Jimmy Carter

John F. Kennedy

"The Dallas Times Herald" of April 11, 1976, stated: "people tell Carter he looked like a skinny, countrified Jack Kennedy." Note physical similarities between the two men. They have the same nose, smile, teeth, heavy bags under the eyes and hair style!

The hottest rumor in Washington right now is about the apparent close relationship between Jimmy Carter and Teddy Kennedy. Many people have speculated about the fact that they look very much alike. There indeed may be much more to their similar flashing smile than is commonly known.

Everyone knows what a libertine President John F. Kennedy was, as well as his late brother Bobby and also Teddy Kennedy. It is well known in the journalistic world that their father, Joseph P. Kennedy, was the biggest womanizer of them all. During the early 1920s Kennedy. Sometime later she moved back to Georgia and on October 1, 1924 gave birth to a son — Jimmy Carter. Every time he flashes that toothy grin people remark how much he looks like a Kennedy.

It is interesting that Teddy Kennedy has recently met with Jimmy Carter and pledged to support him

Carter also has the same "halting speech pattern" which plagued the Kennedys.

Carter Had Psychiatric Treatment

Jimmy Carter lost his first race for governor in 1966. He loped into a deep depression. His sister called it a "mental crisis." The year 1967 is referred to as the "missing year" in Carter's life. It was during this period that he placed himself in the hands of Dr. Peter Bourne, a noted psychiatrist.

His sister sought to persuade Carter to commit himself to the Lord, but Carter says he committed himself to Dr. Bourne in 1967. Today Dr. Bourne is Carter's chief doctor and is already located in Washington running the Carter office there.

Dr. Bourne has been trained in "mind manipulation" and is credited with first suggesting that Carter run for president. Dr. Peter Bourne is a good friend of David Rockefeller and they both have stated their interest in seeing a president selected from a behavioral point of view.

It also should be noted that Dr. Bourne's wife, the former Mary King, is a former girlfriend of Stokeley Carmichael, the notorious black revolutionist. She was once arrested during his bloody

Jimmy Carter Has Lied To The American People

Recent polls have found that some people have voted for Jimmy Carter because they believed that he was against abortion. Others voted for him thinking he favored abortion. Some voted for him because they think he is against busing; others voted for him because they think he is for it. The same goes for the Right To Work Law, ERA, Open Housing, etc., etc. Carter may go down in history as the slickest double-talking politician to ever come on the scene.

The truth of the matter is that Jimmy Carter is an extreme leftist and always has been. He has always spoken vaguely on the issues so that the masses will read into his statements the belief that this "simple Georgia farmer" feels just like they do. Through sheer trickery and subterfuge Carter has been able to hoodwink millions of normally conservative Americans into voting for him.

Carter Drives For Jew And Negro Votes

Addressing a black caucus meeting in North Carolina on May 2, Carter asked the black leaders to "draw up a list of positions to which you would like to see blacks appointed to if I become president." They responded with requests for the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). They included positions in foreign affairs. Carter responded that: "We're putting together a list of those positions we think we will appoint blacks to, from the Cabinet to other high echelon jobs." He also promised to appoint black federal judges throughout the South.

At a Washington, D.C. meeting of black clergymen which negro "Jet Magazine" reported, Carter pledged that: "When I'm elected there will be black members in my Cabinet. You can depend on it." The magazine lauded him because he would be the first president in

U.S. history to have more than one negro seated in the Cabinet at the same time. It said this promise was made to the blacks in response to their bloc vote giving him the victory edge in Pennsylvania, North Carolina and Florida.

Carter All Out For The Jew Vote

Besides having his campaign staff loaded down with Jews as reported in The Thunderbolt (Issue #205) Carter has taken the strongest pro-Israeli position of any candidate. He is the only candidate to state that Israel should not give Syria back the Golan Heights and supports Jewish colonies in West Bank Arab territory. This has been the cause of recent Arab rioting.

Carter Favors Segregation For Jewish Schools Only

In an article which only appeared in the Jewish owned "New York Times" on May 26, Jimmy Carter told a Jewish group that he supports forced busing of White Christian children and negroes. He stated: "I believe that private schools should be required to admit blacks."

