National Socialists March On New Zealand Embassy

On 8 Feb., two teams of ST men under the command of GL Martin Kerr marched on the New Zealand embassy in Washington, D.C., to protest the unjust harassment of National Socialist comrades in that country. In particular, the troopers were protesting charges brought against New Zealand NS leader Colin King-Ansell.

Nazis in protest at NZ Embassy

WASHINGTON, Wednesday.— American Nazis demonstrated today near the New Zealand Embassy here, protesting what they claimed was the persecution of Nazis in New Zealand.

Eleven brown-shirted members of the National Socialist Party marched up and down Massachusetts Ave for about an hour around midday.

But because of local laws designed to protect embassies, the group came no closer than 150 metres to the embassy.

The marchers carried placards saying “Free King-Ansell” and “Free speech for National Socialists.”

The King-Ansell placards were a reference to the reported jailing in New Zealand last year of Colin King-Ansell, a member of the New Zealand National Socialist Party after conviction under the Race Relations Act for inciting ill-will against Jews.

King-Ansell was sentenced to three months jail but was released on bail pending the outcome of an appeal.

Though the Nazis kept 150 metres away from the embassy, New Zealand officials agreed to receive two of the protesters.

The leader of the group, John Verduin, 2 metres

(6ft 6in) tall, handed Miss Barbara Angus, number two in the embassy, a sealed letter for Prime Minister Muldoon.

Miss Angus said later she was also given a copy of the letter, on a World National Socialist Movement letter-head, which complained about alleged persecution of Nazis by New Zealand authorities.

Embassy officials noted the world headquarters of the National Socialists is in nearby Virginia and they assumed word of the King-Ansell case had reached Nazi officials, provoking the demonstration.

One New Zealander said the Nazi marchers were “dollish looking.”

All members of the group, except two women, wore brown-shirt uniforms with Nazi swastikas, boots and motor-cycle helmets.

Some of the demonstrators, including Verduin, had shaven heads.

King Ansell’s appeal against conviction was adjourned last week and is now set down for March 1.

King-Ansell has been charged with inciting race-hatred (or some such nonsense) under his country's repressive "race-relations" act, which prohibits criticism of non-Aryans. Specifically, he is charged with the especially heinous crime of printing leaflets with quotations on them from the Bible which several Jews living in New Zealand found "offensive."

While the troopers picketed with signs reading "FREE SPEECH FOR NATIONAL SOCIALISTS!" and "FREE KING-ANSELL!", Operations Officer TL Fred Verduin and WUNS Secretary H. A. Koehler entered the embassy to deliver a letter of protest. The two comrades met with embassy minister Barbara Angus and discussed the unfair persecution of New Zealand NS comrades with her.

There were no incidents. The event was widely covered in the New Zealand news media, including the article from the front page of the Auckland Star reproduced on page one.

Arlington to be Site of Ninth Congress

Commander Koehl has announced that the Ninth Continental Congress of the National Socialist White People's Party will be held in Arlington this year. Like last year's Congress, the Ninth Congress will be open only to those comrades specifically invited by National Headquarters to attend as delegates or observers. The Membership Secretary has already indicated that no one will be invited whose dues or pledges are not up to date.

Further details concerning the Congress will be announced in coming issues of the NS BULLETIN. Those comrades selected to attend the Congress will be notified by mail at a later date.

Jews Worried Over NS Honor Guard

Reproduced here is a clipping from a pro-communist Jewish newspaper entitled Jewish People which is published in New York. The article expresses great concern that a former member of the presidential honor guard, Frederick T. Verduin, is a member of the Party, and was with the Party during the time he was "guarding" Ford, Carter, Kissinger and other System big shots.

Minneapolis Comrades Active

Party comrades in Minneapolis, under the leadership of TL Steve Martinson, are busy turning their city into a National Socialist stronghold. On 5 Feb., seven comrades plastered the University of Minnesota with White Power superstickers, bumper stickers and leaflets. On 12 Feb., a door-to-door literature distribution was held. Some 348 copies of WHITE POWER and 742 leaflets were distributed on the north side of Minneapolis.

