frederick Verduin, joined the unit, which also guards the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery, in November 1975. He was transferred out of the unit eight months ago when the Army discovered he was a Nazi. Verduin currently is assigned to the museum at Fort Myer, Va., a few blocks away from the National Socialist headquarters.

Verduin's Nazi background — he joined the National Socialists last year, according to a party spokesman — did not become public until Monday, when he was convicted of assaulting a black Washington policeman, off duty at the time.

Verduin was sentenced to 20 days in jail and fined $200 by Arlington County Judge Richard Corman on two counts of assaulting Detective Edward Threat.

A scuffle between Threat and several Nazis broke out in a gas station across the street from National Socialist headquarters after the Nazis made racial remarks to Threat's wife, Karen, who is white, Threat testified.

Army regulations do not ban Verduin from joining the Nazis or wearing the party uniform and swastika when he is off duty.

Nazi Clash At Bakke Protest

By LOUIS GONZALEZ

Ten uniformed Nazis interrupted a rally by about 2,000 persons who want the Bakke court decision overturned, and the confrontation led to a fistfight Saturday.

The Nazis, dressed in brown shirts, boots and helmets, and wearing swastika insignia and armbands, were shouting "White Power Now" and carrying "Bakke Equals White Power" signs.

The rally in Oakland's San Antonio Park was protesting the California Supreme Court's decision in the Allan Bakke "reverse discrimination" case, which will be heard by the U.S. Supreme Court Wednesday.

"We came to voice our support for the Bakke decision," said Dan Stewart, 37, a member of the National Socialist White People's Party from Los Angeles.

"We are out to march in a peaceful demonstration just like the people in the park and make our point," he said.

His Nazi group was met at a corner of the park by rally monitors, supporters and Oakland police.

After the free-swinging fistfight, police arrested Robert Haake, described by Stewart as a Nazi group leader in San Francisco. Haake was later released without charge and was only taken away from the area "for his own protection," according to police.

There were no further incidents as 30 Oakland police patrolled the area.

The Oakland rally was part of a national day of gatherings to demonstrate support against the Bakke case. Rally spokesman Bob Wing said thousands of people were expected to turn out in Los Angeles, Sacramento, Seattle, New York, Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, Chicago and other major cities.

Various speakers told the crowd they were gathered to demand an end to racism in this country.

"We, the people of this nation, come not to praise the Bakke decision, but to bury it. So long as there are slums for people to live in, people in want of decent homes and jobs, we must fight decisions like Bakke," Alameda County Supervisor John George told the crowd.

George added the Board of Supervisors and the Oakland City Council had declared the day a "day of concern" over the Bakke case.

HELMETED NAZI'S BLACK-GLOVED HAND GRABS DEMONSTRATOR AT ANTI-BAKKE RALLY

A free-swinging fistfight grew out of the clash between brownshirts and demonstrators

Rep. Edward R. Roybal, D-Los Angeles, and member of the Hispanic Congressional Caucus, said, "The Bakke case must be seen not from the 16 minority slots but from the entire picture."

Five places have been reported to have been reserved by the dean of admissions, he said. "It is the dean who denied Bakke admission, not the minority students. The court's decision must make it fair to minorities to get into professional schools and colleges as a whole," Roybal added.

Since the high court is made up of Nixon appointees, Roybal expressed hope their decision would be tempered with common sense.

"If the decision is adverse to minorities, then Congress will have to take the next step," Roybal warned.

During a press conference, Melinda Paras, of the Union of Democratic Filipinos, said the Bakke decision was more than a case involving "reverse discrimination."

"It is an attempt to blame the economic and unemployment crises and other problems faced by the country on minorities," she said.

Nazis Invade Rally

ACTIVITIES IN BRIEF

● A "FREE BOB MILES!" picket was conducted by the ST men from the Chicago unit on 9 October, at the Federal Building in downtown Chicago. Two teams of troopers, under the command of Capt. Cedric Syrdahl, picketed for one hour carrying signs which read "FREE BOB MILES!" and "WHITE POWER!" There were no incidents. (See photo at right.)

● A record-setting WHITE POWER T-shirt and paper sale was held in the Marquette Park area of Chicago on 1 October. A total of $195.43 was collected by eight uniformed troopers during a three-hour period, despite intermittent rain and 50-degree temperature. TL Steve Lynch, who led the activity, reports that the majority of comments from passersby were favorable.