NOTE CLOSELY THE FOLLOWING: AT the same time Jimmy Carter carefully

promised the Jews that "narrow purpose schools such as Jewish yeshivas should not have to integrate. All other private schools should be required to have an open admissions policy whether or not the school receives Federal funds or had tax free status," declared Carter.

No politician in history has gone as far as Carter in appeasing the minorities. He openly has promised them positions and favors which blatantly discriminate against White Christian citizens! George McGovern never went this far to the left. Carter may be from Georgia but he is a scalawag and traitor to the South and the White people of America. He is actually Anti-White.

Carter has called the war in Vietnam an evil "racist war." He told leftist groups in California that "we would never have committed similar indiscriminate killings in World War II that we did against yellow people in Vietnam." Carter is a former submarine commander but apparently he ignored the fact that the allies deliberately bombed residential areas of Hamburg killing over 75,000 men, women and children just to create panic and terror among the German civilian population. With the war all but over, British and American planes bombed the open city of Dresden when it was filled with refugees fleeing from the communists in the East. For two days and two nights they rained tens of thousands of fire bombs down upon the defenseless city of Dresden, slaughtering around 400,000 men, women and children in history's worst mass atrocity.

Carter ignores all the facts of history to twist the truth and say any war in which non-Whites die is "racist." In other words Jimmy Carter is actually anti-White! He is one of those leftists who has been filled with the poison of "White self-hate" and has a guilt complex because Joe returned to Hollywood after his son was elected President. He still had an eye for pretty women, singling out Janet Leigh for his dancing partner.

Joe Kennedy invested some of the millions he made in the stock market in the Hollywood film industry. Joe fell head over heels for Gloria Swanson and set her up with her own film company. Their relationship was well known and flaunted publicly. Miss Swanson was called Joe's "West Coast wife." In 1922 she gave birth to an illegitimate son she named Joseph after her lover.

Later the two broke up and Joe Kennedy moved back to his New York based investment company. In 1923, Lillian Gordy, (Jimmy Carter's mother) went to work as a secretary to Joseph P.

Leading Jews Endorse Jimmy Carter

JEWISH LEADERSHIP SWITCHES TO CARTER

It all began with what looked like a landslide for Sen. Henry bloc vote and fool Christian conservatives into voting for him also. Carter already had the support of the Montgomery, Ala., Jewish fund raiser Morris Dees. This is the same man who raised millions for George McGovern's campaign for President.

Carter got the ethnic urban vote, being a farmer he got the farm vote, and he swept the negro communities. In Florida Carter received 70% of the negro vote, in North Carolina it was 90%. The Black vote gave Carter the victory edge in both states. This gave him his present momentum and many people like to vote for a "winner!"

Sen. Jackson was dropped by the Jewish community like a hot potato. Jimmy Carter has welcomed them with open arms. He has long been the Jews' favorite in Georgia and at the very beginning of the campaign while on a tour of Japan stated that if he were President "I would never exercise leverage against Israel by freezing their foreign aid."

With Morris Dees now bringing the money in Jimmy Carter quickly named the Atlanta Jewish lawyer Robert Lipshutz as his national campaign treasurer. As governor Carter had appointed Lipshutz to the state Board of Human Resources. Lipshutz is past president of the Jewish Reform Temple in Atlanta and an influential Jewish leader in national Zionist circles.

JUST THE BEGINNING

In the New York campaign Carter named Mike Abrams his campaign manager. In both Florida and Massachusetts it was Jew Phil Wise who is just 26 years old. He is now Carter's "advance" man.

Now came the "Jewish advisors" to tell Carter how to run the nation if elected. According to Time Magazine, of April 26, he named Prof. Lawrence Klein of the U. of Penna as economic advisor. Klein commented that Carter "picks up my complicated ideas very fast." "U.S. New & World Report Newsletter" July 9, 1976 says Klein was once a member of the Communist Party while teaching a course in Marxism and Keynesian studies at the U. of Chicago. Martin Feldstein of Harvard is another "economic advisor." Lester Thurow of M.I.T., the liberal who was a major "brain" in formulating McGovern's welfare proposals, is now a Carter advisor. Campaign strategy expert is the Jew Marc Schenker of Atlanta.