In addition to these activities, the Minneapolis Unit places an ad for WHITE POWER in the youth-oriented Twin Cities Reader. Some response to the ad was received, and the unit plans to run it again for four weeks.

Individual Activism Builds the Party!

Although most activities are undertaken by organized Party units, there is still much that comrades acting on their own can do to spur Party growth. Here is a summary of activities reported by a few comrades acting on their own (or, in one case, with two other comrades):

JEWISH PEOPLE, January 27, 1978

The Presidential Guard And Nazism

By MARVIN GREISMAN

In 1948, the State of Israel was established. It seemed that it would mark an end to Nazism. The Jewish people would no longer fall victim to the spectre of Nazism.

The expectation that Nazism was no more was just that, an expectation. The seeds of the Nazi cancer did not end with the War or the death of Hitler. While six million Jews died, there were others who believed that was not enough. The genocide was to be continued. For what was a horror to world Jewry, was just an event to build a foundation upon. The efforts of the Nazi movement continue, and just like during the height of the Nazi period, it has become a spectator sport to the media.

In America, the big box office attraction is Star Wars. Well, Star Wars is not a box office hit in Germany. In Germany, they are watching a new wave of Hitler films. These films do not teach the German population that Hitler was evil. They glorify him and his accomplishments. Millions of Germans are going to the movies to see Hitler "the hero" instead of seeing Hitler, the killer of six million Jews. These films will have an impact on a German generation which knows nothing of Hitler to begin with. And now are given a favorable impression of the Fuehrer's activities.

The American Nazi Party did not die with George Lincoln Rockwell, its leader. It is on the move in the United States. The movement has a mailing list estimated to be over 200,000 and its annual income is said to be around $100,000. It has been enough to encourage American Nazi party members to seek political office in the U.S. Members of the Nazi party have run for office in five States and received as much as 16 percent of the vote in these elections. The Hitler terror has slithered into the American political process. This development, although minor in impact, cannot be overlooked. The Nazi party in Germany started with only a handful of members.

The Presidential Guard is an elite group in America. To become a member one must be of the highest caliber and integrity. Well, even the U.S. Army's elite Presidential Guard just recently discovered that one of its members is a member of the American Nazi party Frederick T. Verduin, a member of the 3rd United States Infantry at Ft. Meyer in Arlington, also a member of the guard, was convicted for beating up a Black off-duty Washington, D.C. police officer. It should be noted that this member of the guard did not act alone, he was assisted by 35 Nazis wearing Nazi uniforms armed with riot gear and billy clubs. This happened in the nation's capitol, not far from the Lincoln and Washington Monuments. The Presidential Guard is not free from Nazi terror. This incident might be isolated in nature, but it smacks shame on the operations of the U.S. Army's Presidential Guard.

- Comrade J.C. — Allentown, Pennsylvania — Placed Swastika stickers in noticeable locations throughout his town
 Distributed 2,000 leaflets door-to-door
 Distributed copies of WHITE POWER
 Talked to people interested in the Party about joining up
 Placed an ad for WHITE POWER in the local newspaper
- Comrade A.B. — Urbana, Illinois — Placed ad for one week in the Morning Courier advertising WHITE POWER
 Sent letter of support to Bob Miles
- Comrade D.M. — Yuma, Arizona — (with two other comrades) Conducted a “vigorous sticker campaign” throughout Yuma
 Stuffed high school lockers with leaflets
- Comrade T.S. — Lima, Ohio — Spiked local libraries with copies of WHITE POWER and leaflets
 Put up 100 White Power stickers
 Wrote letter condemning the Panama Canal giveaway to local paper

The National Socialist America which is inevitably coming will surely arrive a lot sooner if more comrades will follow the example these men are setting!