● Another "pro-Bakke" demonstration was held in San Francisco on 15 October, a week after the Oakland demonstration. This time the ST men were intercepted by an anti-NS police sergeant who told the troopers that their Constitutional rights were being "waived" by him, and that they would not be allowed to demonstrate as they had planned. Undaunted, the Stormtroopers picketed as near as they could to an anti-Bakke rally being held by local Reds and non-Whites. Despite the attempt by the police to prevent the action, some media coverage was received.

● Milwaukee Unit I reports that a full schedule of low-key activities was undertaken during the month of October, in the wake of the tremendous publicity from the two successful anti-busing rallies held in August and September. Three uniformed WHITE POWER sales were held during the month, as well as two door-to-door distributions, in which thousands of papers were passed out.

● A so-called "group libel" ordinance was repealed by the Milwaukee County Board on 11 October. The ordinance was admittedly aimed at silencing the Party in Milwaukee. Under its provisions, criticism of any group (such as Jews or Blacks) which led to violence would have been punished by heavy fines and jail sentences. The ordinance was repealed because the Board felt it to be unconstitutional in that it abridged freedom of speech — and also because they felt that the Party would actually benefit from controversy the ordinance was causing.

● Unit Organizer Gregg Hummer reports that the Los Angeles Unit comrades had a full day of activity on 22 October. On their way to a routine paper sale in Ontario, California, the troopers heard on the radio that President Carter would be in West Los Angeles that afternoon, and that various "radical" groups would be demonstrating there. The troops held the paper sale in Ontario as planned, and then drove to West L.A. where Carter was appearing. Upon arriving at the site, the troopers, still in uniform, held an impromptu demonstration of their own, which upset the local Reds and JDL-ers, who as usual contented themselves with spitting and cursing at the National Socialists. Television and radio coverage was received as a result of the activity.

● Midwest National Socialist Youth Movement members have begun the distribution of a newsletter specially prepared for high school and junior high school students, entitled The White Student! For a sample copy of this publication, write to:

New NSYM National Secretary

Comrade Bruce Mathews, formerly Southern California District Organizer, has been appointed National Secretary for the National Socialist Youth Movement. All correspondence concerning the NSYM may be addressed to Comrade Mathews at National Headquarters.

New National Headquarters Staff Members

Hans A. Koehler, 28, has joined NHQ staff as World Union of National Socialists Corresponding Secretary. Comrade Koehler, a 1972 honors graduate of the University of Wisconsin, has been associated with the Party since he first became an Official Supporter in 1967. A personal friend of Dr. Hans Ziegler (see NS BULLETIN No. 229, page 5), he is fluent in several foreign languages. His duties will include the issuing of the WUNS BULLETIN and all international correspondence.

Sharon Mathews, 24, is the first woman comrade to work full-time for the Party in a long while. A native of Pennsylvania, Comrade Sharon has been active in the Movement for more than three years, and is a member of the National Socialist Women's Organization as well as being a full Party member. Mrs. Mathews will be assisting in the editorial department.

Activity of the Month

As all comrades should have noticed, WHITE POWER is once again being published on a monthly basis. In order for this to continue, all Party supporters will have to assist in increasing the distribution and circulation of the paper.

The activity this month is simply to purchase 10 copies of the most recent WHITE POWER, and distribute those copies in any manner you desire.

Here are some ways the paper can be distributed:

- Give them to friends or relatives who are sympathetic to our views
- Leave one or two on a bus or subway, or in a laundromat
- Mail one to each of your friends
- Mail one to each of your enemies!
- Send a couple of copies to your local news media
- Hand them out for free on a street corner
- Sell them for 35 cents each to passersby on a street corner
- Leave them on front doorsteps in an all-White or racially mixed neighborhood

The list of possible ways to distribute the paper is endless. If possible, encourage people to subscribe on their own. They can then be used to recruit even more subscribers and supporters.

(One note of caution: it is illegal to place papers in someone's mailbox without putting the proper postage on it. In some areas, it is also illegal to place papers under car windshield wipers, or to sell the paper without a business license.)

NOTE: The regular cost for 10 copies of the paper is $3. For this one time only, NS Publications is reducing the cost to only $2, so that a maximum number of comrades may participate in the activity.

Remember: This is your paper, and it needs your support to live and grow!