One of the nation's wealthiest

Jews, Max Palevsky, has just announced that he will head a California fund raising campaign to deliver that state into Carter's corner in the June 8th primary. It was the 51 year old Palevsky, a Jew of Russian parentage, who made $50 million in a stock deal with Xerox Corp. in 1969. In 1972 he personally gave $325,000 to the George McGovern campaign.

GUN CONFISCATION UNDER CARTER?

It should also be noted that the Jew Morris Dees, who launched the fund raising drive for Carter in the very beginning, is the founder of the "National Gun Control Center" in Montgomery. He states that while Jimmy Carter publicly advocates prohibition of "Saturday Night Specials" (71% of all hand guns existing today) Dees wants a broader gun control law which will eventually ban not only the sale of handguns but their ownership by private individuals.

Dees also runs the "Southern Poverty Law Center" with his co-racialist Joe Levin. Together they raised $300,000 to defend prostitute, killer, negress Joanne Little. This is just a sampling of the ilk standing in the wings behind Jimmy Carter ready to take power should the news media be able to dominate both political conventions and give us the choice of either Jimmy Carter or Gerald Ford. An informed America can stop this travesty.

Negro Vote Put Carter In Lead

BLACK BLOC VOTE PUT CARTER ON TOP

Jimmy Carter may go down in history as the slickest double-talking politician on record. He got the White suburban vote in Philadelphia by declaring his belief in "Ethnic Purity," but the blacks knew him better. The Atlanta Journal quoted him in a talk before local negro leaders, telling them; "I get votes from conservatives and young people but the most solid support I've gotten is from the black voters all over this country. I would not be able to run for president today if it were not for people like Martin Luther King, Jesse Hill, and Andrew Young who fought to liberate blacks . . . We've had analysis done after all the primaries and it has been the black voters who have carried me to victory in Illinois and even in Florida. Though I didn't win in Massachusetts, I solidly carried Roxbury which is predominantly black."

Negroes know where Jimmy Carter stands but Whites do not because he has been on both sides of every major issue, including busing, abortion, right to work laws, blockbusting, detente and you name it.

His campaign tactic is to build up momentum and let people think that he feels like you do — he also wants folks to think he is the "common average man — a farmer — a Southerner."

The truth is that Jimmy Carter is a member of the far left and has the wholehearted support of organized Jewry, the negroes, and the Kennedy family.

Jimmy Carter embraces Jesse Hill, head of Atlanta's black political machine. No politician has ever gone to such extremes in courting the negro bloc vote.

of the color of his skin. He is not a true leader and not representative of White Christian America. Jimmy Carter owes his very soul to the Jews and negroes and should he become president, our Republic would be in the hands of a dangerous, mentally twisted, individual who actually hates his own race. His support of forced busing, open housing and all forms of race mixing means that he would do all within his power to mongrelize the White Race — while at the same time insuring the preservation of the Jewish race by allowing them to remain segregated.

One little known fact from Jimmy Carter's history is that he was personally picked to be a nuclear submarine commander by Rear Admiral Hyman Rickover. This is the Jew who has headed our Naval atomic defense projects for many years. Rickover is a Jewish socialist and privately quizzed all the men he appointed to be sub officers. After a one hour talk in which he went into Carter's social views, he picked him as a submarine commander. Rickover knew that here he had a man who was personally devoted to the leftist philosophy of the Jew Karl Marx.

Carter Finally Pinned Down

WHERE DOES JIMMY CARTER REALLY STAND?

Jimmy Carter seems to be all things to all people and it depends upon his audience as to what impression he hopes to leave with them. He does everything possible to keep from being pinned down on specific issues but the record brings out the REAL Jimmy Carter.