A Message From The Editor

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF SUCCESSFUL PROPAGANDA— Part 1

“ Propaganda must be total. The propagandist must utilize all of the technical means at his disposal — the press, radio, television, movies, posters, door-to-door canvassing. Modern propaganda must utilize all of these media. There is no propaganda as long as one makes use, in sporadic fashion and at random, of a newspaper article here, a poster or a radio program there, organizes a few meetings and a lecture, writes a few slogans on the wall; that is not propaganda.”

— Jacques Ellul, Propaganda (The Formation of Men's Attitudes)

It is the duty of every National Socialist to be a propagandist for our Cause. Propaganda is simply persuading people to believe your side of the story — whatever that story may be. It is an art. Just as everyone has a certain basic ability to draw or to make music, everyone has the potential to become a propagandist for what they believe in.

Often National Socialist activists engaged in waging a day-to-day struggle for White Power lose perspective with regard to the methods with which this struggle must be fought. Other comrades who are not activists would like to become activists — only they do not know where to begin.

There are two basic rules to propaganda:

1. Simplicity
2. Repetition

Local activists should decide on one or two problems which concern the White people of their locality and then concentrate on them. Distribute copies of WHITE POWER and leaflets which deal with these problems. Put on a White Power Message that explains the Party's stand on the issues. Hold pickets (in or out of uniform). Attend public meetings. Issue press releases. Hold press conferences. Arrange speaking engagements at local high schools and colleges. Arrange radio and television talk show appearances.

The important thing is to pick an issue and drive it home! Attack it from every angle — not once, but again and again!

With the extremely limited resources available to us, we should not allow ourselves to become over-excited and strike out at all of the evils in our society at once. Rather, we must pick an issue on a local level and exploit it relentlessly.

In addition to such repetition, remember to keep your message simple. Don't bring up all sorts of side issues that do not directly relate to the problem you are focusing on. Keep your message clear and easy to understand, so that even the stupidest White person knows what subject you are talking about and what your stand on it is.

Don't try to use big, long words and complex phrases to show how “intelligent” you are. Rather, impress people with your level-headedness and common sense.

In the next issue of the NS BULLETIN we will show how these basic principles apply on a practical level to local organization. In the meantime, all National Socialists who are interested should look over the world's best basic textbook on propaganda, which is probably sitting on their bookshelf at this moment — MEIN KAMPF. The sections concerned especially with propaganda include Volume I, Chapter 6 and Volume II, Chapters 6 and 11.

Richard Biederman Honored in Special Memorial Service

Party Comrade Richard Biederman, who was killed while serving with the Rhodesian Army late last year, was honored in a special memorial service conducted by the Commander at National Headquarters on 12 Feb. Two memorial wreaths were set before the altar and Swastika banner. One wreath was from a Texas comrade, and the other, which bore a sash reading "In Everlasting Comradeship," was from the National Headquarters staff. On the altar were Comrade Biederman's dress beret and belt, which had been sent to NHQ by Rhodesian comrades.

The service opened with the soul-searing strains of the funeral march of Beethoven's Third Symphony. Following this, the Commander delivered an address on the meaning of Comrade Biederman's life and the nature of his sacrifice.

In his address, the Commander said:

"Our Movement and our Race have lost a good man. Those of us who were fortunate enough to have known Richard Biederman can consider ourselves privileged indeed, for we have been forever blessed by a very unique and wonderful experience. He was a real comrade. He was a brother to us all. You couldn't find a better man.

"It is difficult and painful to accept the fact of this tragedy. And yet, if we can somehow take the occasion of this tragic event to become more acutely aware of the nature of the struggle in which we are engaged, of its crucial necessity, of its supreme importance for the future of our Race, and resolve to give our very best to it until all our efforts are one day crowned in Victory, then — in spite of everything — our comrade's death will not have been in vain."

The assembled comrades then gave Comrade Biederman a last, farewell salute, as the martyrs' theme "I Had a Loyal Comrade" played. The memorial service ended with the singing of the Party Battle Song.