As a young man in South Georgia Jimmy Carter refused to join the local Citizens Council when it was still "respectable" to belong to a segregationist organization. His business was boycotted when his family were the only ones to vote to admit negroes to membership in the local Baptist Church. Jimmy Carter has supported with vigor all of the anti-White Civil Rights laws. The following are his official stands on specific issues which you most often do not hear from this candidates mouth:

- 1) Defense: would kill the B1 bomber program and reduce the number of expensive weapons and cut back of the number of defense workers.
- 2) Foreign Policy: would continue aid to Israel and Detente with Russia.
- 3) Forced Busing: is against a constitutional amendment to outlaw busing.
- 4) Equal Rights Amendment: supports it.
- 5) Abortion: is against any state or federal laws to control its use.
- 6) Civil Rights Laws: strongly supports all of them including integrated housing.
- 7) Gun Control: endorses national registration of all hand guns in America.
- 8) Marijuana: would decriminalize (legalize) its usage.
- 9) Taxes: favors a progressive tax system which would raise taxes higher than they are today on those earning over $6,000 per year.
- 10) Economics: favors a WPA style job system that would give every one a public job who is unemployed (something like they have in Russia!)

The above Carter Stand was compiled by the "Dallas Times Herald Washington Bureau" and is the first explicit study of just exactly where Jimmy Carter actually does stand on the issues. Many voters have been fooled into voting for this man because they think he is a "conservative" or a "moderate" when the truth is that he is an extreme leftist. Awaken your neighbors and help spread the truth about Jimmy Carter and his dangerous Marxist views.

Carter's Jew Relatives Say He Places Israel First

Jewish Cousin Influenced Carter

SAMUEL BRAUNSTEIN
— Jimmy Carter's close cousin.

Carter Has Jewish Kin

CLEVELAND — James Carter had a Jewish uncle and has a cousin who considers himself Jewish.

Jerry Barach, editor of The Cleveland Jewish News, learned of the Democratic candidate's Jewish relations when he appeared here.

Louis Braunstein was married to Carter's aunt, his mother's sister. He recalled to Barach his frequent visits to the Braun-

Carter on "Ethnic Purity"

Jimmy Carter does not make his vague statements on the issues by mistake. His "ethnic purity" proclamation was made to trick ethnic groups in White neighborhoods to vote for him in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. As soon as the Supreme Court laid down its own ruling that public housing had to be built in White suburbs Carter said that "suits me fine!"

Carter went even further in advocating black housing in White neighborhoods by emphasizing his support of "affirmative action by the Government to prevent discrimination in new housing financed with Federal assistance."

The Dow-Jones' "National Observer" in the May 1, issue, page 15, gave their opinion of Jimmy Carter's definition of "ethnic purity" by stating: "The Observer hears that Jimmy Carter really believes in ethnic impurity." In other words, Carter believes in the mongrelization of the White Race by forced integration of schools and neighborhoods.

On this page is a report from the "Jewish Post" which states that Jimmy Carter has a Jewish uncle and a Jewish cousin. Carter's mother's sister married the Jew Louis Braunstein from Chattanooga, Tenn. The family has long maintained a close relationship with their Jewish relatives and this could explain why Carter takes such a strong pro-Israeli stand that it makes him act like a Zionist activist — which he actually is!

By ROBERTA BRANDES GRATZ

Samuel Braunstein remembers it well. It was Jimmy Carter who put him on his first horse, made him wear a mask to protect him from the dust in the peanut factory, taught him how to scale a fish and took him to lunch with the Georgia Governor who preceded Carter, Carl Sanders.

Sam Braunstein, who has the same blue eyes and broad smile as the presidential candidate, is Carter's kid cousin.

He remembers how many years ago they spent an evening sprawled on the living room floor in Plains, Ga., burning midnight oil discussing politics, injustice, Judeo-Christian differences and the survival of Israel, a cause young Braunstein took for his own while in college.

Braunstein is a Jewish member of the vast family Carter tree. His mother, Mary Elizabeth, and Carter's mother, Lillian, are sisters-

Braunstein's father, Louis, who died two years ago, was a religious Jew from Atlanta who in the 1930s moved to Chattanooga for a job with the railroad.

Sam Braunstein followed his father's path and is "very much" a practicing Jew.

stein home in Atlanta before they moved to Chattanooga.

One of the sons of the Braunsteins has become an Orthodox Jew, according to Carter and lives in Englewood, Conn. Another son does not consider himself Jewish.

Young Sam Braunstein spent almost every summer romping through the woods of Plains and living in the Pond House on the rolling acreage where the Carters lived, and still live, in the Proper House.

"The Greatest"

If Braunstein waxes ecstatic over the presidential candidate now, admitting it "sounds like campaign propaganda," he can't help it, he says, because Carter is "really the greatest." He remembers Jimmy as "always caring about some underdog, always trying to buck the system," whether the home town issues involved local schools, treating black and white farm labor as equals

Carter, Braunstein says, "thinks Israel has to remain a viable state," and believes this country "must do anything within reason to keep it alive and on equal footing."

Today, the Braunstein's oldest son, David, is traveling in Europe, then will settle for a while to work on a kibbutz in Israel.

What Braunstein had learned about Israel while still in college was passed along to Carter. "He probably knew more than I did to start, but I made damn sure he knew all that I had found out," Braunstein says.

Carter Supports Busing For Private Christian Schools But Not For Jewish Schools!

Carter on Busing

Frank Mankiewicz

BOBBY KENNEDY'S favorite Jew joins Carter team.

More Jews Join Carter Campaign

Jew political mentor Frank Mankiewicz has joined the Carter campaign. He led the Carter drive in California and is working with others to line up national Jewish influence to obtain the presidency for Carter. Mankiewicz was a top aide to Sen. George McGovern in his 1972 presidential race. He also was a top assistant to the late Bobby Kennedy in 1968. If Carter wins, Mankiewicz will be working out of the White House. It should be noted that last year Mankiewicz went to Cuba and interviewed Fidel Castro in an attempt to have the U.S. recognize the communist dictator. No doubt this will come about if Carter becomes president.

Two Alabama Jews Back Carter

They are not ordinary "Southern Jews," and The National Observer referred to them as "abrasive, obnoxious!" This is indeed descriptive of the average Jew but Morris Dees is the most successful mail-order fundraiser in America. He is responsible for raising most of Jimmy Carter's campaign money. He and fellow Jew Joe Levin operate the "Southern Poverty Law Center." They are the ones who raised $300,000 for the legal defense of Joanne Little who murdered a White jailer with an ice pick in North Carolina. No doubt they will take Levi and Pottinger's places in running the U.S. Justice Department should Carter become president.

One of the most powerful Jews in the world is optometrist Dr. William Wexler, who is the former international president of "B'nai B'rith", the secret Jewish businessmen's organization. Very few Georgians realize that this influential Jew lived quietly in Savannah, before moving to Israel. Recently he held the important position of B'nai B'rith's official representative in Israel. "Jewish Week" reports that Wexler will come back to head up the "Jews For Carter" organization if he wins the Democratic nomination. The Jewish publication describes Wexler as an "old friend of Carter."

Carter Supports W. Bank Colonies

NEW YORK — The strongest pro-Israel position of any candidate for the nomination for the presidency came from former Governor Jimmy Carter who said he favored Israel settlements in the occupied territories. When it was called to his attention that the Ford Administration was opposed to such settlements, he responded that if he were Premier of Israel he would not give up the Golan Heights or East Jerusalem,

He told a questioner that he believed private schools should be required to admit blacks.

He later adopted his present stance when in Cincinnati early in May, he said that except for a few "narrow purpose schools" such as Jewish yeshivas, all private schools should be required to have an open admissions policy whether or not the school receives Federal funds or had tax-free status.

But he also emphasized his support of affirmative action by the Government to prevent discrimination in new housing financed with Federal assistance.

Today, he viewed the Court's decision as a victory for equal opportunity.

"I've said that when Federal money is spent in a community, there ought to be an affirmative action program enforced."

Carter's "Halting Speech Pattern" Indicates Mental Illness

CARTER'S MENTAL PROBLEM?

Is Jimmy Carter really qualified to be President of the greatest nation on earth? Everything that appears in the press glorifies this "new face" without making a thorough study of his background. He obviously is not a public speaker and without a doubt has the poorest speech delivery of any candidate who tried for the Democratic nomination.

The Carter speech problem actually goes much deeper. Listen to any of his talks and you will discover that he has a "halting speech pattern." This means that he rarely can complete a sentence without halting pauses. It is very noticeable the more you study his form of talk. Medical science long ago found that both stuttering and halting speech represent a mental insufficiency. During his years as governor all his aids complained that at the spur of a moment he would explode in anger. Often he would later have to issue an apology.

Newsweek Magazine in its June 28 issue on page 18 states that Carter is "testy" or irritable under pressure. Newsweek said Carter "loses his cool!" During the campaign Carter got mad at something Sen. Hubert Humphrey had said. Carter snapped; "Humphrey is too old to be president." His aids were shocked and reminded him that this could be considered as an insult to all the elderly people in America. Carter agreed and issued an apology to Humphrey.

Members of the Georgia legislature complained that during his reign as Governor, Carter sought to dominate everybody. If anyone does not go along with Carter he becomes cantankerous, petulant and sullen. He often threatened to "get even" with legislators who objected to his proposals. His long and notorious feud with then Lt. Gov. Lester Maddox was the fault of Carter. The daily press laid the blame for this four year long bitter quarrel on Maddox.

Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre of New Hampshire said that he worries about Carter's well known "stubbornness" as this could easily cause unnecessary friction in Washington. The fact is that behind that Carter smile is a sick individual who will break down under pressure and in times of crisis. Is this the type of man to whom we can turn over the reigns of destiny of the nation?

Carter's Promise To Blacks

Columnist Helen Dewar interviewed Carter on Sea Island, Ga., on June 17. In the interview he told her that as a child in Plains, Ga., he only played with negro children, adding: "we used to wrestle, fight, fish, swim and have foot races and play baseball. There was never any difference shown to me because I was White."

Carter will out do other presidents in giving aid to negroes. This was promised by Carter in his statement recorded by Miss Dewar quoting Carter; "Kennedy and Johnson didn't do enough to bring blacks into the policymaking positions in government. I think Johnson had a much greater feel for it than Kennedy did. Kennedy was not one of them. He didn't understand their special needs."

Carter said that written examinations for certain licenses are "always tailor-made for White people." He says in Georgia rules have been relaxed for negroes so that they have become beauty parlor operators, barbers, funeral directors and licensed practical nurses. He said that he appointed negroes as judges and to the university system. He added, "Those are my people, not only Whites, but particularly blacks."

In other words Carter is saying that he is closer to negroes than he is to Whites! Carter further admitted to Miss Dewar that if he had told the people of Georgia where he really stood on the racial issue when he ran for governor in 1970 "I wouldn't have gotten 10% of the White vote."

On Tuesday, June 22, Carter spoke to a fund raising dinner in his honor in Boston and told the crowd; "Integration is one of the best things that ever happened in the South."

True Southerners know that if integration is successful, its result will be the amalgamation of the White and black races. This means a mulatto America of tomorrow! Negro genes are dominant at a 4 to 1 ratio and assimilation of the two races into one means the end of the White Race.

demonstrations of the 1960's.

Today Mrs. Bourne has more influence over Carter than any other woman. She directs his "51.3% Group." Mrs. Bourne advises Carter on such matters as civil rights, government child care, and women's lib.

Mental illness is a hereditary disorder. Teddy Kennedy has a sister permanently locked up in an insane asylum. It appears that mental problems also plague Jimmy Carter.

Some time back it was revealed that President Nixon had visited a well known New York psychiatrist. (Just before his race in 1968 when he was still a lawyer in NYC.) The medical findings at that time were never released but many democrats demanded that all serious candidates be given a full medical examination to determine whether or not they are physically qualified to be president. Pres. John F. Kennedy had an incurable bone disease and took medicine which could cause mental problems. If ever there was a candidate who needed a complete examination by a team of psychiatrists it is Jimmy Carter. This is an issue which needs to be raised before this man is allowed to take control of the U. S. Government.
